JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

HIS HONOUR, JUDGE M. A. MILLER, SUB-COMMISSIONER

Toronto, Ontario,

November 24, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

NATSUO KISHIMOTO

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

K. A. CHRISTIE, ESQ., K.C.,	appearing for the Dominion Government
R. A. BEST, ESQ.,	appearing for the Claimant

A. SMITH, ESQ.,	Secretary
D. J. HANDFORD, ESQ.,	Official Interpreter
J. B. McGREGOR, ESQ.,	Official Reporter.

NATSUO KISHIMOTO, the claimant herein, having been first duly sworn, testified through the interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BEST:

Q. Is that your signature? A. Yes.

Q. Was that form prepared upon your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. Do you swear the contents are true?

A. Yes.

Q. I should explain, your honour, that this claim, a large part of it, is for a store building and apartments over it, together with a general store business and the stock in trade of that business at Port Essington, B.C. about 22 miles from Prince Rupert.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Stock in trade of the business in question?

MR. BEST: Yes. The claimant's brother has already made a claim before the Sub-Commissioner in Lethbridge, late in September of this year, with respect to everything except one boat for which this man is claiming. I think they dealt with the real estate and this man says he is prepared to be bound by the evidence before the Sub-Commissioner in Lethbridge.

MR. CHRISTIE: I have heard nothing of the case being heard in Lethbridge nor have I seen anything of the evidence. The stock-in-trade claim is outside the terms of reference.

MR. BEST: Your honour, I don't want to take my friend at a disadvantage here, but I think I should explain we had one or two similar cases before Mr. Justice Bird last spring, and both Mr. Brewin and myself argued strenuously that to adhere to the letter of the Order-in-Council would do a grave injustice to a man such as this claimant.

This is an isolated district up the Coast, and it is a fact that these people were ordered to get out on very short notice by the R.C.M.P. There was no opportunity for the sale of their businesses as going concerns and the Custodian was at a like disadvantage since he just appointed some local man to act as his agent and went in and took stock.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: In the hearing in Lethbridge did they deal with the matter of a going concern?

MR. BEST: We have not the transcript here.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: In any event you do not propose to put in any evidence on that point?

MR. BEST: Perhaps in order to clear the point, and since my friend has taken that defence I will change my grounds and say I do. This is one of these points argued before Mr. Justice Bird. We admit prima facie this property was not sold as a going concern but our point is that it should have been sold as a going concern. I don't want to take advantage of Mr. Christie since he wasn't here before Mr. Justice Bird, but the final upshot of the matter was that Mr. Justice Bird said he could conceive there were certain cases where that would be so and he was going to give it his earnest consideration. He did not give us a straight ruling that we couldn't claim for it. He did not disallow it but on the other hand he didn't say he would allow it.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I will admit the evidence subject to Mr. Christie's objection.

MR. CHRISTIE: Your honour, whether this was heard before Mr. Justice Bird, and what my friend interpreted any comment's of Mr. Justice Bird, the fact reamins that the terms of reference were made and they wrote down certain decisions and one of the decisions was that if the business was not so d as a going concern, no evidence of value of good will is admissable.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: There may not be any evidence admissable of value of good will but did they take the most advantageous way of selling the stock-in-trade.

MR. CHRISTIE: My understanding is that if this was not sold as a going concern the only evidence admissable is stock-in-trade and that is under chattels. What else is there besides good will?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It is quite true that one cannot claim for good will, but it is a pretty fine point. You cannot claim for good will but you can say the goods were not sold to the best advantage.

MR. CHRISTIE: My friend should explain to the Court what the $2000. they claim for the business is?

MR. BEST: Your honour, to be quite frank about it, it quite largely is a question of good will.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I am going to admit the evidence subject to the objection and leave it up to the Commissioner.

MR. BEST: Is that your signature?

A. Yes.

Q. Was that form prepared upon your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. Do you swear the contents are true?

A. Yes.

Q. (PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

Q. You and your brother carried on this general store at Port Essington?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you leave there?

