THE SECRETARY: Case No. 649, Tomoyuki Doi.

TOMOYUKI DOI, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

MR. VIRTUE: It might shorten things a little, your Honour, if I made a statement before I began to examine the claimant. If I could see the bill of sale of the boat, if my learned friend has it. The boat is supposed to have been sold by the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee on April 15th, 1942. Now if there is a bill of sale on that date, I realize for the present time there is no use of my leading evidence because while we do not admit that had the legal effect of a sale, yet I realize at the present time the ruling is that it is beyond the scope of the Commission so that if my learned friend has the bill of sale with regard to that, it might shorten things. Subject to the Custodian producing later a bill of sale, dated prior to August 2nd, 1942, I won't go into the question of the fishing boat at this time, but I reserve my right to go into that question should it be found that the bill of sale was not completed before that date.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. RICE: I think the claimant here was paid for his boat, according to my record, on April 15th, 1942. He ought to be able to answer that.

MR. VIRTUE: Well, I will ask him.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. VIRTUE:

Q Do you speak English?

A Yes, a little.

Q Do you remember this claim form which I am now showing you? A: Yes.

Q Being completed by you in my office?

A Yes.

Q And signed by you?

A Yes.

10 Q Is this a true and correct claim covering your nets, and so on? A: Yes.

Q For which you are claiming?

A Yes.

Q Is the information given in this form true and correct? A: Yes.

Q And the values fair values?

A Yes.

Q Did you leave this property described in your claim when you were evacuated?

20 A Yes.

Q It was there when you left?

A Yes.

MR. VIRTUE: I will offer that as Exhibit 1.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. VIRTUE: Q Now, do you remember when your boat was sold and when you got the money? I will just ask you this: We are told that the boat was sold in April, 1942, and the money was paid over to you at that time?

30 A Yes.

Q Is that correct? A: Yes, I received the money at that time.

Q You received the money at that time?

A Not at that time, but when I come over here.

Q After you were evacuated, you received the money?

A Yes, before I was evacuated.

Q Before you were evacuated?

A Yes.

Q You received the money? A: Yes.

10 Q And what was the date of your evacuation?

A April 20th, I think.

Q April in the year 1942?

A Yes.

Q So that before April, 1942, you actually received the money for your boat, or in April?

A Yes.

Q Well then, we won't go into that at this time. All right.

MR. REE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the boat
20 was sold by the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee and that, therefore, it is not within the terms of reference.

I am submitting that the other chattels were sold at their fair market value, some chattels claimed for by the claimant there is no record of at any time and I submit that the Custodian is not responsible for them, and if the Custodian is responsible for any chattels in any manner that have been stolen or not accounted for, that the 30 claim made for the same is excessive.

I wish to submit as an exhibit, your Honour, an analysis of personal property claim.

MR. RICE: I would also like to submit as an exhibit, your Honour, a copy of the appraisal of the nets.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q In your declaration that you made before leaving
10 the evacuated area, you declared that you had eight fishing nets.

MR. VIRTUE: Better show him that so that he can have it in front of him.

MR. RICE: Q: I show you your J.P. form (indicating). Is that your signature?

A Yes.

Q Dated April 15th, 1942. In this form you say you have eight fishing nets apparently stored at Imperial Cannery nethouse, Steveston, B.C.?

20 A That is right.

Q That is right, is it? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I will tender that, if I may, as an exhibit.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Exhibit 4.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. RICE: Q: You now claim ten nets, do you not?

A Yes.

Q Is your memory better today than it was when you completed your J.P. form?

A One is one length different, fathom.

30 MR. VIRTUE: I didn't get that answer, Mr. Reporter.

BY THE REPORTER: One is one length different, fathom.

MR. RICE: Q: Most of your nets have been used two or three seasons?

A Yes.

Q How old are you? A: Twenty-nine.

Q Twenty-nine? A: Twenty-eight.

Q Twenty-eight?

A Yes.

10 Q You said twenty-eight? A: Yes.

Q And you would only be twenty-one when you were evacuated then?

A Yes, about that.

Q How long had you been in the fishing business before you were evacuated?

A Oh, about six or seven years.

Q About six or seven years?

A Not in business but working with my brother.

Q Working with your brother?

20 A Yes.

Q Did this property belong to you that you are claiming? A: Yes, transferred to me.

Q When were they transferred to you?

A About four years.

Q Before leaving there? A: Yes.

Q How long is a net good for, how many seasons?

A It depends on the net.

Q Well, ordinarily? A: Oh, one

30 year.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: Did you say one year?

A Yes, it depends on the twine.

Q All right.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. VIRTUE:

Q I want to ask you some questions about fishing nets. A: Yes.

Q What make were your fishing nets? Who was the manufacturer, do you know?

10 A I guess Barbour.

Q Barbour? A: Yes.

Q Now are the Barbour nets regarded by fishermen, or were they, as one of the best manufactured nets? A: I guess best.

Q As the best? A: I guess so.

