IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

KINGO MATSUMOTO

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

20 APPEARANCES:

DONALD MACDONALD, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government
A.E. COBUS, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter

MR. COBUS: The claim of Kingo Matsumoto, which is No. 32 on the Secretary's list.

KINGO MATSUMOTO, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim, first by abandoning the claim for buildings under 4 (e) and the item under 4(e) (iii), $1222.70.

MR. MACDONALD: Is that abandoned, did you say?

MR. COBUS: Yes, everything under 4 (e) is abandoned in toto.

As to the claim for personal property, we now show, rather than the two items there originally, fish nets at Celtic Cannery. In other words, we have deleted items 1 and 2 and have restated them, I think in a little better form. Fish nets at Celtic Cannery, estimated value $480.00. Your honour will note that item 1 as originally stated, "six fishing nets, cork and lead lines," was shown at $335.00. Now, that change to $480.00 is not an increase; the $235.00 was the net amount which this claimant was claiming after allowing credit of $300.00 to the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I see.

MR. COBUS: In other words, had he done this accurately, he would have shown his estimated value at the time of submitting his claim as $535.00; then he would have given credit for $300.00, and that would have left that $235.00 item, instead of which we now show fishing nets slightly reduced to the amount of $480.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I take it the $235.00 and the $687.70, are deleted, too.

MR. COBUS: Well, we have re-valued it somewhat, yes. We are showing now a second item, "Lines, rope and shrimp equipment, etc.," at $696.90.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: That is a slight increase.

MR. COBUS: In other words, we are just changing the $235.00 to $480.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Then your first figure for nets at the Celtic cannery is $480.00, is it?

MR. COBUS: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: $480.00, and the other equipment, lines, rope and shrimp equipment, how much have you got there?

MR. COBUS: $696.90. That totals $1176.90, and we are 20 crediting the Custodian for the sale of nets, $300.00, which leaves a net claim for personal property of $876.90, and that is the amount of this claim.

THE COMMISSIONER: That goes in under (f).

MR. COBUS: That goes under (f), yes, your honour.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a typewritten statement concerning the personal property for which you 30 have submitted a claim. Was this statement prepared under your instructions, and is that your signature?

A: Yes.

Q: Is the information contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file the statement concerning the personal property as the first exhibit.

10 (STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: Referring to Exhibit 1, your honour, the witness has, on this typewritten statement, given a complete list of nets, and then a complete list of what he describes as "other gear," giving the age of the nets, the original value of each one, the estimated value of each one at the date of evacuation. He has given complete details with respect to other gear. In his statement he says that the nets and lines were left at Celtic 20 Cannery net house, Vancouver, B.C. The other gear was left at a Mr. Malkin's summer camp at Bowen Island. He says that he is not claiming for all of the items left in Mr. Malkin's shed, but only for the main items. He says that when he gave the information as to the items left at Malkin's for his J.P. form, the information that he gave was from memory. He had a complete list, but he did not have it with him at the time, but was to bring it back the next day.

30 He had no further opportunity to furnish the list

as he was removed from Hastings Park before he was able to take it in. He says the list contained everything that he had at Malkin's including what he declared from memory and other items now contained in the list of other gear for which he is now claiming. All gear for which he is now claiming was left at Malkin's in a shed which was locked.

He says that he is advised that the Custodian was informed by Mr. Malkin that his place on Bowen Island might be left without supervision and that he did not take an inventory nor remove his goods nor take any action concerning the same. The "he" refers to the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: To the Custodian, yes.

MR. COBUS: The nets that he left at the Celtic Cannery were all tagged with his name. He says that he is now claiming for the same nets as declared although he declared those from memory and certain details of description may vary from the details as now given. He says that he has allowed for depreciation on all goods, all unused items, and that the unused items have been claimed at cost.

MR. MACDONALD: Do I take it that all of these were at Malkin's?

MR. COBUS: Just the items under "other gear." The first portion of the list was left at Celtic Cannery.

MR. MACDONALD: I see.

MR. COBUS: Q: Witness, I produce to you a letter addressed to you and written on the stationery of the Custodian dated January 31st, 1944 and signed by H.F. Green, Protection Department. You received this letter from the Custodian's office, I understand? A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Your honour, I have just proved the letter of January 31st, 1944 from the Custodian. If my learned friend would produce the carbon copy from his file, I would be glad to file it and read it into the record, inasmuch as I don't think I should file this original copy; it has certain notations on it.

MR. MACDONALD: You mean to file it and keep it on file? I have no authority. This is the only record we have of this letter. This is a copy of the original which my learned friend has.

MR. COBUS: I don't want to file the original because of the notes that are on it.

THE COMMISSIONER: You will be able to file it at a later date.

MR. MACDONALD: Well, I suppose it could go in.

MR. COBUS: I have had produced a carbon copy of this letter which has been produced by the witness dated January 31st, 1944, addressed to the claimant and signed by H.F. Green, Protection Department. It reads:

"We are writing to you about your fishing equipment, in particular your gear at Bowen Island mentioned in yours of January 15. Mr.