A. In March, 1942.

Q. How much notice of evacuation did you have? A. About a week, I think.

Q. And then your boat was taken before that?

A. Yes, to Prince Rupert.

Q. Some agent of the Custodian's came up to Port Essington from Prince Rupert and made an inventory of your stock and so on at the time you were evacuated?

A. No, there was no Custodian at the time.

Q. Who did act as Government agent in instructing you to evacuate and so on?

A. Nobody.

Q. In some of these small places I understand the local constable was empowered to act as evacuation agent, was he the man that told you when you had to get out? A. That is right.

N. Kishimoto,
In chf.

Q. and did he take any steps on behalf of the Custodian to establish the value of your business or anything of that sortK A. No.

Q. Is that your signature? A. Yes.

Q. Was that form prepared under your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. Do you swear the contemts of it are true?

A . Yes.

(PERSONAL CHATTELS CLAIM FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

Q. This represents the claaman't half share of the stock in trade which was actually sold by the Custodian and also half share of the pool table and cues which were sold by the Custodian.

Q. Now, is that your signature?

A. Yes.

Q. And was that form prepared upon your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. Do you swear the contents are true?

A. Yes.

(PERSONAL PROPERTY FISHING VESSELS CLAIM FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

Q. Now, this fishing vessel I understand was your own property? A. Yes.

Q. And the rest, the store and business and pool table was owned jointly by your brother and yourself? A. Yes.

Q. Now, according to your claim form you bought this boat in 1939 is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. And youpaid $300. for it. Where did you buy it?

A. In Port Essington.

Q. Do you know how old the boat was when you bought it?

A. Around 7 or 8 years, I think.

Q. And what sort of motor did it have in it then? A. It had no engine, but I put an engine in.

Q. You just paid $300 for the hull, did you?

A. Yes.

Q. And you installed this 60 h.p. Nash truck engine? A. Yes.

Q. I suppose a certain amount of reconversion had to be done to convert it to a marine engine and hook it to the drive shaft and propellor and so on? A. Yes.

Q. Did you do that yourself?

A. I hired a man to do that.

Q. This $175. that you say it cost you to install that Nash engine in 1940, does that represent the cost of the engine plus the cost of installation?

A. It could be more but I cannot figure it out so I put it at $175.

Q. Do you remember the exact amount you paid for the engine itself apart from installing it?

A. The engine was not too much, $60. I think. But to install it cost quite a bit.

Q. To do the reconverting and installing it cost the balance? A. Yes.

Q. Now, this cabin you put on the boat in 1940 at a cost of $50. Did you do that yourself?

A. No, I hired a carpenter.

MR. CHRISTIE: I am tendering as Exhibit 5 the Analsyis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO.5)

I tender as Exhibit 6 the appraisal of John Gould. This appraisal is dated the 5th of October, 1942, and the appraised value is $150.

MR. BEST: Now, when was your boat taken over?

A. Sometime in January 1942.

Q. It was taken to Prince Rupert?

A. Yes.

Q. At the time it was taken was there a propeller on it?

A. Yes.

Q. It was in good working order?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. And how about the batteries and wiring, they were all there?

A. Yes. Just a coil or something had been taken from the boat.

Q. You took the coil out of the boat?

A. Yes.

Q. How about anchors, were there any anchors on the boat?

A. Yes; one.

Q. Was there a chain on it?

A. Rope.

Q. Did you have a compass on the boat?

A. No.

Q. Were there any winches on the boat?

A. No.

Q. And you did not have any fire extinguishers?

A. No.

MR. CHRISTIE: I tender as Exhibit 6 a summary taken from the vessel records. It is dated August 28, 1944.

(APPRAISAL OF JOHN GOULD, MARKED EXHIBIT NO.6)

(SUMMARY, VESSEL RECORDS, MARKED EXHIBIT 7)

MR. BEST: Q. Did the Navy take it over?