Q And suppose a man bought new, brand-new Barbour nets in the year 1940? A: Yes.

Q When you were about 20 or 21, supposing he had bought brand-new Barbour nets then and took good 20 care of them, how long do you think they would last?

A If take good care of them, well, three years.

Q Three years? A: Four years.

Q Three or four years?

A Yes.

Q Did you takegood care of your nets?

A Yes.

Q Well, what did you mean then when you answered my learned friend, or did you understand him

30 when Mr. Rice asked you, and he said how long were nets good for?

A Yes.

Q By that he meant how long will nets last. How long can a man keep on using them, a fisherman?

A I said it depends, depend on the net.

Q And supposing during the years that you had good Barbour nets and a man took care of them, took good care of them as a fisherman would take care of his property, how long would they last?

10 A In that case three or four years.

Q Three or four years?

A Yes, depending on the twine.

Q And if you mended them as a fisherman does and kept them in repair, how long would they last?

A The average fisherman about two or three years.

Q Pardon? A: The average fisherman about two or three years; the average fisherman, I mean.

Q What is that answer again?

20 A The average fisherman.

Q The average fisherman? A: Yes, some of them worse fishermen you know.

Q Some are worse and some are better?

A Yes.

Q Were you a good fisherman?

A I don't know; I guess so.

Q What do you think yourself? Were you just average, or were you worse than average or were you better than average?

30 A I think about the best.

Q That is it maybe a little hard on a man's humility to answer a question like that, but we want to know. How long had you had your nets before you were evacuated?

A Well, the oldest is three years.

Q You show that you bought, well, you say you had used some of your nets two seasons, you had used some of your nets one season and used some of your nets three seasons?

10 A Yes.

Q Now take the nets that you had used three seasons?

A Yes.

Q Had you bought them new? A: Yes.

Q You had bought them new?

A Yes.

Q Those nets that you had used three seasons, had you kept them in repair?

A Yes.

Q Were they still good for anything?

20 A Yes, sure.

Q When you left? A: Yes.

Q How long do you think they would have lasted you, how many more years if you kept them in repair?

A Take good care of them, two years.

Q Another two years?

A Yes.

Q I see. So that if a fisherman bought good nets and took care of them and then kept them in repair from year to year, they would last 30 according to your present statement five years?

A Yes.

Q Is that right? A: Yes.

Q And I suppose if a man kept constantly repairing them that they would last more than that?

A I guess so.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Mr. Virtue, I understood him to say in his direct examination that these were transferred by his brother to him. I may be wrong.

10 MR. VIRTUE: I will ask him about that, your Honour.

Q These nets that you are claiming for, we will start at the top here. Just look at that list (indicating). Take the 10 x 40, 9½?

A Yes.

Q You say you had used them for two seasons and the price new there is $100.00 and you valued it at $60.00? A: Yes.

Q Did you buy that net new, or did you buy it from somebody else?

20 A New.

Q New? A: Yes.

Q The second one, did you buy that new?

A Yes.

Q And the price new was $300.00?

A Yes.

Q And you value it at $100.00?

A Yes.

Q And the third one you used one season; and it cost you $300.00 new?

30 A Yes.

Q And you value it at $100.00?

A Yes.

Q And the fourth one you had used two seasons and it cost $300.00 that you paid for it, and you value it at $150.00? Why would that be, because you kept it in good or better repair or had better luck with it, or what?

A It must be the twine.

Q That is the difference in the twine?

10 A Yes, it must be.

Q I see. How about these others? Had you bought them new? A: Yes.

Q You bought them all yourself?

A Yes.

Q You didn't buy them from your brother or your father? A: No.

Q I wasn't clear, or perhaps I didn't hear you or I was too stupid to get it, but I was not clear on your explanation as to why you only mentioned

20 eight nets in your J.P. form, and now you claim for ten nets. Can I see that J.P. form?

(J.P. form to Mr. Virtue).

Here is the J.P. form, Mr. Doi. If you made a mistake, say so. Here, I will help you. Here is your J.P. form which you signed on the 15th of April, 1942, and you said in there eight fishing nets at the Imperial Cannery nethouse, Steveston, B.C.? A: Yes.

Q Now in a list that you have filed here, look over

30 the list and explain to me again, please, there are

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10.

A These five-forty, five-forty.

Q Yes. A: ≈ 6¼ and 5¼, that is $100.00 and $100.00.

Q Yes. A: I put these half each, you know.

Q In describing them here you split them?

A Yes.

Q And you put 100 fathoms in each?

10 A Yes.

Q But in listing them in the J.P. form you included them all in one?

A Yes, different twine.

Q That is why you put them separately here?

A Yes.

Q All right.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well is the value, Mr. Rice, on that form for the eight nets the same value as he has for ten in the form filed today?

20 MR. RICE: In the J.P. form there is no value set.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: No value set?

MR. VIRTUE: No, just eight fishing nets at the Imperial Cannery.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

MR. VIRTUE: All right, thank you, Mr. Doi.
