THE SECRETARY: Case No. 578, Toshikazu Nomura.

MR. HUCKVALE: Now for my learned friend's information this claimant is combining his claim with that of his wife whose name is Tsutae Nomura, and her number was 04193.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What is the number?

MR. HUCKVALE: 04193. My friend will find that he has a file on the husband and a file on the wife.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

10 MR. HUCKVALE: And this claim covers both.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I see.

MR. RICE: My information is, your Honour, that the claimant here filed a declaration that he had no chattels.

MR. HUCKVALE: That is correct.

MR. RICE: The wife, Tsutae Nomura, filed a claim for chattels and that is the one that we are going to deal with.

MR. HUCKVALE: That is correct.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well as a supplement to the claim of this man here that he has filed, there is a list of personal chattels.

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, those personal chattels are all were are going to deal with. The claim for the fishing nets will not be gone in to at all, and that claim will be abandoned.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well, do you say that he is assigning his claim to his wife?

MR. HUCKVALE: We are taking them all as one.

30 MR. RICE: Your Honour, he is combining the two claims.

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, we are combining the two claims, the husband's and the wife's.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What number is his wife's claim?

MR. HUCKVALE: I don't think she has filed a claim at all.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well isn't there a set date within which the claim has to be filed?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, some time in January, 1948, this year, and he filed his claim in which he lists the chattels.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Her property?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, it is really joint property between them but she was the only one to declare to the Custodian that she owned any property.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well we will take the evidence and then Mr. Justice Bird can give such disposition of the matter as he wishes.

MR. RICE: There is a claim filed by this claimant with regard to fishing nets that were also not declared.

MR. HUCKVALE: We are not going ahead with that.

MR. RICE: Oh, you are abandoning that claim?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, we are, that is right.

TOSHIKAZU NOMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Now, Mr. Nomura, you are the husband of Tsutae Nomura, are you? A: Yes.

Q And her number was 04193? A: Yes.

Q And these goods, apart from the fishing nets, that were described in a supplement to your claim, were those which your wife declared as being hers on evacuation from British Columbia?

A Yes.

Q Now were these chattels goods in the house which you and your wife occupied?

A Yes, those were in the house.

Q And, as I understand it, you are the only one filing a claim?

10

A Yes.

Q And your wife has given you authority to speak for anything that was her own property?

A Yes.

Q Now I want you to look at this form, if you will, please. A: Yes.

Q Have you read that over or had it read over to you?

A Yes, it was read over to me.

Q And is that your signature on it?

20

A Yes.

Q Has your wife read it, too? A: Yes.

Q And are the particulars given in that form true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will tender that, sir.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q Now in this form, Mr. Nomura, you claim $250.00 for chinaware? A: Yes.

Q And you tell us that you had sufficient chinaware for 100 people, is that correct?

30

A Yes, that is about right.

Q And did that include glass as well as table china?

A Yes, that includes glass ware.

Q And was that stuff new or old or cracked or broken, or how was it?

A It was all bought new in 1939. It was all bought new in 1939 at the time that we were married.

Q Now how was it left when you were evacuated?

A They were all wrapped in newspapers and left in 10 wooden boxes.

Q Were the boxes marked at all?

A Yes.

Q And was the chinaware cracked or broken in any way?

A No, it was all new condition. It was all new.

Q And what about the glassware?

A No, it was all in new condition.

Q And was this chinaware in sets? Was it all in one pattern, or was it miscellaneous stuff?

A It was in sets.

20 Q And were the sets kept together when you packed them up? A: Yes.

Q Now what about your silverware? How was that packed?

A Those were also in wooden boxes.

Q And had they been wrapped before placing them in the boxes? A: They were all wrapped in paper before being put into the boxes.

Q And were they kept in sets or not?

A The knives altogether and the forks were altogether in that manner.

30 Q Now, Mr. Nomura, you claim, you and your wife, for miscellaneous articles. Can you tell me what they consisted of? A: It included cushions. They included embroidered cushions, embroidered articles, those kind of things mostly made by my wife.

Q Well was she an expert at that sort of thing?

A Yes, she had been an instructress in needle work.

Q Where were those things left?

A They were left along with the other things.

10 Q Well were they packed in boxes, or how were they disposed of?

A They were in a large carton.

Q Were they marked at all? A: Yes, they were marked.

Q Now what about the miscellaneous utensils? Can you tell us what they consisted of?

A Such things as egg beaters and small kitchen mechanical implements.

Q Did it include anything under the heading of 20 kitchen utensils which is also in your column here? You see there is "kitchen utensils" there and miscellaneous utensils there.

A The item for kitchen utensils at $50.00 includes the larger items; the miscellaneous items, miscellaneous utensils at $15.00 was just garious small items.

Q Now were all these items, including the embroidered work, and so on, were they all acquired after your marriage? A: Yes.

30 Q And you tell us that was in 1939, was it?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: Perhaps my friend would now file the personal property analysis.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: You had a radio, too, did you not, Mr. Nomura? A: Yes, but the Custodian sold that and I received the cash.

Q Did you think the selling price of that was fair?

A Yes, it was about right.

10 Q So that you are not making any claim on that?

A No.

Q I think that is all, Mr. Nomura. Will you answer my friend, please.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the goods that were sold by the Custodian were sold for their fair market value. I am submitting that the other goodsthat were not declared, the Custodian is not responsible for, and if he is, the prices claimed for the same are exorbitant.

20 That also applies to the goods of which there is no account.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q How old are you? A: 35.

