MR. COBUS: Your honour, the next claim is that of Manabu Tanaka, No. 96 on the Secretary's list.

MANABU TANAKA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim by deleting the items as they are set out on the claim form now and replacing those 10 items with two general heads: "Fishing Equipment, $800.00" and "Chattels, $306.50," total, $1106.50. The credit to the Custodian is $27.25.

MR. McINNES: What was the credit to the Custodian?

MR. COBUS: $27.25. That leaves a net claim of $1079.25.

THE COMMISSIONER: Amendment allowed.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

20 Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement concerning certaining fishing equipment, nets and lines. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement and is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q: And in the statement you make reference to a list attached. I produce to you a list of nets and certain lines. Is this the list to which you make reference in your statement?

A: Yes.

Q: And are the statements contained in the written 30 statement and list true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes, that is true.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file this statement, your honour, and the list attached.

(STATEMENT AND LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: This claimant says that the nets and lines for which he is claiming were left by him in the net house of the Phoenix Cannery at Steveston. He says that Mr. Lord of the cannery gave him a 10 detailed receipt for these nets and lines, but that he, the claimant, has since lost or mislaid this receipt and can't find it. He says that the nets and lines were tagged with his name and the value was written on each tag. He adds that he has allowed for depreciation on the nets and lines for which he is claiming.
As a final comment he says the loose floats and corks were bundled and tags were put on them with his name and value written on the tags.

20 Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement concerning a record player and certain household articles for which you are claiming. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement for you and is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q: And in that statement you make reference to a list of household articles. I produce to you a list. Is this the list to which you refer in your statement? A: Yes, I believe it is.

Q: And the information contained in the statement 30 and the list, is it true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file the personal chattels statement with the list attached as one exhibit.

(STATEMENT AND LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. COBUS: He describes a record player which he purchased in 1941 new for $19.50. Its condition he describes as being very good. He claims that $15.00 would be its estimated value at the date of evacuation. The list of household articles which forms part of the exhibit gives details as to the date of purchase, and whether it was purchased new or used, prices for all items, condition when evacuated, and the estimated value of each item at the date of evacuation.

With respect to the radio and record player which was attached to the radio, he says that these articles were left with Mr. McKinnon of the cannery company, the company being the Phoenix Cannery at Steveston. He says that the Custodian eventually shipped him the radio, but not the record player, and he says he has never received this article. He says that he has seen a letter from Mr. McKinnon in the Custodian's file written to Mr. Peters of the Custodian's office on the 21st of March, 1947, in which McKinnon refers to one radio and record player given to him by the claimant. The claimant then says that he never gave McKinnon, either. By "giving" I was given to understand he was not making a gift of either the radio or record player. He adds that the Custodian must have recognized this to be the fact as he eventually sent in the radio. He then says that the Custodian notified McKinnon that he, McKinnon, had the record player and had given both to a friend of his. The claimant think s that the Custodian should have obtained his record player from McKinnon or from McKinnon's friend and that is 10 the reason he is making the claim for the record player.

With respect to the household goods, these were all left in his house, No. 19, at the Phoenix Cannery, Steveston, B.C. The claimant has allowed for depreciation on the record player and the household articles which are part of his claim.

If my learned friend would produce the Analysis of Personal Property claim.

20 (Handed to Mr. Cobus)

MR. COBUS: I file the Analysis of Personal Property Claim on behalf of the Crown, your honour.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. COBUS: There is perhaps one word of explanation with respect to that analysis in order to reconcile the claim and the credit that we have shown to the Custodian. The amount of $18.59 represented certain Barbour twine which was sold to the Phoenix Cannery for the claimant, 30 and for which $18.59 was paid. The claimant has not included that in the list of fishing gear for which he is claiming, so that that leaves $27.25 as against the general term "Household Furniture."

Your witness.

MR. McINNES: With regard to the nets, your honour, it will be submitted that none of the nets came into the custody of the Custodian and therefore are not within the Terms of Reference. For the information of my friend, one net was sold directly by this claimant to the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company for $120.00 and it had nothing to do with the Custodian.

