MR. MAKAROFF: The next on the list, my lord, is Nakano.

THE COMMISSIONER: Alright.

MR. MAKAROFF: I am prepared to go on with that.

I will call Mr. Nakano.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 807, Nakano, Daizo.

DAIZO NAKANO, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. MAKAROFF:

10 Q You are Nakano, Daizo? A: Yes.

Q And you are living in Moose Jaw now?

A Yes.

Q You lived at the Coast at what place?

A Whonnock.

Q What were you doing there? A: I worked in the woods and at the sawmill and also farming.

Q And you had your family, a wife and seven children there? A: Yes.

Q And you were interned? A: Yes.

20 Q Where were you interned? A: In Angela Camp in Ontario.

Q And you left your wife and children at home and they were evacuated? A: Yes.

Q And they left your belongings in the house?

A It is a long story about my evacuation. I was taken to Hastings Park and then --

Q All I want to establish is the fact their belongings were left ultimately in the hands of the Custodian?

A My wife was evacuated first to Hastings Park,

30 and my possessions were just left in the house and I believe afterwards they were stolen. After I was interned, I received no notification so I took it that they had been stolen. I don't know personally whether they were stolen or whether the Custodian took them or what happened.

MR. MAKAROFF: My learned friend produces an analysis of personal property claim here as a basis for further evidence. I tender that.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: You might find out where his chattels were left on his wife's evacuation.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: You were interned first and left your family at home. Then you say your wife went to Hastings Park and what had she done with the property?

A She wasn't allowed to take any of the stuff with her so she left it all in the house at Whonnock, and my wife was taken to Hastings Park.

Q Then the Custodian took charge of that? Do you know that from your information?

20 A No, I don't know anything about that.

Q Did you file an inventory and a declaration proving the inventory of goods left in your house, or was that left to your wife?

A No.

Q You didn't? A: No.

Q Do you know if your wife did?

A I don't know whether she did or not.

Q Anyhow, she left the belongings in the house when she went to Hastings Park at the time she was 30 evacuated? A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps it would be as well if the J.P. form was filed now. It might be of some assistance to counsel..

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: Who is D. Nakano?

A That is me.

Q That is yourself? A: Yes.

Q This was filed on May 19th, 1942?

A That is my signature.

MR. MAKAROFF: I will tender that.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

10 Q Then you prepared another statement of your personal chattels, that you claimed were left at home, giving their values. Is that your signature?

A It is.

MR. MAKAROFF: I tender that also.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

Q Is the inventory correct to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

Q And the valuations to the best of your judgment, are they correct? A: Yes.

20 MR. MAKAROFF: Now, your Lordship, you will note that this claim has been reduced somewhat from $910.00 to $720.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: In respect to what items?

MR. MAKAROFF: That is partially accounted for by the one vibrating machine for medical treatment valued at $50.00. This was left with a neighbour, a German family.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are you abandoning that?

30 MR. MAKAROFF: Yes, because he believes it is still there and may be recovered.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is that the only change?

MR. MAKROFF: There must be another change because that is only $50.00 and it has been reduced to $720.00. There are several items that have been revealed in the analysis of personal property. The valuations were based on the cost price and they have been reduced to the market value at the time of the sale: 6 chairs and 1 table, the first item reduced from 25 to 15 dollars; 1 cookstove from $150.00 to $100.00; and the one heating stove, item 3, reduced from $55.00 to $45.00; the baby carriage, item No. 4, from $45.00 to $25.00; I think that would probably account for it.

MR. HUNTER: What about the cookstove?

MR. MAKAROFF: Reduced to $100.00 from $150.00.

Q Did you recover any of your goods and chattels from home when you were interned?

A No.

Q Have you been paid anything by the Custodian by way of proceeds for any of your goods and chattels?

A No.

THE COMMISSIONER: There are two other reductions. The bureau was reduced to $50.00 and the four beds to $175.00, according to Exhibit No. 3.

MR. MAKAROFF: Yes, the four beds should be five beds, and that was reduced to $175.00 from $235.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: The bureau was reduced from $75.00 to $50.00, according to Exhibit No. 3, and that makes your total correct.

