IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

TETSUZO MATSUMURA

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

20 APPEARANCES:

DONALD MACDONALD, Esq.,	9	appearing for the Dominion Government
A.E. COBUS, Esq.,		appearing for the Claimant.

W.J. STURGEON, Esq.,	Secretary to New Denver Sub-Commission
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. COBUS: The claim of Tetsuzo Matsumura, your honour, which is No. 35 on the Secretary's list. I am calling Tetsuzo Matsumura, your honour, but this man is somewhat hard of hearing.

TETSUZO MATSUMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows.

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim, first with respect to the vessel which the claimant originally showed under 4 (e). The value $1250.00 remains, but the credit to the Custodian should have been $450.00, leaving a claim for the vessel of $800.00. That, in fact, was put in the improper section of the claim form, but it is shown as being a vessel.

Then, with respect to the personal property, properly shown under 5 (e), the original estimated value, according to the list attached, was $118.55. Now, by reducing the items about half way down, two items, a cook stove and a heater stove, originally estimated at $29.50 and $19.00 respectively, by $4.50 each -- in other words, the new value claimed for the cook stove is $25.00 and for the heater stove, $14.50 -- the new total claim for personal chattels becomes $109.55 and we are crediting the Custodian with $2.75, leaving a net personalty claim of $106.80. The total claim now under 5 (f) is $906.80.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement concerning the vessel for which you have submitted a claim. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement for you and is that your signature?

A: Yes.

Q: Is the information contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

10 MR. COBUS: I file the statement as Exhibit 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: Q: I produce to you, witness, now a statement from the Vivian Engine Works, Limited, and attached there to is a receipt for $90.00 as balance of payment of a 15 H.P. engine, No. 2102. Is this the statement you got from the Vivian Engine Works with respect to the engine in stalled in the vessel?

A: Yes.

20 MR. COBUS: I ask leave, your honour, to file the statement.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. COBUS: Referring to Exhibit 1, your honour, the vessel was known as the "T.M." and was a 34 footer registered under No. New Westminster 1240. It was a troller type of vessel purchased in 1920 as a new boat at a cost of $950.00. On March 30th, 1940, he installed a new Vivian 15 H.P. engine, which cost him $850.00, and an

30 allowance of $300.00 was made for the old Vivian engine. I think, your honour, if you would refer to Exhibit 2, that is born out by the statement filed, or rather, the account filed as an exhibit and identified by the witness.

The usual maintenance work, the witness says, was done on the vessel. Its condition was good when left with the navy. He estimates the value of the vessel at $1250.00 including the special gear noted below and the ordinary gear which was left on the boat. He shows in the statement, too, the special gear, that is, winch for hauling the nets and the gear chain attached thereto, and an oil burner cookstove, both purchased in '41, new. These cost him $268.50 and were used only three months each. He estimates the value of that special gear at $215.00. He says that the vessel was turned into the Navy at New Westminster in December, 1941 complete with all ordinary gear and the above mentioned special gear.

He says that before evacuation they were offered $1275.00 for the vessel complete by the manager of the Deep Bay Cannery Company of Qualicum, B.C., but they did not accept as at that time they figured they would be getting the boat back in due course and at the time the vessel was still in the hands of the Navy. He believes that the vessel would be worth at least $1250.00 when sold by the -- or sold in August 1943, for $450.00.

Would my friend produce the appraisal of, I presume John Gould?

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

MR. COBUS: I have had produced the survey report of -- it is unsigned, your honour, but it is on the stationery of John Gould at Vancouver, B.C., dated August, 1942, wherein he puts a valuation of $450.00 on the boat, and an estimated market value of $525.00. Filed on behalf of the Crown.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit No. 3.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. COBUS: Would my friend admit the vessel was sold on December 28, 1942?

MR. MACDONALD: Is that set out in there?

MR. COBUS: I have an analysis of claim, but you probably have the summary from the vessel's records there.

MR. MACDONALD: I would assume that this is the one; it is the only record we have, your honour. Yes, it 20 was sold by the Custodian on December 28, 1942 for $450.00.

MR. COBUS: Thank you, Mr. MacDonald.

Q: Witness, I produce to you now a statement concerning the personal chattels for which you are claiming. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare that statement for you and is that your signature?

A: Yes.

Q: And is the information contained therein true to 30 the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit 4.

MR. COBUS: Yes.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. COBUS: In the statement, your honour, the witness has shown the two items, the kitchen stove and the heater stove at their revised value, those values being $4.50 less each than originally claimed. He goes on to say that for all items claimed, including the above, see details of claim as set out on Custodian's Analysis sheet along with the attached list. As the Analysis will be filed, I saw no reason for preparing a special list. The articles claimed were left in houses on B.C. Packers Cannery property at Deep Bay, British Columbia. The goods were identified with name tags, and the witness says that he has allowed depreciation on the items claimed.

Would my friend produce the Analysis of Personal Property Claim?

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

MR. COBUS: The Analysis is filed on behalf of the Crown, your honour.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

MR. COBUS: The only comment I would make with respect to the Analysis, your honour, is that we arrived at the credit of $2.75 as shown on the analysis sheet under "Auction Sales," a "credit to account of wife, $1.75," and a credit to the account of the claimant of $1.00, totalling $2.75. The only claim being submitted is that of the present witness.

Your witness.

MR. MACDONALD: I submit, your honour, that the vessel claimed for here was sold at its fair market value and the personal chattels were sold at their fair market value and the goods and chattels claimed for are claimed at an exhorbitant value.

10 There are two J.P. forms, your honour, in this particular case, and I think for the record they should be filed. One is dated the 11th of April, 1942, and the other is dated the 2nd of October, 1942.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. MACDONALD:

Q: Is this your signature on the J.P. form dated October 2nd, 1942? A: Yes.

Q: And is this your signature on the J.P. form signed

20 on the 11th of April, 1942?

A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: You had better put them both in together, Mr. MacDonald.

MR. MACDONALD: Yes, your honour. I just wish to draw your honour's attention to the fact that they were filed at different times, setting out different items.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit No. 6.

(J.P. FORMS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cobus, I see that there are two claims by this family, one by Kiyo Matsumura and one by Tetsuzo Matsumura.

MR. COBUS: The Kiyo Matsumura one, your honour, I will be speaking to. There will be no claim.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see. That is the wife, is it, Kiyo?

MR. COBUS: I am informed so, yes, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: And the husband is Tetsuzo.

MR. COBUS: That is correct, your honour.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Is there anything further, Mr. MacDonald?

MR. MACDONALD: As this witness is so hard of hearing and as the records show that the vessel was sold at its appraised price, there is only one question I should like to ask him.

Q: You were submitted an offer of $500.00 for this vessel at first and you refused to accept it.

A: That is so; I refused an offer of $500.00. I sent a telegram to that effect to the Custodian.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: That is all, thank you.
