THE SECRETARY: Case No. 691, Matsuo Matsumura.

MATSUO MATSUMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q Mr. Matsumura, I am showing you a document called a summary of evidence in support of claim?

A Yes.

Q Now, you are familiar with the contents of this?

10 A Yes.

Q Now, the contents, as far as you know them, are correct with one or two exceptions that I am going to mention to you now, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Now, under the item "nets, cork lines and lead lines" you show "sold by custodian for $315.00". Is that correct, or how much did you receive from the Custodian? A: $331.50.

Q. So that this would have to be corrected in that 20 respect? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: What is the figure again, please?

MR. RUSSELL: $331.50.

Q So that your claim therefore with respect to those nets, cork lines and lead lines is $1000.00 less $331.50 or $668.50, is that correct?

A Yes. There is a mistake on there too about the values.

Q Well, that adds up to $1000.00?

A The total claim is $1156.50 and I got from the Custodian $331.50.

30 Q Where does the difference come in here? When you instructed us to prepare this you instructed us that those were the values?

A That is just the nets but I have got boat utensils other than those.

Q Boat utensils other than those? A: Yes.

Q Well, here are boat utensils listed on the next page showing $100.00, and then another item of $100.00, making a total of $200.00 for boat utensils?

A That is right.

10 Q That is correct? A: Yes.

Q So that this paper is correct then?

A Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: How much is that?

MR. RUSSELL: The nets themselves, the claim is $668.50, and for boat utensils, an itemized list for $100.00 and then an additional $100.00.

Q That is what you are claiming? A: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Making a total of how much?

MR. RUSSELL: Of $200.00 for boat utensils, and nets,

20 cork lines and lead lines would be $668.50. It is a little different from what I had written myself. There may be a slight error there.

MR. RICE: Do I understand that you are claiming $200.00 now for the boat utensils?

MR. RUSSELL: Apparently.

Q You are, Mr. Matsumura? Is that correct?

A Yes. I put them both together, boat utensils and the nets and everything.

Q But there are two separate claims. One is for the 30 nets? A: Yes.

Q That claim is correct as it stands for the nets?

A Yes.

Q This claim for boat utensils is correct as it stands?

A Yes.

Q Therefore, you are claiming $200.00 for your personal property and $668.50 for your nets, is that correct?

A Yes, that is right.

Q This signature (indicating) was placed by you fully understanding the contents of the claim?

10 A Yes.

Q And it is correct? A: Yes.

Q And you are satisfied that this claim now is true?

A Yes, true.

MR. RUSSELL: I will put that in as an exhibit.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. RUSSELL: Q: Mr. Matsumura, can you be more specific on that additional $100.00 of boat utensils which you are claiming? I mean, what are the articles which go up to make that $100.00?

20 A Oh, like small wrench and all that stuff include with that boat. There were several small articles connected with the boat.

Q Well, you have already listed a gas lamp, three oars, a pair of net guards, 1938, a pair of net guards, 1937, compass, gas stoves, coal stoves, spotlight, nets roller drum and winch, and they add up to $100.00?

A Yes.

Q Now you say there is $100.00 more?

A Those were articles that I knew definitely and 30 remember clearly as having been there. The others were several articles that I can't remember very well but which were in the boat.

Q Of course, you must remember, Mr. Matsumura, that if you can't remember them the judge is going tohave a hard time about it? A: Well, I could tell that. He said that he listed them all, or that if he listed them all it would make too long a list.

Q Well, what was the nature of the articles? What 10 sort of things were they?

A It is a wrench.

Q. Would it be safe to say, small tools?

A Yes, it is small tools.

Q And spare parts and things of that nature?

A Yes, just small tools.

Q How about spare parts? Would there be some spare parts in this extra $100.00?

A Yes, that included too.

Q You estimate their value at $100.00?

20 A Yes.

Q. I see.

A. They are all articles valued at about 25¢ or 50¢ too numerous and too small to itemize.

Q I see. Here is a net inventory (indicating); was that prepared by you? Is that your writing?

A Yes, that is me.

Q And it is stamped "February 23, 1943", and probably it would be made prior to that time, is that correct?

A This was made when I evacuated.

30 Q There is a slight inconsistency here that I want you to explain, if you will. Those two nets here. Now, you show five nets here? A: Yes.

Q And I believe on your claim you listed six nets. Now, apparently, you have missed out a net here. How did that come about?

MR. RICE: There are only four nets there, are there not? Oh, no, perhaps you are right. I thought I had only four here. You are right, it is five.

MR. RUSSELL: Q: You see, here is a copy of your claim (indicating) for the nets? A: Yes.

10

Q Now, you listed only five there; there is apparently one net that is not included in this list?

A I had two nets the same length and the same description.

Q Oh, I see. And you never listed it?

A Yes, I never listed it on here.

Q I see.

MR. RICE: Are you putting that in as an exhibit, Mr. Russell?

MR. RUSSELL: I imagine you will be putting in, so that I won't.

20

Q That statement that I have handed you and that has been put in, the summary of evidence, is now true and correct? A: That is right, true.

Q And you are satisfied it is the best estimate you can make of your claim? A: Yes.

Q That is all.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your honour, that the nets were sold for their fair market value.

30

I tender as an exhibit an analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. RICE: I also wish to tender as an exhibit the net statement.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you a net statement, which has already been shown to you by my learned friend, and which you acknowledge to have been prepared by you (indicating). That is your statement, is it not, of the nets you prepared for the Custodian's office?

A Yes.

MR. RICE: I wish to submit that, your Honour, as Exhibit 3.