MR. MAKAROFF: That's right.

THE COMMISSIONER: Just a moment before you open, Mr. Hunter. No, it is all right; I thought this declaration hadn't been taken but it has. All right.

MR. HUNTER: It is submitted that the prices claimed for these chattels are exorbitant. The wife, when she left, declared no chattels but a number of chattels were found in this house and were sold. It is not known whether they belonged to the claimant or to the wife. For instance, he is claiming a stove and heater. A stove and heater were sold, but haven't been credited to him because there was nothing to indicate they were his rather than hers.

THE COMMISSIONER: Curiously enough your analysis shows both stove and heater as stolen.

MR. HUNTER: That is correct, because they couldn't definitely state they were his. The stove was sold for $2.00 and the heater for $4.50. In view of the fact she declared no chattels, they thought probably were his.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think you better proceed on the assumption they were his, or endeavour to ascertain from him by way of a description of the articles he had. They could have been his or somebody else's.

MR. HUNTER: Q: Did your wife have a stove and heater other than the one you had?

A No, there was only one stove, and heater.

Q In view of that, it may be that we shall have to have a new analysis. There were a few items sold.

THE COMMISSIONER: Can you tell me when the articles were found? Was it the date of the inventory taken by Anderson & Carlson?

MR. HUNTER: The date of the inventory is October, 1942.

THE COMMISSIONER: Was that when they first found the chattels?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord, they didn't find everything but they found most of them. For instance, there was one old range. I think I will file this if I may, the inventory taken on the 15th of October, 1942, by Anderson & Carlson. I don't know why it was not shown on column 2 of the analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: You have seen this document, Mr. Makaroff?

MR. MAKAROFF: No, my lord, I haven't seen it.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think you might proceed with this subject to proof later.

MR. HUNTER: I was hoping it might be received in the same way as evidence inserted in the evidence as prima facie evidence of what was found, and if my learned friend disputes it, we will be prepared to prove it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps Mr. Makaroff could agree to the document being received on that understanding. I am not requiring you to.

MR. MAKAROFF: I would have to take the position if it corresponds with our personal chattels as in the claim at this time, we will accept it, if correct, but not otherwise.

THE COMMISSIONER: Supposing I suspend the hearing of this claim for the moment and we go on with another one and I give you an opportunity to discuss that inventory with the claimant, then we can put him back on the stand. Would that be helpful to you?

MR. MAKAROFF: Perhaps we will save time if we had the Interpreter go over the listx with him now.

THE COMMISSIONER: It is in your hands.

MR. MAKAROFF: I think that would be more expeditious.
10 He can check the items. Just ask him if those goods were in his house when he left.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Interpreter, may I suggest that you tell him this is a list taken by the Custodian's staff from examination of goods in his house at Whonnock, and then ask him if it corresponds with the goods he left.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: Were there two four-gallon oil cans or only one? A: I remember having one,
20 but I don't remember whether there were two or not.

Q What about one box of tools?

A I remember those.

Q Are those carpenter tools?

A Some carpenter tools and some farming implements all together in the one box.

Q Is that what you value them at, $175.00?

A The box of tools in my list of carpenter's tools.

Q An old range, one cooking stove. Was that an old cookstove? You list it as purchased new in 1934.

30 A No, I don't remember any old range. My range wasn't particularly damaged.

Q It was bought in 1934? A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: This inventory was made in 1942.

MR. MAKAROFF: He admits those. Go through them a little faster.

A Yes, these were there when I left.

Q A few dishes and pans?

A Not just a few, quite a number, because they were for the use of the whole family.

10 Q And you value them at $135.00?

A Yes.

MR. MAKAROFF: It shouldn't take so long.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think you find if you let him go his own gait, we will get there faster.

THE WITNESS: Several pails, not just one pail.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: Wooden trays; there is only one on the list. A: There were three or four.

Q Did he have any tubs? A: I don't 20 remember these three tubs.

THE COMMISSIONER: I have seen tubs referred to not infrequently. Is there a certain type of a tub?

