MR. COBUS: The claim, your honour, of Thomas Kuroda, which is No. 31 on the Secretary's list.

THOMAS KURODA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim which is a claim for a boat on the front side of the claim form and which is being abandoned, subject to the Terms of Reference being broadened.

THE COMMISSIONER: The whole front page of the form.

MR. COBUS: The front portion of the claim, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: I will note that "abandoned subject to the Terms of Reference being broadened."

MR. COBUS: Then, as to the claim for personal property under 5 (e), the claimant repeats the gasboat as item 1, which should be deleted; and with respect to the nets, we now show a total claim for nets at $500.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: In place of all these figures that you have.

MR. COBUS: Down to 8, your honour, items 1 to 8, $500.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: The cork line under item 9 remains at $50.00; the lead line at $75.00. The total is $625.00. The credit to the Custodian is $67.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Have you got a credit in here at all?

MR. COBUS: I don't believe so, your honour; nothing is shown.

THE COMMISSIONER: The credit, then, is $67.00.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour, leaving a net personal property claim of $558.00.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

10 Q: Witness, I see that you wear what appears to be a service badge. Did you serve in His Majesty's forces at some time or other?

A: Yes, I was a soldier in the last war.

Q: By the "Last war," you mean the First Great War, 1914 - 1918? A: Yes.

Q: What was the length of your service?

A: About three years.

Q: Did you serve in the European theatre of war?

A: Yes.

20 Q: Where in Europe? A: Mostly in Flanders.

Q: Mostly in Flanders. A: Flanders and Belgium and Germany.

Q: Did you sustain any war injuries?

A: I was wounded and I went to hospital.

Q: I see. Do you recall your regimental number by any chance?

A: 98533.

Q: Do you remember the name of the unit with which 30 you served? A: Tenth Battalion.

Q: Now, witness, I produce to you a statement concerning the nets and lines for which you are submitting a claim, as well as a gas tank and a water tank. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement and is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q: In your statement you make reference to a list of nets and lines attached, and you show values in the amount of $500.00 for nets, $50.00 for corks and line, and $60.00 for a lead line. Is this the list to which you make reference?

A: Yes.

Q: Is the information contained therein, that is, in the statement and in the list, true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave to file the statement and list attached, your honour, as one exhibit.

(STATEMENT AND LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: It may be well at this point, your honour, to reconcile the claim form as I have already amended it with the list and statement which is now being marked exhibit 1. If your honour will refer to the list attached, it will be seen that the witness listed seven nets and then lists corks and line as an item 8, and then, under item 9, he shows a lead line, a gas tank, a water tank, and three small gas tins, the total of that being $725.00. He has appended a note with respect to the nets. He says the total of nets, $600.00, which that will add up to, is reduced to $500.00 to conform with the value as stated in his J.P. form. Therefore, we have reduced the $725.00 by $100.00, leaving $625.00 which is the net claim as amended. Perhaps, if your honour would refer to the claim form again, under item 10, I didn't indicate there that under 10, the stove, which is referred to there, should be deleted; there is no claimbeing made for the stove.

THE COMMISSIONER: I have here "400 lead line and gas tank, water tank, stove, etc." You want thestove out.

MR. COBUS: Stove out, but the value $75.00 remains.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Referring to Exhibit 1, your honour, the witness says that the nets and lines and other items declared under the heading "gear," were left in the net house of the Great West Packing Cannery at Steveston, the tanks being originally left where he was living, but later removed as per an inventory received by him from the cannery to the cannery net house. He says that when making his J.P. declaration he mentioned more than the three nets shown on the form and toldthe party who took the information that he would sell all his nets for $500.00 cash. He is unable to understand why the party detailed only three nets.

He says that he has an itemized list from the cannery for all his nets and lines and also the tanks which are noted above.

THE COMMISSIONER: That would be, the itemized list was a receipt from the cannery, is that right?

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour. I am just producing the list to the witness.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. COBUS: Q: Witness, I am producing a list on the stationery of the Western Leckie, Limited, and the Great West Packing Cannery, which bears the words, "Kuroda nets and lines, etc." and is dated August 11, 1942. Eight nets are detailed as well as certain lengths of cork line and lead line, a water tank and a gas tank and three small gas tins. Where did you receive that document?

A: I received this from a man called Kennedy. He was the bookkeeper. This was written on the stationery of Western Leckie Limited, but it was not a receipt from the Western Leckie Limited, but a receipt from the Great West Packing Cannery.

Q: I see. And the individual who wrote this list, I take it, was named Kennedy?

A: I think his name was Kenney.

Q: Kenney, I see.

THE COMMISSIONER: It bears no signature, I presume?

MR. COBUS: There doesn't appear to be a signature on it, your honour, but at the bottom I see, in the same handwriting as the remainder of the list, "Per Ken," just K-e-n, and a note, "Fill in blanks and price if you can, Kuroda," and then "P.S. couldn't find any cork lines outside of house. Ken." So I would think that this person Ken is named Ken something or other, and according to the witness worked for the Great West Packing Company.

Q: Witness, with respect to No. 8 net, I see a 10 pencil line drawn through it, and the words in pencil "No claim for this." Whose marking is that? A: I instructed to have that cancelled.

Q: You instructed Mr. Leckie, I would take it?

A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to file the list identified by the witness as the next exhibit.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

20 THE COMMISSIONER: That list, Mr. Cobus, checks with the --

MR. COBUS: With the claim form or the list attached to the statement, yes, your honour, omitting, of course, the eighth item on the list which is abandoned.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Would my learned friend produce the Analysis of Personal Property Claim?