(NET STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. RICE: Q: I show you a J.P. form dated the 31st of March, 1942 (indicating); is that your signature to that document? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender that document as an exhibit, the J.P. form.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT No. 4).

MR. RICE: I would point out, your Honour, in the claimant's J.P, form no boat utensils are declared. I further point out that while he declared 7 nets in his J.P. form his net statement shows that he is claiming 5. The analysis shows four nets accounted for, one not any record of at any time, and one net apparently lost or stolen. There appears to be no record of at any time for the 200 fathom net 5/40 ply, size 7, and 45 mesh.

Q How many seasons have you been fishing?

A Oh, about ten seasons, I guess.

Q. Ten seasons? A: Yes.

Q And you own your own net equipment, do you?

A About seven years I own my own outfit.

Q About seven years you owned your own outfit?

A Yes.

Q And these nets that you are claiming are what you have left after seven years' operations?

10 A Yes, that is right.

Q I don't suppose you know how old the nets were, how many seasons they were used? It would be various seasons, would it?

A Oh, it is hard to tell. Some years you use about a week, some years you use about one month, so that I can't tell you how many seasons I use. There are so many different kinds of nets that you use every year.

Q Yes; but these nets are what you had left after using them or after being fishing seven years, is that right?

20 A Yes.

Q How long is a net good for?

A Oh, it depends how you use it, you know, how many hours you use or how many days you use, you know; if you use more, well, it wouldn't last long.

Q I observe that one of your nets that you valued at $135.00 was sold by tender at $25.00, while another net which you value at $100.00 was sold by the same tender at $100.00. Wouldn't you be a little high for the net that you are claiming $135.00 for that

30 was sold for $25.00? A: Well, that sold by the Custodian so that I don't know nothing about how much. It all depends on the condition.

Q. Yes, I take it that that would be right. For instance, one net that you claim $160.00 for sold for $140.00, and another net that you claim $160.00 for sold for $50.00, so that I take it it would be the condition that the net was in how much a person would pay for the same? A: Yes.

Q Have I got this clear now, that your claim for nets is $1000.00 and boat utensils $200.00?

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, the claim is $1000.00 and he received $331.50.

MR. RICE: Less any credits?

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, that is right.

MR. RICE: The full claim is $1000.00 for nets and $200.00 for boat utensils?

MR. RUSSELL: Q: That is correct, Mr. Matsumura?

A Yes, that is right.

MR. RICE: Q: Well, with the boat utensils you listed about nine items here that total $100.00 and the other items that total $100.00 you can't list, you say? A: Yes.

Q Well, a boat as a rule is not cluttered up with a lot of small items, is it?

A Yes, I had them all in the boat before I was evacuated. I had no chance to sell them before I was evacuated.

Q Well, I know, but did you ever make a list of these articles that you are now claiming $100.00 additional for? A: I just listed the different items approximately as far as I could remember.

Q Well, you have listed items here that total $100.00. Now you say you have another claim for $100.00; and can you give us any idea of what that consists of?

A It is just wrenches and the buoy and loader. There are so many small items that it is difficult to itemize them.

Q Then you are just guessing at this additional claim of 10 $100.00 that you are making?

A Yes, just what I remember.

Q And you have no list or anything to support it?

A There maybe more than $100.00 worth actually, but it is just about approximate.

Q And there maybe less than $100.00 worth?

A No.

Q Well, how do you know if you have no list?

A I remember there were items up to, fully up to that value.

20 Q Why didn't you remember those items when you filed your claim in 1947? Is your memory any better today than it was then? Than it was in January, 1948?

A. I just have a list there, not itemized, but totalling that amount.

Q In the claim that you filed in 1948, the 10th of January, you listed nets that were valued at $1000.00, and you listed a gas lamp, skiff, three oars, pair net guards, pair net guards, compass, gas stove, boat utensils, totalling $156.50. Now 30 you have dropped your claim to the skiff, apparently, which amounted to $25.00 and you have added on an additional $100.00. You have also added to your claim coal stoves and spotlight, a $35.00 item which was not in the original claim. Did you intend those items to be part of the $100.00 that you are now claiming? A; No.

Q. This is aside from this issue, but I believe last November you filed a claim on behalf of your mother for certain articles which she is now claiming?

10 A Well, I claimed on her behalf but since then we have decided to separate the claims.

Q That is, you are making no claim to those articles which you filed on behalf of your mother?

A No.

Q All right.

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q Mr. Matsumura, you have mentioned that the value of the nets depends on the amount of wear. Now, when 20 you were valuing your claim did you have regard to to the amount of wear of your nets?

A May I have that again?

BY THE REPORTER: "Mr. Matsumura, you have mentioned that the value of the nets depends on the amount of wear. Now, when you were valuing your claim did you have regard to the amount of wear of your nets?"

A Some net is one year, and some year you don't use it, so that I just figure if a new net cost so much, if I use one winter, or use two weeks, 30 just cut down so much for off the new net, you know.

It is kind of hard to tell you that. It wouldn't go by the season, you know.

MR. RUSSELL: Q. Well, you show three nets 5/40 ply, size 7, 45 mesh, 200 fathoms long. In other words, they are identical nets, and you valued them at the same amount, $160.00. Those nets then would be in the same condition?

A In the same condition.

Q That is all.

10 MR. RICE: And sold for a spread of $90.00.

MR. RUSSELL: I have no further questions, sir.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Any further questions, Mr. Rice?

MR. RICE: Nothing further, your Honour.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right, thank you.
