JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H. I. BIRD - COMMISSIONER.

Vancouver, B.C.,

April 22nd, 1949.

CASE NO: 1314.

IN THE MTTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MRS. MASAKO MIZUGUCHI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

D. BRAIDWOOD, Esq., and J. A. MACDONALD, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government;
R. J. McMASTER, Esq., and A. E. COBUS, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. W. Watson, Esq.,	Secretary,
T. P. Horrobin, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. McMASTER: My lord, in case No. 1314, Mrs. Masako Mizuguchi, this is also a Toronto case where the claimant resided some distance from Toronto and had six children to take care of.

The claim is for chattels only, and counsel has forwarded to the Secretary, and I would assume has sent to the Custodian a copy of an affidavit sworn before a Commissioner in Ontario, and attached a personal chattel form, in which she sets 10 out the details of the claim.

I would ask to have that filed in that case, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Would you like to stand that over until Monday, Mr. Braidwood?

MR. BRAIDWOOD: I think so. It is a substantially larger amount than the last claim, something like $500.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, we will stand it over until Monday. If possible, I would like to have at that time, Mr. Braidwood, the Custodian's analysis, so 20 that we know what happened to these chattels.

MR. BRAIDWOOD: Yes, my lord.

MR. McMASTER: My lord, I think in this case there appears to be attached -- well, this is rather unusual and I will have to check it up. I don't seem to have a copy of this file myself, my lord, and Mr. Watson was good enough to produce his file to me this morning, and I see attached to it is the Custodian analysis of the personal property claim.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Indicating that the goods were sold?

MR. McMASTER: Indicating that the analysis had been filed by Crown counsel at Toronto when the case was heard, and I don't think it was marked. It should be marked, my lord, as the second exhibit. It is amixture of sold at auction and declared not found, and no record at any time, and abandoned, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see. That can be spoken to again on Monday. Will you note it on your Monday list as well, Mr. Watson?

MR. McMASTER : That is all, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Have you anything further, Mr. Braidwood?

MR. BRAIDWOOD: I have nothing further, my lord.

(PROCEEDINGS ADJOUNRED UNTIL APRIL 25, 1949)

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate report of the said proceedings.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

Toronto, Ontario,

December 1, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MRS. MASAKO MIZUGUCHI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

Original.

IN THE MATTER OF THE "INQUIRIES ACT"

PART 1, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER 99

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.A. McGIBBON, SUB-COMMISSIONER.

Toronto, Ontario,

December 1, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MRS. MASAKO MIZUGUCHI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

K.A. CHRISTIE, ESQ., K.C., appearing for the Dominion Government,

F.A. BREWIN, ESQ., appearing for the Claimant.

A. SMITH, ESQ., Secretary,

G.N.R. UPPON, ESQ., Official Interpreter,

A.G. VEITCH, ESQ., Official Reporter.

MR. BREWIN: In this particular case we are tendering what evidence we have in the form of an affidavit. She is a widow, with six children and she cannot possibly get away. It is a small claim and for a number of chattels. The only evidence we have to tender at these hearings is in the form of an affidavit.

MR. CHRISTIE: I never have seen the file. I think Mr. Best did speak to me about it last night. I do not recall seeing the file but I think I said that to Mr. Best last night.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I have made a ruling that I would not accept any claims unless they were here to subject themselves to cross-examination. I still stick to it.

MR. BREWIN: I am tendering this evidence.

I have considered the evidence very carefully. Is your honour going to rule without argument that in the case of a widow who cannot get here you will not accept it?

MR. CHRISTIE: I will object to proceeding without my looking at the file.

MR. BREWIN: His honour says he will not deal with it at all. If that is so we might save time about putting it on the list again. We will have to submit our material in Vancouver.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: If she wants to put in her claim she will have to come here and submit herself to cross-examination. It is not fair to the Crown that she should file the claim and not be submitted to cross-examination.