Q And your wife? A: 32.

Q At the time of your evacuation what was your occupation? A: Fisherman.

Q You have worked all your life as a fisherman and no other occupation? A: Yes.

30 Q Is that the signature of your wife on that document,

(indicating), or your signature?

A That is my wife's signature.

Q Your wife's signature? A: Yes.

Q That is the list of chattels that the Custodian sent to your wife to be signed by her if it was right? A: Yes.

Q That was correct, that statement? It is dated October 3rd, 1943, apparently. It hasn't got the year down here.

10 A We thought of having this stuff shipped to us so that we wrote the Custodian.

MR. RICE: I produce, your Honour, as an Exhibit, a list of chattels signed by the claimant, Mrs. Nomura, apparently dated October 3rd, 1943, and it says, "This represents all my chattels in the protected area of British Columbia".

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3);

A This list was not all the property.

MR. RICE: Q: Beg pardon? A: This list

20 was not all the property that we had.

Q Was not? A: Was not all of the property that we had.

Q That is what it says, that it is all of the property that you left there. That statement at the bottom says that that is all the property that you had there; that is right, is it not?

A I thought this was a list of the things that was to be sent to us. It does not contain the sewing machine.

30 Q Why didn't you put it on there? There is nothing suggested there that those things were to be sent to you? A: At the time we left, my wife registered with the Custodian the sewing machine and beds and other things and those are not mentioned on here.

Q Y ou weren't in a hurry at the time that was signed, were you? A: No.

Q What did you do with the sewing machine?

A They were left in the house together with five, four or five other people's household utensils.

Q Whose house was that?

A They were all left in a vacant, in one house that was vacant belonging to the Imperial Cannery.

Q And left with three or four other people's property, were they? A: Yes.

Q What did they do with the key to the house?

A The key was left with the Imperial Cannery people.

Q Who left it, or do you know?

A When we left we were all in a greatx hurry, and the Imperial Cannery foreman told us to leave our stuff in this empty house and it would be quite safe there so we just put our stuff in there andaleft.

Q You didn't bother to lock it or anything else, did you? A: No, after we put our stuff in there other people went to put their goods in there, too.

Q Did I understand you correctly to say that you had dishes enough to feed 100 people, or that you had 100 dishes; which?

A Yes, I believe so; they were all given to us by various people as wedding presents,at the time we were married,in sets.

Q You had sets of dishes sufficient to entertain 100 people at one time?

A If they were all eating different things, possibly so, but some of them were tea sets and some were dinner sets and they were various types of dishes.

Q Well, then you couldn't entertain 100 people at 10 one time with these dishes?

A No.

Q How many could you entertain at one time with those dishes? A: About forty people.

Q About forty people?

A Yes, about that.

Q And you had silver flatware engugh for 40 people to feed at one time, is that it?

A Yes, about that.

Q Who are your friends? Fisher folk like yourself?

20 A Y es.

Q Was the sewing machine a wedding present?

A No, that was my wife's.

Q I notice you have a doll set, $150.00.

A Yes. Those are the special kinds of dolls used at the spring girls' festival and most of those were given to us as presents when our child was born. Oh, it was my mistake, it was the boys' festival in May that they were received as presents.

Q And they cost $150.00 in 1939, is that right?

30 A Y es, $150.00 or more, I estimate.

Q And they were worth $150.00 when you were evacuated in 1942? A: Yes, they are used only for very brief periods each spring, at the time of the festival.

Q And your chinaware, you value at $250.00?

A Yes, that is about what I estimate, and they were all in new condition and hardly used.

Q There must be lots of money to be made in the fishing business in the part that you came from?

10 A Yes, according to the year, some years it is very good and some years not so good.

Q That is all.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Anything else?

MR. HUCKVALE: No, nothing more.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: What kind of wear was the chinaware? I mean was it English ware, Japanese ware, Canadian ware, or what was it?

A It included English chinaware and Japanese chinaware.

20 Q Do you know the name of the English chinaware?

A No, I don't remember the name.

Q I see. Does your wife speak English or read English? A: She knows a little and can write a little but not very much.

Q I see that Exhibit 3 is typewritten. Was that the condition it was in when you received it?

A This list was accompanied by a letter which said "This is what is left of your chattels. Shall we send it on to you?"

30 Q I see. A: The letter said,

"This is what is left of your chattels. Shall we send it on to you?"

Q That is what the letter said?

A Yes. The boy who lives next door to me reads English very well and he translated it for me.

Q I see. All right.

MR. RICE: Just a minute, please, your Honour, I want to straighten this thing out.

Q Do you recall receiving a letter which was dated December 2nd, 1942, saying, "Your chattels have been removed to our warehouse No. 1 in Steveston and we enclose herewith list in duplicate covering the same. Will you please sign and return one copy to us in the enclosed addressed envelope?" Did you get such a letter?

10

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What is the date of that letter?

MR. RICE: December 2nd, 1942.

A Yes, I remember receiving that.

Q You remember receiving that? A: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The thing that impresses me about this is that it appears to be written at the same time and it gives instructions at the bottom to sign and return.

THE WITNESS: About the end of 1942 we wrote to the B.C. Security Commission asking that various items be sent to us. The Security Commission got in touch with the Custodian and sent us the list, Exhibit 3, with a letter.

MR. RICE: Q: Isn't that the list that was enclosed in the letter addressed to you on December 2nd, 1942,

30

Exhibit 3? A: Yes.

Q All right.

MR. HUCKVALE: That is all, thank you, Mr. Nomura.
