TAKEO OIKAWA, The claimant herein, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

MR. CHERNIAK: I ask leave to amend the real property portion of this claim Your Honour, to show the Claimant's estimate of value at $500.00

THE COMMISSIONER: Rather than $1,100.00?

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour. The sale price by the Custodian at $141.00, so that the loss on the Real Property would be $359.00. The Personal claim remains as it is except that the Custodian should receive credit for $150.00 for the sale of some floats, so that the loss for the personal chattels claimed is $4,167.00 and the total loss will be $4,526.00.

Q DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. CHERNIAK:

Q Mr. Oikawa, I show you four typewritten sheets, were these prepared in accordance with your instructions? A Yes.

Q Are these your signatures on all of these forms? A Yes.

Q Do you swear the contents of these forms to be true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, I tender as Exhibit 1 The Claimant's statement as to Real Estate.

(REAL ESTATE STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 1.)

MR. CHERNIAK: And on behalf of my learned friend I will tender his S.S.B.Appraisal as Exhibit 2.

(S.S.B.APPRAISAL, EXHIBIT 2.)

MR. CHERNIAK: I will file the Claimant's statement as to the float house and net house as Exhibit 3.

(STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 3.)

MR. CHERNIAK: The claimant's statement as to fishing gear as Exhibit 4.

(STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 4.)

MR. CHERNIAK: The claimant's statement as to personal chattels as Exhibit 5.

(PERSONAL CHATTEL STATEMENT EXHIBIT 5.)

10 MR. CHERNIAK: And on behalf of my learned friend I will file the Custodian's Analysis of personal property claimed as Exhibit 6.

(ANALYSIS, EXHIBIT 6.)

MR. CHERNIAK: Dealing first with the real property, Your Honour will note that this property was purchased in 1939 from Elizabeth Ann Quaggen for $286.35. I am showing to my learned friend a deed of land dated April 11th, 1939 from E.A. Quaggen to Takeo Oikawa for lot 2, which is the 20 portion for which claim is made, and the consideration is $286.35. The property consists of 2.45 acres of which 1 acre was uncleared and the claimant did no cultivating after, or did no clearing after the purchase of the property. However, he did cultivate the portion that was cleared which was about one and a half acres and he planted certain berry plants. He states that in 1940 he put in 10 ice breaker piles at a cost of $200.00 and affixed 6 boom sticks at a cost
30 of $125.00. This is a piece of land on the river,

T. Oikawa
In Chief.

The Fraser River and these ice breaker piles and boom sticks were there as protection for the buildings. He also put in a 40 foot water main in 1940 at a cost of $15.00. The S.S.B. Appraisal form locates this property as four and a half miles from Kennedy, placing it on a good, main gravel road and it is stated that it is a fishing settlement but that the land is good. Exhibit 2 also mentions certain buildings but 10 does not add them to the value of the property because they are on floats and are therefore moveable. Page 2 of the S.S.B.Appraisal values the land at $144.25. Mr. Barnet, the District Superintendent, gives his opinion as $200.00. The comment on page 3 of Exhibit 2 is worth reading Your Honour. He states that the property is situated on Fraser River frontage. Agriculturally alone it is very limited. Combined with sufficient surrounding Jap land it could be turned 20 into a farm unit. However, certain types of buyers who wished a subsistence home to work out from especially fishing would take this place. The soil generally is excellent and the uncleared portion could easily be cleared up. This claim, therefore is only a question of value of land itself, there are no buildings involved. The claimant states that he bought this property as part of 7 lots purchased by a group of fishermen and for that reason he bought cheaply. At 30 the time of evacuation land of this nature in his neighborhood was selling for $300.00 per acre. He believes that the fair market value of the land at date of sale was at least $500.00

Q Do you know yourself Mr. Oikawa of any land in that neighborhood which sold for $300.00 per acre?

A Yes.

Q Can you tell us what you know about that?

A I don't know of the person who sold but I know of the person who bought it.

10 Q Who is that? A I am not quite certain, but it is about a quarter of a mile up the River.

Q Which direction up the River, the River runs East and West does it? A Northeast.

MR. CHERNIAK: Turning now to Exhibit 3 Your Honour, the claimant's statement as to the Float House and Net House. He says this house was an old one having been built by his father in 1921 and he does not know the cost. He states he built a float for the house in 1939 at a cost of approx-

20 imately $350.00.