A. The Navy.

Q. Do you know if the J.F.V.D.C. valued your boat at $350.?

A. No.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: As to this good will claim, it is apparently put in as an independent claim altogether and it appears to me to be clearly outside the terms of reference and by admitting this evidence and permitting it to go on the record I am not ruling that the evidence is admissible. I go simply on this principle a few years ago Mr. Justice Roach said on a case in which he ruled certain evidence was not admissible and the case went to the court of appeal and the court of appeal held it was admissible and ordered a new trial. They laid down the rule where a judge was sitting without a jury he should hear all the evidence and permit it to go on record without ruling on its admissibility so that the court of appeal would know if they should order a new trial. In the light of what Mr. Best has said as to the position Mr. Justice Bird has taken on these other cases I have permitted this evidence to go on record for the purposes of disposition by the Commissioner.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. CHRISTIE:

Q. I am showing you a J.P. Form dated March 24, 1942; is that your signature (Indicating)?

A. Yes.

Q. Now you have listed on that your real property? A. Yes.

Q. Which is a five-room frame building and store and you have made a claim for your boat?

A. Yes.

Q. Why didn't you make a claim for your business or why didn't you make a claim for these other chattels at the time you filled out this form?

A. My brother did that.

Q. This was your signature?

A. Yes.

Q. This is not your brother's signature?

A. No. We were evacuated from the coast and we didn't know what to do, so they asked me what I had and there were so many people lined up they did it all in a few hours.

(J.P. FORM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO.8)

Q. You didn't think about putting in your business or other goods then. That was just neglect on your part? A. Yes.

Q. When did you buy this real property for which you are claiming? A. That was my grandfather's.

Q. You got it from your grandfather?

A. Yes.

Q. How long did he have it?

A. We had it five years and it burned out and we made a new one in 1925 or 1926, I think.

Q. Do you know what it cost to build this building~~s~~?

A. I wouldn't be sure.

Q. Were you present when it was built?

A. No, I was small.

Q. You would not know very much about it then, what kind of lumber it was built?

A. Just ordinary frame lumber.

Q. Was it rough lumber or planed?

A. For the house it was.

Q. Was it ship lap?

A. The sides were ship lap and the floor is hardwood in the store.

Q. Now, is this estimate of $3,000. for its value, is that your estimation or is that an estimation of your brother?

A. I wrote a letter to my brother.

Q. Did you suggest that $3,000. to your brother as the value?

A. Both of us agreed to make it $3,000.

Q. Was that by correspondence?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you get any outside advice in arriving at this value or was this value made up by you and your brother? A. I have another brother and the three of us made it up.

Q. It says in this appraisal here that some of the windows were broken. In what condition was it when you were evacuated?

A. It was fair, and no window was broken and we covered everything up and locked the door.

(APPRAISAL OF W.H. SHORTRIDGE, MARKED EXHIBIT NO.9)

Q. What kind of roof did this business have?

A. Galvanized sheet metal.

Q. How was it heated?

A. By a stove.

Q. Was the building painted?

A. Yes.

Q. Had it been painted recently prior to the evacuation? A. Yes; a couple of years ago.

Q. Were you and your brother evacuated at the same time?

A. At the same time.

Q. That was the 22nd August, 1942?

A. No; March 1942, around the 20th.

Q. My information is it was the 22nd August, 1942?

A. That could be from Hastings Park. We had to move out from the coast.

Q. When did you leave Port Essington?

A. In March.

Q. Where did you go from there?

A. Hastings Park.

Q. How long were you at Hastings Park?

A. I stayed there until August.

Q. Where did you go after Hastings Park?

A. We had just about one weeks notice and there were about 500 people moved out by train from Prince Rupert to Vancouver.

Q. Did you leave this business in the care of anyone? A. No. I just gave the key to the postmaster and we left.

Q. Did any representative of the custodian call at your store just prior to your evacuation?

A. Not until we got in Hastings Park.

Q. That was the first time you saw an Agent of the Custodian?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, all these items that you are claiming for were contained in your store?

