Home-work

Guidance There is undoubtedly a new and improved attitude in the school;

Health Programme The subject is taught with the idea of personal welfare.

Social Organization and Student Participation The student body is organized for athletics and general school purposes.

Music

Remarks Dramatics, I believe, would help these students in personality development. It would be guidance of a fine quality.

I think a Canadian French weekly would be valuable in the library and would be very stimulating and even encouraging to the pupils. They will recognize their progress and success which is important.

NOTES

1. The reading of news items gave reading opportunities that are evidently needed. It is also a chance to evaluate items of interest and importance. Only one, a Japanese, seemed to be following the "World Series".

2. The diagrams on the Blackboard indicate progress in General Science and other subjects. Directed study is provided for also in these Blackboard items.

3. The forthcoming debate on "Agrarian Revolution" should prove a means of growth and class-room participation of pupils.

4. The presence of 4 Japanese is all to the good. There seemed to be no hesitancy to speak of war problems. There seemed a willingness on the part of the Japanese to cooperate in the discussions. The pupils showed a keeness.

5. The teacher's direction to the best sources in the library indicates the studious activity expected.

6. ~~Conventional~~ Conversational French conducted by the teacher brought good response.

7. This above all, the quiet and diligent way the pupils attended to studies was new to me in their school.

8. I think a few more (not many) Japanese students, carefully chosen, would improve further the school.