Q Am I correct that this house was a house built by your father on another land and that you built a float for it, put it on the float and brought it to this land? A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: He values this house and float at $1,000.00. He sets out a bath house and net house were built in 1931 for $300.00 and he built a float for the bath house and net house in 1931 at a cost of $100.00.

30 Q Is that correct, witness, was the float for the bath house and net house built in 1931, or was it on another date? A Yes.

Q So that the bath house and net house were on a float at the time you bought it and you just moved it over to the present property is that it?

A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: This bath house and net house on the float is valued by the claimant at $300.00 and if Your Honour will turn to Exhibit 6 you will note that the Custodian sets out that this was sold, both floats and buildings were sold for $150.00. The comment is that tenders were called and sold to the highest bidder. I believe my learned friend might be able to advise us as to these tenders because there was nothing on the Custodian's file that was loaned to me.

MR. FERG: There are several tenders for a float house, Your Honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: You mean how it was tendered for?

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour, anything about it except what is stated on the Custodian's Analysis.

MR. FERG: Well, the property was advertised in the Vancouver and New Westminister nesqpapers on August 26th, 28th and 29th, 1944 as Parcel 'A', being a small floating bath house and two roomed float house, opposite 1024 River Road, Sunbury. As a result tenders were received and the property was ultimately sold for $150.00 to the highest bidder. I don't seem to have the tender.

MR. CHERNIAK: While my learned friend is looking for that, may he give us also whether there was any appraisal?

MR. FERG: There is no appraisal, Your Honour. The property was ultimately sold to Mr. E. Torvik for the highest tender of $150.00 and there is no appraisal.

MR. CHERNIAK: Coming now, Your Honour, to the nets and the floats and lines that are set out in Exhibit 4. The claimant shows the full description of the nets, age at evacuation and the original value and his estimated value. Your Honour will note that the Custodain reports that all these nets were abandoned.

10

Q Where did you leave the nets Mr. Oikawa?

A I left them on the float and locked the room up.

Q That is the net house, is it?

A Yes.

Q Were they hung up or put in bundles or what?

A They were hung up.

20

Q And prior to hanging them up did you bluestone them in any way, did you clean them in any way?

A I bluestonedthem and thoroughly cleaned them and washed them.

Q Were they dry when you left or wet?

A They were dry.

Q And in what condition - how long would you say these nets would remain in a good saleable condition? A About three or four years they would remain in good condition.

MR. CHERNIAK: I doubt if my learned friend can tell us very much about these nets, as to when they were abandoned or by whom; if he can, I would like to hear it, if he can't we will leave it for the adjourned hearing.

MR. FERG: There is nothing here, Your Honour.

MR. CHERNIAK: We will have to leave it for the adjourned hearing. Turning now to Exhibit 5 the statement as to personal chattels and to the Analysis Sheet, Exhibit 6. Your Honour will note a reference in Exhibit 6 to a shipment of certain goods to the claimant, a crated bed, two boxes of effects and other articles. There is also mention there that the Custodian wrote the claimant asking if he had received the goods and the Claimant returned his copy of the Bills of Lading.

Q These goods that were sent to you Mr. Oikawa, you did receive them? A Yes.

Q Now you are making a claim here Mr. Oikawa for $1.00 for two tubs, small, do you know whether these are the tubs you received in this shipment or not? A No.

Q Then these are other tubs?

A Yes

THE COMMISSIONER: Is that one dollar each?

MR. CHERNIAK: No, one dollar for both, Your Honour.

Q Witness, you are also making a claim for books, $510.50 and the list reads 2 boxes and 5 cartons of books; now, you received the two boxes did you not? A I received two boxes.

Q And this claim for $510.50, does it include the books which you received or is it only for books which you did not receive from the Custodian?

A Those are for books which I did not receive.

MR. CHERNIAK: Exhibit 5 sets out the particulars as to date of purchase, price paid and the valuation placed on it by the claimant of the larger items in the claim which have been detailed in the Custodian's analysis sheet and I think they are all quite clear with the exception of the question of the books. Your Honour will note in Exhibit 5 that the books have been divided into English, $85.45, and Japanese $502.45, being the prices paid for the Japanese Books.

Q Now Mr. Oikawa, how do you know the cost price of the books for which you are claiming down to the cent? A In the Japanese books the price is put in each volumn.