A. Some were in the store and some were in the living room.

Q. Did you live in part of the building?

A. Yes.

Q. You were not married?

A. No. My brother was married.

Q. Were these items in the living room jointly owned by you and your brother?

A. My grandfather just gave it to me and my brother.

Q. You were joint owners of the personal property in the living room?

A. Yes.

Q. And you were joint owners of the stock-in-trade of the store? A. Yes.

Q. When did you buy this Toledo scale which you estimate at $100. which was sold for $5.?

A. That was seven or eight years before the evacuation.

Q. Was that new or used when you bought it?

A. New.

Q. What price did you pay for it?

A. I don't know. My brother ordered it.

Q. You do not know what price was paid for it?

A. No.

Q. And what about the safe? When was it bought?

A. I don't remember.

A. Yes.

Q. Now, what about this McLary Range? When was it bought?

A. About a year before the evacuation.

Q. Who bought it? A. We did from people in Port Esstington who were just leaving.

Q. What did you pay for it?

A. I think $60. That is an oil-burning stove, sir.

Q. You paid $60. for it?

A. I think so.

Q. Was it new or used? A. It was slightly used.

Q. What about the kitchen cabinet? Was it new or used when you bought it?

A. It was new when I bought it.

Q. How old was it?

A. About eight or ten years, I think.

Q. What did you pay for it?

A. There are so many kitchen cabinets in our place I don't know.

Q. If you don't remember just say so.

Q. Did you work in the store, yourself?

A. I did and so did my brother.

Q. Your brother and you both worked there?

A. Yes.

Q. You bought some goods as well as your brother?

MR. BEST: Just one question.

Q. Who prepared this list of stock, where did you get the information to prepare that or was that taken from the auction sheets?

A. Yes.

Q. You have not claimed for anything at all except what was sold by the Custodian?

A. That is right. We couldn't figure out what we had because there was so much stock.

EXTRACT OF W. H. SHORTRIDGE'S PORT ESSINGTON
APPRAISALS (JUNE - JULY, 1944)

Port Essington, B. C. Prince Rupert Land District. Lot: 50.00
Imp. 1100.00

No. 745. Lot 6 Bk 3, DL 45. (E & N Kishimoto Store),
Store & Liv' qrts. frontage about 60' built in sections, Old.
Main bldg. app 24' x 36' with addn. to rear 24' x 16'
Side addn. " 36' x 13'
Shed " " 10' x 36' at side used as junk storage etc.
Roofed with Corr. Cald. Iron sheets, that seems fair.
Main building is 1½ story with bedrooms above, kitchen is in addition at back. Side store addition seems newer. This could be a very old building, and could extend beyond the lot limits, as the whole totals some 70' or so, but as the lots have so little value, this would not be a very serious matter, but I thought it could be mentioned. The condition here could be described as drab, especially rear and upper. Some of the windows are broken, and Mr. Brown says entry has been made here, and some of the things could be missing, from the original list. If the building could be sold for any purpose it should fetch about $750.00, but may have to go for salvage. There is quite a remnant of stock left, but mostly such as would only appeal to the Japanese. The Store equipment includes home made counters, shelvings cases of sorts 5 of them, large bakers table with bins 4 on each side, that has seen its best days, as well as:

Store: 1 Dayton type scale about 30 lbs. 1 safe small.
1 Fairbanks Platform scale 500 lbs.
1 Blazer coal stove ½ doz. chairs and seats - stools -
some small items of hardware stock, Oil in cans, etc.

Kitchen: 1 Cook Stove small, 1 heater, 1 gents dresser, with drawers,
1 Bureau, 3 chairs, 1 plate mirror about 36" x 48"; fair, in frame.
The W.C. here may also be burst, as most of them are as even when drained, the anti-syphonage channel holds sufficient water to burst the bowl when frozen, it seems.

Upstairs: Very little here, rats are in control. Just 1 old bed, iron, and small quantity books including 1 popular educator set.

Shed on side: Contains small quantity lumber, engine parts, ropes, etc.
Varied assortment of old tools and much junk.
The equipment and furniture and junk could have quite a little value, if placed in a receptive market, maybe $400.00 or more,

The value of the Building, should a buyer be available, I would place at Seven hundred fifty dollars - $750.00.