MR. TAMAKI: There is a custom to have wooden tubs for a bath, and quite often they might refer to that and call it a bathtub.

THE COMMISSIONER: Explain that to him.

THE WITNESS: No, I don't remember three such tubs.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: 4 quart sealers?

A I don't know whether there was more than one.

30 There was one and maybe more. There were saki bottles, I don't know how many.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is a Japanese rice wine or spirit.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: Were those bottles empty or filled? It would make quite a difference.

A These 18 bottles were filled with sauce. One bed frame under the house belonged to my brother. There were four double beds.

Q Iron beds? A: I wasn't there when they were packed.

10 Q One box of clothes? A: Yes, these were packed after I left so I don't know.

THE COMMISSIONER: His answer is on the form?

THE INTERPRETER: Yes, my lord, I have put the figures in pencil.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is on Exhibit No.4.

MR. MAKAROFF: Q: Having seen that list, do you want to change this statement we have just put in as Exhibit No. 3? Do you want to change that?

A I don't think there is any need to change it. This 20 is the true statement of affairs and there is no need to change it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Exhibit No. 3 is the true statement.

MR. MAKAROFF: Yes, my lord.

Q Those items you admitted should be added to this, I suppose ? A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: I notice, Mr. Interpreter, that you put a tick opposite some of the items. What do they mean?

THE INTERPRETER: It means that the claimant remembers

30 those items were there when he left.

THE COMMISSIONER: Opposite the old range you have marked a cross.

THE INTERPRETER: The claimant doesn't remember anything about an old range.

THE COMMISSIONER: But he contends he had a stove that was in good condition?

THE INTERPRETER: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think that explains any items that were doubtful.

10

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Let us find out about this cookstove. You say in 1934 you paid $150.00 for it. Describe it. How many burners? A: It was a combination wood and coal stove with four large holes and two small ones.

Q Is that all? A: On the side of the stove there was a hot water heater.

Q One of those tanks that hang on the side?

20 A Yes.

Q And you are standing there and saying that in 1934 for that you paid $150.00? A: In 1934 that was what I was charged so there is nothing I could do about it.

Q You are sure you didn't buy three of them?

A No reason to buy three.

Q Now what was your heating stove, a Quebec heater?

A It was a wood burning stove with a fancy front and there was a covering on top.

30 Q You paid $55.00 for that?

A Yes.

Q What was fancy about it? A: In your country the people say fancy, so I said fancy, but in Japanese it was made in a decorative way.

Q It had a pattern on the iron?

A Leaves and flowers and such like were worked into the front of the iron.

Q Were you a carpenter? A: I was an millwright and also a carpenter.

10 Q Was that your occupation? A: I was a millwright by trade.

THE COMMISSIONER: A millwright is a pretty highly skilled man.

MR. HUNTER: It would be unusual for an amateur to have all these tools.

Q This baby carriage found under the house, you say it is a baby carriage and list it as a baby buggy? A: I think that one under the house was a baby buggy given to one of my 20 children by some friends, but I had another one that was inthe house.

Q And the beds that are shown here as iron beds; were all your beds iron? A: I think there was a wooden one.

Q So that four of them at least would be iron bedsteads? And the mattresses, were they plain stuffed mattresses or spring mattresses?

A They were just ordinary stuffed mattreeses.

MR. HUNTER: I think that is all, my lord. I should

30 like to reserve at my learned friend's consent

the privilege of putting in a new analysis if we find it is worthwhile, the chattels having been sold, to put in a new analysis. I don't think it amounts to very much.

THE COMMISSIONER: The analysis is put in primarily for information, isn't it?

MR. HUNTER: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: So you are not going to be helped much. You won't get it until after we leave here, and it will be too late to examine the claimant.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings herein.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above:

Additional Comments, if any:

* Claimant was interned, leaving wife and seven children at home; they went alone to Hastings Park, leaving these goods and chattels in their house. Custodian was going to arrange to have the goods taken with family but he did not appear and they left by bus for Hastings Park, leaving goods in house, claimant being away at the time.