THE COMMISSIONER: That doesn't help us very much.

MR. CHERNIAK: No, Your Honour.

Q How do you know now what price was shown in these books that you left behind?

A When I got the evacuation order I made a list and put the prices down.

Q Did you list each book separately?

A I put the title of the volume together with the price in the list.

Q I show you witness a red note book on which is written T. Oikawa, Note Book, do you recognize this book? A Yes.

Q Is this the book you refer to as having the list of all your books in it? A Yes, not only my books but other particulars, important particulars.

Q For your own information, is that it?

A Yes.

Q And was this important information, other than the books, was that written at date of evacuation,

10 or through the years prior to that?

A That information was put down from 1922 onwards.

Q Now, witness, there are many pages, all in Japanese and I am giving you a paper clip, can you clip together all the pages that do not relate to the books? A It is from here down.

Q You have now clipped together all the pages that do not relate to the books; and all other pages, showing lines and lines of Japanese writing, all these relate to the Japanese books, do they?

20 A Yes.

Q Now, included with thos book I see a long slip from an adding machine, what is this slip?

A These are the prices of the books.

Q Cost prices? A Yes.

Q I see at the end of this long list it shows a total of $1,171.00? A Yes.

Q I see also that through this long sheet, various figures are crossed out by pencil, did you cross out these figures in pencil?

30 A Those erasures are for the books which I received from the Custodian.

Q In the two boxes referred to?

A Yes.

Q I see also in the book - which I should have filed as an Exhibit and I will do that now.

(NOTE BOOK, EXHIBIT 7.)

Q I see also in the book, Exhibit number 7 that there are certain lines crossed out in pencil?

A Yes.

10 Q Why are these crossed out? A These were erased to account for the things I received from the Custodian.

MR. CHERNIAK: I also tender as an Exhibit the addition slip, Your Honour.

(ADDITION SLIP, EXHIBIT 8.)

MR. CHERNIAK:

Q So that you are quite satisfied are you Mr. Oikawa, that the books for which you are claiming and which you did not receive from the 20 Custodian total $587.90 cost price?

A Yes.

Q Can you indicate the English books for which you are claiming, I am showing you now Exhibit number 7? A Arabian Nights, 17 volumes, $35.00; History of Scotland, 8 Volumes, $19.00; Makers of History, 20 volumes, $6.50; Famous Characters of History, 20 Volumes, $17.95.

Q And do you have more elsewhere in the book?

A This one.

Q This one, the American Encyclopaedic Dictionary,

30 12 Volumes, $7.00? A Yes.

Q Also shown is the Book of Knowledge, did you receive those? A Yes.

Q And they are crossed out? A Yes.

Q What condition were all these books in?

A I had taken good care of them so their condition was very good.

Q Were they all bought new or some second hand?

A New.

Q Did you make a practice of lending them out to other people, or did you keep them for your own use? A I loaned quite a number but they were all returned to me.

10

Q And at date of evacuation you say that they were in good condition? A Yes, I put them away in boxes carefully.

Q You carefully put them away in boxes?

A Yes.

Q Are these the goods that you requested in July, 1943? A They sent me two boxes.

20

MR. CHERNIAK: I am just referring to Exhibit 6, Your Honour wherein the Custodian states that the Claimant requested shipment of two boxes and five cartons of books and I bring to your attention that only two boxes of effects were sent to the Claimant. I think I should point out that the claim is detailed in the same form as inventoried by the Custodian. The Custodian does not deny that he was seized of all these goods and sets out all itmes other than those shipped appear to to have been abandoned or not accounted for, theft, etc. I am surmising from that Your Honour that the Custodian has no record of anyone having appraised these goods or decided that they were valueless but that the custodian has lost all particulars of them. That is just conjecture which I assume the Custodian will either confirm or deny in due course.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are you finished Mr. Cherniak?

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: I think, possibly, this is a good time to adjourn.

COURT ADJOURNED: 12.10 a.m.

COURT RESUMED: 2.00 p.m.

T.OIKAWA, the Claimant, still in the witness box.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. FERG:

Q Witness, with regard to your real estate, your principle occupation was fishing?

20 A Yes.

Q And your berry growing and so on was just a sideline? A I did that in my spare time.

Q I show you a picture, is that a picture of your floating house and net shed that you are claiming for? A Yes.