As to the personal chattels, dealing with the record player first, it will be submitted that this was dealt with directly by the claimant himself as he had lent the record player and radio to a friend at the time of his evacuation and therefore they did not come into our custody or control. As far as the rest of the chattels are concerned, such of them as were of value and came into our possession were sold for their fair market value; others that came into our possession or custody and were of no value were abandoned. As to the rest, it is submitted that they do not come within the Terms of Reference.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McINNES:

Q: Witness, did you not sell a net on the 9th of September, 1942 to the packing house?

A: No, I did not.

Q: I have in my file in this matter a memorandum from Mr. Robertson, who is the manager of the Phoenix Cannery at Steveston in which he states that there was a net or nets in the name of H. Tanaka which they purchased for $120.00. Did you sell such a net or nets? A: No.

10 Q: Did your wife? A: No.

Q: Did your wife sell the nets?

A: No.

Q: Is your wife's name Hatsu? A: Yes.

Q: Your wife also made a J.P. declaration as well as yourself? A: Yes.

Q: Are you making two claims or just one?

A: My wife made a claim for her articles and I have made a claim for mine.

Q: Has she got a claim coming before this Commission?

20 A: No, she has no other claim.

Q: In other words, you are making the claim now, here before this commission, for the two of you?

A: Yes.

Q: Now, a great many articles were shipped to you by the Custodian at your request, were they not? A: Yes.

Q: And you disposed of a great many articles before you were evacuated? A: No.

Q: You were in Vancouver or in the protected area

30 for twenty-five days after you made your J.P.

declaration? A: I think about that length of time.

Q: And how much stuff did you sell in that time?

A: I didn't sell anything.

Q: Well, my instructions are that there was practically nothing at your place when they got there to take an inventory. What happened to the bicycle? A: I took the bicycle away with me.

10 Q: Well, now, you just got through telling us that you didn't touch a thing from the time you made your declaration until you left.

A: I took the bicycle and I left the tricycle.

Q: Yes, but I asked you very particularly what you took or what you sold between the time you made your J.P. declaration and the time you left and you say "nothing."

THE INTERPRETER: The question that I put to him was exactly as you said: "Did you sell anything." I 20 did not ask him whether he took anything.

MR. McINNES: I see.

Q: All right, what did you take away with you after you made your J.P. declaration?

A: Nothing except the bicycle.

Q: Is that because that is the only thing I have mentioned to you?

THE INTERPRETER: He doesn't understand the question.

MR. McINNES: All right, thank you.

30

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, you are not submitting a claim for any bicycle, are you?

MR. McINNES: I didn't suggest he was.

A: No.

MR. COBUS: Well, your honour, referring to the Analysis of Personal Property Claim, it seems to me that everything that is listed in the list which forms part of the chattels statemnt which 10 is Exhibit 2 is accounted for either in one or the other of the J.P. declarations and, then, again, an inventory made by the Custodian himself and dated July 18, 1942. I think they take care of all the items for which the claim is made.

THE COMMISSIONER: Those documents speak for themselves.

MR. McINNES: Where is the tricycle?

MR. COBUS: The tricycle?

MR. McINNES: Yes.

20 MR. COBUS: Well, for your information it is in the first column.

MR. McINNES: Well, that is what you declared; I am asking you where we ever showed we had it.

MR. COBUS: I have no idea. I am simply pointing there can be a reconciliation between what was declared to the Custodian and what this claimant is now claiming. I would also point out that the Custodian, I gather, didn't get around to making an inventory until July 18th, 1942.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: That is three months after the date of the J.P. declaration.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour. I have nothing more to ask the witness, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is all, thank you.

Description of Storage of Goods: My radio and record player (attached) were left with Mr McKinnon of the Cannery Company (Phoenix Cannery) Steveston. The Custodian eventually shipped me the radio but not the record player and I have never received this. I have seen a letter from Mr McKinnon (in the Custodians file) written to Mr Peling of the Custodians office 21 Mar 1947 — in which McKinnon refers to one radio and record player given to him by me. I never gave him either and the Custodian must have recognized this to be the fact as he kept me the radio. The Custodian had notice from McKinnon that he (McKinnon) also had the record player and had given it to a friend of his (McKinnon). The Custodian should also have sletgaed my record player from McKinnon or his friend. and so I am making this claim. The household goods were left in an house # 19 Phoenix Cannery, Steveston BC —