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

30 MR. COBUS: I have had produced the Analysis of Personal Property Claim from the Custodian's file, and I would ask that it be filed on behalf of the Crown.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. COBUS: From Exhibit 3, your honour, it will be seen that the J.P. declarationwas stated by the Custodian to have been made on July 28, 1942. An inventory was taken by the Custodian On September 12, 1942. The date of the receipt which was filed as Exhibit 2, I believe was some time in August.

THE COMMISSIONER: Exhibit 2, yes, August 11th.

MR. COBUS: That is right.

THE COMMISSIONER: The inventory only shows two nets.

MR. COBUS: The Custodian's inventory?

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour. Your witness.

MR. MACDONALD: In this matter, your honour, there is no real property. The boat was sold by the Committee, and that is abandoned, anyway.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is no claim; the claim was abandoned with regard to the boat.

MR. MACDONALD: The only articles that the Custodian received were those set out in the J.P. form and they are accounted for in the Analysis. What was sold was sold for its fair market value, and the other items that cannot be accounted for, are declared not found as set out in the Analysis. I would like to --

THE COMMISSIONER: You are submitting, then, that any goods which are not accounted for, the claim of the claimant is exhorbitant, are you?

MR. MACDONALD: Yes, your honour, that those goods which were not accounted for are being claimed at an exhorbitant value.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes. What were sold were sold for their fair market value.

MR. MACDONALD: I would like to file the J.P. form, your honour.

10

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. MACDONALD:

Q: This is your signature on this J.P. form, is it?

A: Yes.

Q: In this J.P. form you mentioned three nets.

A: I have no knowledge of that. I told them that I had a lot of nets; I did not tell them how many. I spoke to a man called Mr. Rose at Hastings Park. At that time there was little time and I had to go back to Steveston. I had two 20 very good lines and I told Rose that if these nets could be sold at a value of $500.00, it would be agreeable to me.

Q: Which nets? A: I had two very good ones, but I would have taken a price of $500.00 for all my nets.

Q: Two very good ones. Were they included in this list here? A: The 200 fathom net was the newest, and then there was another net of 200 fathoms. These other nets I have used

30 for one year. Those two nets are comparatively new.

Q: The first two nets mentioned in the J.P. form?

A: Yes.

Q: Now you mentioned another 200 fathom net.

A: I only had one 200 fathom net, the rest are 150 fathoms.

Q: Now, you gave this information to the man who prepared the J.P. form, did you?

A: No, I did not.

10 Q: Well, how did he get it? A: I don't know how he got the information, whether he went to the cannery afterwards and got it or not, but I don't know how he got the information.

Q: Did you tell him where these nets were?

A: I told him they were at the Great West Cannery.

Q: But you say you did not give him this information as to the type of nets as set out in this J.P. form? A: No, I did not. I told him that I had two new nets and I would 20 be willing to accept $200.00 for them.

Q: For the two new nets, is that it?

A: I put a value of $500.00 on my nets.

Q: On all your nets? A: I told him at Hastings Park that I was willing to take $500.00 for the nets.

Q: Now, did you actually own these nets set out here? A: I am certain that I had those, but I had a number of other nets, too.

30 Q: That are not set out here? A: They were not written down here.

Q: Well, are those the main nets that you had, the ones that had the main value.

A: These were the best.

MR. MACDONALD: I will file this, your honour.

MR. COBUS: Your honour, I would ask my learned friend to give the date of the J.P. form and indicate that that J.P. form bears the red notation just above the signature.

10 MR. MACDONALD: It speaks for itself, your honour. It is dated the 28th of July, 1942.

THE COMMISSIONER: You are filing the J.P. form?

MR. MACDONALD: I am filing the J.P. form, your honour.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cobus, is there any question of the appraisal and what it was sold for? There was an appraisal made of these nets, apparently.

MR. COBUS: One net was sold for $67.00, your honour, and I have not asked my learned friend to pro-
20 duce the appraisal. We are claiming $150.00 reduced by whatever proportion of the $100.00 it would be reduced by. I don't know who Mr. Leckie is. If my friend wishes to put in the appraisal, he will have to establish that he is an expert on nets some day.

MR. MACDONALD: I don't seem to have any appraisal here. I haven't any appraisal, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is an appraisal referred to in your Analysis of Personal Property Claim.
30 It is an appraisal by Mr. Leckie on September 12,

1942. I don't know whether you have it on your file.

MR. MACDONALD: Well, all I have is a notation, that is all, that it was appraised by Mr. Leckie, and that his valuation was $67.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: You haven't the actual appraisal?

MR. MACDONALD: No, I haven't, your honour. I don't seem to have it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I suppose it is only a matter of giving notice to you that that appraisal is there.

MR. MACDONALD: It is by Leckie. I have just shown it to my learned friend. I don't seem to have the actual appraisal.

That is all, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, Mr. Kuroda, that is all.

MR. COBUS: Just one question, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: You want to re-examine; sorry.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, when you were asked to give the information for the filling out of this J.P. form, was there an interpreter present at the time?

A: Yes.

Q: Did this interpreter read back all of your answers that were given and typed on that form?

A: No.

Q: Did there appear to be any sign of hurry at Hastings Park at that time; were there lots of people lined up waiting to give their J.P's?

A: There were a number of people waiting to make up their registration forms, or rather their J.P. forms, and there was a considerable hurry.

MR. COBUS: That is all, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, Mr. Kuroda, that is all we can do now.