MR. FERG: I will file that as an Exhibit, Your Honour.

(SHEET CONTAINING FOUR PHOTOGRAPHS

30 EXHIBIT 9.)

Q Now, this house was a float house?

A Yes.

Q And you say you think your father built it in 1921? A I think so, I was with my Father in 1922 and to the best of my knowledge it was around about there.

Q Did you buy the float house from your father?

A Yes.

Q When? A In 1931.

10 Q How much did you pay for it?

A- $1,000.00

Q Did that include the net house?

A No.

Q Did you ever have an independent person give you a valuation on your house and net house?

A No.

Q And that also applies with your real property claim, did you ever have anybody give you an independent valuation of the property you are 20 claiming for? A No.

Q When you evacuated or when you were evacuated

w where did you leave these fish nets?

A In the net house.

Q Did you ever give a list of them to the Custodian?

A No.

Q Did you leave any property with a Mrs. W.Johnson, at 1034 River Road, New Westminster?

A No, I didn't leave anything at that persons house.

Q Were your chattels all leftin your own floating house? A Yes, in the two float houses.

Q Now you received a shipment of goods from Mrs. Johnson? A Yes.

Q And did you receive a shipment of goods from anybody else after you were evacuated?

A No.

Q How many shipments of goods did you receive altogether after your evacuation? A I received from Mrs. Johnson one axe, rubber hose, a tub and a bed complete. Those three articles were given by Mrs. Johnson to the Custodian and the Custodian sent them to me and over and above that I received two boxes of books from the Custodian.

Q Now I will show you a paper dated the 27th of August, 1942, is that your signature at the foot of this document? A Yes.

Q Where did you sign this document, do you remember?

A I was in the Cariboo

Q Now this statements states that this represents all my chattels remaining in the restricted area of British Columbia? A That is so.

MR. FERG: I will file this statement as an Exhibit Your Honour.

(STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 10.)

Q Now this list, Exhibit 10 does not refer to any fishing nets or books, why were they not included in the list since you are claiming for them now?

A At the time that I signed this I sent a letter to the Custodian telling him that there were other effects which were not on here.

Q I have a further statement dated November 4th,1942 in which it appears that additional chattels were found and it includes two boxes and five cartonsof books, so that is cleared up?

MR. CHERNIAK: I think in the first statement there is also mention of nets.

MR. FERG: Yes, several pieces of fishing net. alright.

Q This further statement, is that your signature?

A Yes.

10 Q Where was that signed by yourself, where were you when you signed it?

A In the Cariboo.

Q And this statement, Exhibit 10 and the one I now show you were mailed to you by the Custodian?

A Yes, they came by mail.

Q And you signed them and sent them back?

A Yes.

MR. FERG: I will file this further statement, Your Honour.

20 (STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 11)

Q Now you told us that you got two boxes of books?

A Yes.

Q So that there is only five cartons of books missing? A Yes.

Q Were these boxes of books that you received large boxes? A Yes.

Q Were they larger than the cartons would be?

A About the same size.

Q Would you say that you had received the greater

30 proportion of the books when you received these two boxes? A No, there wasn't half.

Q I suppose, as is the usual custom in evidence of this kind the books that you received would be the best books, would they?

A I packed up the books in a hurry and for that reason they were not the best books.

Q In other words there were good books and poor books in every package, is that right?

A They were mixed.

10 Q Now the Japanese books that you owned, where did you purchase them? A They were books that I bought direct from Japan and some from Vancouver.

Q And the books that you bought from Japan you would pay for in Japanese money? A Yes.

Q- And can you tell us the average price of each book purchased? A It is difficult for me to give an average price, but the Histories and works of that nature were expensive and there were others that were not so dear.

20 Q Were these books novels, story books?

A About twenty percent of the books of a like nature, novels, and the remainder were scientific works.

Q What kind of scientific works?

A Chiropractic, Histories and Notables of Ancient times.

MR. CHERNIAK:

Q Would that be Biographies?

A Yes, Biographies.

30 MR. FERG:

Q How old are you? A Forty-two.

Q Did you ever go to school in Canada?

A I went to school to the extent of Grade 3 in Canada.

Q At no time did you attend University?

A No, I went to middle School in Japan.

Q Now, have you read all these books that you are claiming for? A Ninety percent of them.