Malkin advised us on September 19th" -- and then in ink, "1942"; that "1942" does not appear on our copy -- "That your gear at Bowen Island was of little value, but that he could assume no responsibility for it. Since then we understand his caretaker has left and do not know if there is anyone who we could ask to look after or dispose of what remains. Have you any suggestions as to what would be best to do? Our experience with isolated places of this nature has so far been that nothing is safe there, and we fear that your gear will since have been stolen.

"Turning to your nets left with the B.C. Packers at the Celtic Cannery, we are enclosing a list of those we have been able to find and dispose of."

Q: Witness, attached to this letter which I have just read was a document headed "Net Statement" dated November 25, 1943. Did you receive that net statement with the letter which I have just read? A: Yes, they came together.

THE COMMISSIONER: Who is the net statement signed by?

MR. COBUS: It is not signed. It was attached to the letter which has just been read into the record, and I think my learned friend will admit that it appears to --

MR. MACDONALD: The only thing I can say, your honour, is that in the last paragraph: "We are enclos-a list of those we have been able to find and dispose of:" Now, I cannot find in my file a copy of that list. I have a statement which gives the same articles, I believe, only in a different form, but it doesn't refer to the bottom part, the articles that were not found -- is that what is in the bottom of that?

MR. COBUS: Yes, in the bottom of the statement received by the claimant are two nets listed as unaccounted for, and at the very bottom of the page are these words, "Ex Celtic Cannery."

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes. Well, there is no doubt, of course, that was the list that came with the letter you have read into the record.

MR. COBUS: I don't think my learned friend would object to that.

MR. MACDONALD: I have no doubt but what it was, your honour, although I don't happen to have a copy in my file.

MR. COBUS: I would ask to file that.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. COBUS: I would ask my learned friend to produce the Analysis of Personal Property Claim.

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file the Analysis of Personal Property Claim, your honour, produced from the Custodian's file on behalf of the Crown.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

THE COMMISSIONER: I think this list should be filed as coming from the Crown, shouldn't it?

MR. COBUS: Well, that was in the possession of the claimant, your honour; he produced it.

THE COMMISSIONER: It was in his possession. I see. That is all right, then.

MR. COBUS: Referring to Exhibit 3, the Analysis, your honour, we have already noted the amendments of the details of claim, and I think the only comment I would make would be with respect to the second list of gear, lines, rope and shrimp equipment, that the Custodian in his Analysis has indicated it as having been abandoned, and I think, coupled with the letter received by the claimant, that would indicate that the Custodian in fact did abandon it.

Q: Witness, I see that you also are wearing a service button. You served in the First Great War, I take it? A: Yes.

Q: With what force did you serve?

A: In the Canadian Army.

Q: Do you remember your regimental number?

A: 228486.

Q: And do you remember the name of the regiment with which you served?

A: 52nd Battalion.

Q: And how much service did you see?

A: I was three months in Canada and I landed in France in June, 1916.

Q: And you saw service on the Continent, did you?

A: I went to the Somme, then to Vimy, and finally at Passchendael.

Q: Were you wounded at all?

A: I was wounded in the hip.

MR. COBUS: Your witness.

MR. MACDONALD: In this matter, your honour, I submit that the nets and equipment sold were sold for their fair market value and that the other items are claimed at an exhorbitant value.

I do not think there is anything that I can add to what is already set out on the Analysis, your honour. Under the remarks set out on the Analysis, it would seem that what was left at Malkin's had been abandoned as being of not much value; at any rate, it was abandoned.

There are no questions I wish to ask.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, you submit that those items never came into the possession of the Custodian.

MR. MACDONALD: That they never came into the possession of the Custodian. It is all set out in the Analysis.

MR. COBUS: Perhaps I should have asked my friend to produce the J.P. form.

Q: Witness, I produce to you a form known as a J.P. form from the Custodian's file dated the 30th of June, 1942 which bears what appears to be the signature of K. Matsumoto. Is that your signature? A: Yes, that is my signature.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file the J.P. form, your honour, on behalf of the Crown, pointing out again that this is a J.P. form signed by the claimant under the red notation to the effect that the undersigned voluntarily turns over to the Custodian certain property.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. COBUS: That is all.

THE COMMISSIONER: That J.P. form lists, does it, the goods that were left at Malkin's house?

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour, and that is indicated in the first column of the Analysis which was filed as Exhibit 3.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I see.

Q: When, witness, did you first have any report from the Custodian in respect to the goods which had been left at Malkin's? When did you first have any report as to those goods?

THE INTERPRETER: A report from the Custodian, sir?

THE COMMISSIONER: That is it, yes.

A: I did not hear anything except that letter.

Q: What was the date of that letter?

A: The 31st of January, 1944.

Q: And you hadn't made any inquiries up to that time?

A: No.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right. Well, that is all, then, Mr. Matsumoto, that is all we can do now, and the matter will be disposed of later on.