MR. BREWIN: Is your honour making an order in respect of this matter, because I am asking leave to submit the affidavit. If not now I do not wish to embarass my friend. If your honour wishes to make a ruling I think we should have it on the record.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It all rests with Mr. Christie. I say if she cannot come here and submit herself to cross-examination she has not any right to file her claim. That is my ruling.

When you see the file you can get in touch with Mr. Brewin and discuss the matter with him.

Toronto, Ontario,

December 2, 1948.

MR. BREWIN: Your honour, might I speak once again to the case of Mrs. Masako Mizuguchi?

This is the case about which I spoke to your honour yesterday and asked to submit the evidence in the form of an affidavit.

The affidavit which was supplied to me is rather inadequate, at any rate, and I was not able to find the file which was mislaid in my office, and my friend has not seen it.

I think what I would like leave to do, if my friend agrees in this matter - but I would perhaps ask leave to do it, at any rate - would be to withdraw the case from this Sub-Commission's hearings and have a more complete affidavit setting out the facts prepared and make an application to Mr. Justice Bird in Vancouver.

There is nothing really we can do here on the face of it which could not be done in Vancouver, and Mr. Justice Bird may conclude that the affidavit evidence is insufficient. If he does that is the end of it. We cannot get her here. I mentioned she is a widow with six children, some of which I believe are young children. The claim is a small one, one about which I would not be any too optimistic about a substantial recovery. It really would be almost impossible to arrange to get her here.

What I will do, if your honour would permit me, would be to ask leave to withdraw it from this sub-commission hearing with a proviso that I do intend to apply to Mr. Justice Bird on fuller affidavit material.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: As I understand it, you have lost the affidavit?

MR. BREWIN: No. I have what purports to be an affidavit. Actually it is one of these personal chattel forms with which we have become familiar. It seems to me to be rather inadequate. It is signed by her and there is a form typed in,"declared before me, at the village of Chapleasu, District of Sudbury, November 27, 1948," and signed by a Justice of the Peace. Frankly, I would prefer to submit a more complete affidavit explaining why she is not able to come to the hearings and about the children, and so on, and identifying this more satisfactorily. It is rather an ambiguous thing.

Of course, your honour understand that, living up in Chapleau and the rest of it, it is not easy to get things done in the most efficient way. We did have somebody from our office go up and help here in the preparation of this form; then our representative had to leave before it was completed.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The claim of Mizuguchi?

MR. BREWIN: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Mr. Christie?

MR. CHRISTIE: I think under the circumstances perhaps the course which my friend suggests is the wise one.

I told him previous to the hearing that while ordinarily I would object to a case being submitted and proved by affidavit without the privilege of crown counsel examining, or cross-examining, it would be not desirable, under the circumstances of her being a widow and having six children if he could furnish me with either a more satisfactory evidence that she was unable to come or that the children were so young she could not get anybody else to stay with them, I would be prepared to go ahead.

I think, in view of what my friend has said today, it would be better to have a new affidavit and have it heard in Vancouver. I will have the papers forwarded out there.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Very well.

(PROCEEDINGS ADJOURNED SINE DIE)

F. A. Brewin, Esq.,
Messrs. Cameron, Weldon & Brewin,

Toronto 1.

Dear Mr.Brewin,

Re Case #1314 - MIZUGUCHI Masako

The above claim was presented for hearing by the Sub-Commission at Toronto, on December 1st last, but the Sub-Commissioner declined to hear the claim, for the reason that the claimant was not present to submit evidence and no complete evidence by affidavit had been obtained. The Sub-Commissioner ruled that the claim be transferred to Vancouver for hearing, and that it be supported by complete affidavit.

If it is your wish that the claim be presented in Vancouver for hearing, it would be obviously necessary to secure evidence by affidavit from the claimant.

Please give this matter your attention and let us hear from you as soon as possible as to what you wish done in this connection.

Yours truly,

A. WATSON

Secretary.