10 Q And some of them, I suppose, have been on your shelves for ten, fifteen or twenty years?

A Yes.

Q And, as a matter of fact, most of them I suppose?

A The oldest are from 1922, but from 1937 onwards I bought the bulk of these books.

Q And you cannot tell us the average price of these books? A No, because there are cases where they cost twenty or thirty-five dollars individually.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: A list of the books with the exact cost price is already in evidence and he said the Japanes Books had the prices on the fly page.

MR. FERG: Oh yes, Your Honour.

Q I show you a bill of lading, is that the bill of lading you received with the shipment of goods from Mrs. Johnson? A Yes.

MR. FERG: I will file that Bill of Lading as an Exhibit, Your Honour.

30 (BILL OF LADING, EXHIBIT 12.)

MR. FERG: That is all Your Honour.

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, I would like to draw your attention that this list Exhibit 12 is exactly the same as set out in the Custodian's Analysis, Exhibit 6, which the claimant admitted receiving.

MR. FERG: I submit Your Honour that the real property sold for its fair market value and with regard to the Floating House and Net House I submit they were sold at their fair market value and that the prices claimed for the other articles is excessive and unreasonable.

RE-EXAMINATION BY MR. CHERNIAK:

Q In connection with the inventory sheet setting out the chattels that were in the care of W.Johnson and Mrs. C.Giesbrecht, did you tell my learned friend that after you received these you wrote to the Custodian about certain articles missing from the list Exhibit 10? A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: Might I ask my learned friend if he has the letter which the claimant sent?

MR. FERG: That is the letter of - - -

MR. CHERNIAK:

Q Did you write that letter shortly after you received this list, or quite a while later?

A9 I am not certain, I cannot remember.

MR. CHERNIAK: I will leave it at that Your Honour by pointing out that on Exhibit 10 which was signed, apparently, I am saying apparently because that is the date shown here, was signed on September 15th, 1942, and this exhibit bears the Custodian's receipt stamp with which the Custodian always stamps mail as it comes in, andit is stamped November 23rd, 1942. Exhibit 11, which is the additional list bears the date of 18th of November, 1942 and I am wondering if my learned friend has the letter which accompanied this Exhibit 11 and then, possibly, we could find out what date that was received by the Custodian.

Q Mr. Oikawa, do you remember if these two lists were returned by you separately or together?

A They were sent separately.

THE COMMISSIONER: You better identify them.

MR. CHERNIAK: Exhibits 10 and 11 Your Honour. Possibly my learned friend or the Custodian's office in Vancouver will be able to advise us as to the dates. To my way of thinking it would appear that these lists were received at the same time or date of sending theother Exhibit.

Q Witness, could we just clear up the question raised by my learned friend in regard to the fact that Exhibit 10 mentions certain articles as being in the care of Johnson and certain articles in the care of Giesbrecht, were all these goods stored on the same property?

A These were all in my own house.

Q Can you explain to his Honour why some are shown as being in the care of one person and some in the care of another? A I asked Johnson to keep watch over my house but I don't know why Giesbrecht's name is there at all.

Q Do you know Giesbrecht? A I don't know him at all.

MR. CHERNIAK: Perhaps my learned friend can tell us who he is?

MR. FERG: The property was leased to a Mrs. C. Giesbrecht.

MR. CHERNIAK: By the Custodian?

10 MR. FERG: Apparently so. I must say, Your Honour, that this file is not one of the best we have and all the records show is that Mrs. Giesbrecht leased the property at $7.00 a month payable as of the 23rd of June, 1942.

MR. CHERNIAK:

Q Where were you on the 23rd of June Mr. Oikawa?

A At the Road Camp at Three Valley.

Q Did you rent the property to Mrs. Giesbrecht?

A I don't knowGiesbrecht, I lent it to Johnson

20 Q Can you refer me Mr. Oikawa, referring to Exhibit 10, whether, in your recollection, the goods under the name of Johnson were stored in a separate space than the goods under the name of Giesbrecht, or in the same general space?

A The items here under Johnson were put in the net house and theothers were in my house.

Q Now Mr. Oikawa, my learned friend asked you if you had given a list of the nets to the Custodian and you answered 'No', do you remember ever

30 having received a request for a list of nets from the Custodian? A I received a letter from the Custodian asking where the nets were but I didn't reply to it.

Q I show you a form witness, is that your signature?

A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: I tender this as an Exhibit Your Honour it is the J.P.Form.

(J.P.FORM, EXHIBIT 13.)

MR. CHERNIAK: And I would like to point out to Your Honour that the list of personal property owned includes two sets of fishing nets and one box of fishing equipment stored at R.R. #1 New Westminster, B.C..

Q Was that your address, R.R. #1, New Westminster, B.C.? A Yes.

Q Do you remember what you meant by two sets of nets?

A I don't remember that.

Q Do you remember saying two sets?

A I don't remember saying anything of that sort.

Q Witness, do you have a photograph of that house taken sometime ago? A Yes.

Q Have you it with you? A Yes.

Q You produce a photograph of several buildings and a boat, can you identify these buildings?

A This was the house where I was living.

Q Is that the house that has been sold by the Custodian as a float house? A Yes.

Q That is the left hand house, painted white with a dark roof? A This is the house that the Custodian sold.

Q Yes, that is the white painted house on the left side of the picture? A Yes.

Q And what is theother building that is shown there?

A I wasn't using that house.

Q And that is the net house that we have been referring to? A No, I made the net house separately.

Q When was this photograph taken?

A 1931 when I bought the house.

10 Q And you bought it from your father?

A Yes.

Q And this is before it was placed on the float?

A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: I tender this photograph as Exhibit 14 Your Honour, it was not a float house at that time.

(PHOTOGRAPH, EXHIBIT 14.)

THE COMMISSIONER: It is on floats now?

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour, I just thought it

20 would be worth while to show any change in the house, if any, in that period of time.

MR. FERG: Could I just ask one question, Your Honour?

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. FERG:

Q Did you seel any equipment or fish nets before you were evacuated or after?

A I sold one net before I was evacuated.

Q Did you give any nets away to anybody?

30 A No, I didn't have time.

Q Now just for assistance here, how long have you been a fisherman? A From 1923 onwards.

Q How long in your experience have you found a fish net to last? A We don't use the same net every year, the size of the fish changes and therefore you use different sized mesh nets.

Q Well, assuming that and whatever your practice is, what is the average life of a fish net of the type you are claiming for?

10 A About three years.

Comments re Appraiser's report not covered by above information: I bought this property as part of 7 lots purchased by a group of fishermen, and for that reason we bought it cheaply. At date of evacuation land of this nature in our neighborhood was selling for $300.00 per acre. I believe that the fair market value of the land at date of sale was at least $500.00.

Farm Appraisal Report

JL-635 - T. OIKAWA

Remarks: Property situated on Fraser River frontage. Agriculturally alone it is very limited. Combined with sufficient surrounding Jap land it could be turned into a farm unit. However, certain types of buyers who wished a subsistence home to work out from especially fishing would take this place.

The soil generally is excellent and the uncleared portion could easily be cleared up. Real peat doesn't exist on the place and the peat in the surface soil at the back is decomposed sufficiently for most crops.

There are no buildings on the place. There is no small fruit. Electric light passes the door. Buildings on shore line of property are as on sheet 1 of this report but as they are on floats while they are said to belong to this owner are not legally part of the property.

(FOR ORCHARD LANDS ONLY)

REMARKS: re general lie of land, fertility of soil, irrigation, drainage or dyking and reclamation.

Claimant requested shipment of 2 boxes & 5 ctns of Books and 1 bed on 29 July 1943.
PGE Rly Bill of Lading notes shipment 13 Jan 44 of the following items:

1 crated Bed complete
1 tub and contents
1 bdle axes
2 box Effects

R.M. Anderson (Cstdn Field Rep.) has noted on the bottom of BC Sec Comm letter of 14 Dec 43 "Shipment made some time ago by me. R.M.A."

Claimant was written to on 3 Oct 45 by Cstdn to ascertain just what was received by Claimant in the shipment of 13 Jan 44. His reply of 19 Jan 46 does not throw any light on the subject as he merely enclosed his copy of the Bill of Lading. The Cstdn did not pursue the investigation, and while Claimant has not entered a claim for the bed, he has entered a claim for books to the value of $510.50 (See (X) this sheet).

All items other than those shipped 13 Jan 44 appear to have been abandoned by the Custodian, no storage removal lists being evident nor sales slips etc being reflected in Claimant's account.
