MR. OUIMET: This claim, my lord, was made originally for a total of $2,245.00 for personal chattels. It is submitted that it should be amended to read original claim $3,370.00 less amount for which it was sold by Custodian, $1,485.35, leaving a net claim of $1,864.65, instead of $2,245.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: You mean $1,884.65.

MR. OUIMET: Instead of $2,245.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: May I have the claim form?

10

TOMOKAZU YAMAMOTO, the claimant herein, being firstduly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. OUIMET:

Q Mr. Yamamoto, you are the claimant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q Will you speak louder? A: Yes, sir.

Q Did you say you were? A: I am.

Q Would you take communication of a personal chattels claim in the sum of $1,884.65, bearing your signature, identify this claim and your signature, and file it as Exhibit 1?

20

A Yes. That is my signature.

Q That is your claim, as well? A: Yes.

Q To this claim is attached an inventory of chattels of hardware store and sheet metal shop. Who prepared that and under whose guidance?

A I prepared that; under my guidance.

Q You, yourself, prepared it?

A Yes, sir.

30 Q And you swear it is correct? A: To the best of my knowledge.

Q And it is attached to your claim, No. 1, and you are filingit with your claim?

A That is right.

Q As part of it? A: Yes, sir.

(PARTICULARS OF PERSONAL CHATTELS, INVENTORY OF CHATTELS OF HARDWARE STORE & SHEETMETAL SHOP, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q Do I understand that you had that sheet metal business? A: Yes, sir.

10 Q And that consists of the personal chattels which you are now claiming, which were transferred from the business place to your home?

A Yes, sir.

Q For what purpose were they transferred there?

A For storage.

Q Storage? A: Yes, sir.

MR. OUIMET: I would ask my friend to tender the analysis of personal property claim. I do not know whether he has a different one from the one I have, but the 20 one I have mentions both Mr. Tomokazu's claim and Mrs. Tsude Yamamoto's claim, his mother. It is the next claim to be heard.

THE COMMISSIONER: It is the same.

MR. HUNTER: It is the same. I tender this analysis of personal property claim as Exhibit 2.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. OUIMET: Q: Were you living at your mother's place at the time? A: That is right.

30 Q And it was the address given in your claim?

A No. The place of storage was downstairs, whereas we lived upstairs so the addresses would be different.

Q What would be the address of the place of storage?

A 240 Main.

Q And what would be the address of the place you lived? A: 242 Main.

Q And the address of the establishment?

A 248 Main.

10 Q Vancouver? A: Yes, sir.

MR. OUIMET: No more questions, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: This was all summarized on the mother's file and I will have to start doing a little digging here.

It is submitted that the tools and equipment were sold for their fair market values.

It is submitted that the vehicle was sold for its fair market value.

It is submitted that the radio was sold for 20 its fair market value.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is there any claim for a radio by this claimant? Oh, yes; I see it.

MR. HUNTER: So far as the vehicle is concerned, I would tender the R.C.M.P. vehicle receipt showing a 1938 Ford Sedan, mileage 36,500, condition appears good, left rear fender small dent, extra equipment, none. It is dated March 11, 1942.

(R.C.M.P. EXHIBIT REPORT, MARKED EXHIBIT 3).

This was apparently appraised twice, once at 30 $370.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Which is that -- the car ?

MR. HUNTER: The vehicle, my lord. I do not know who made that appraisal. There is an extract from the appraisal by Consolidated Motor Company Ltd., covering a large number of vehicles in which they give the net appraisal at $251.00. The way they arrive at that is that they show the approximate Government price ceiling $673.50 and then show the retail selling price less $595.00, less selling commission of 20%, $119.00, estimated reconditioning cost, including new battery and 1943 licence plates $225.00, net balance to Custodian $251.00.

It was sold for $296.00 on April 7, 1942, to Cyril T. Pitt. I cannot quite understand these two appraisals. I must confess I will have to find out more about it in order to give anything very intelligent on it, my lord.

The radio, which was a Westinghouse radio, No. 140797, was appraised at $55.00 and your Lordship will see that it sold for $85.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: When did the sale take place?

MR. HUNTER: On January 27, 1944.

THE COMMISSIONER: Any information in regard to the ceiling?

MR. OUIMET: $79.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: I am talking about the radio.

MR. OUIMET: It says ceiling price, $79.00, in your form.

MR HUNTER: Yes. It is shown on Exhibit 2 that the ceiling price was $79.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Sold at $85.00.

MR. HUNTER: Sold at $85.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: I presume you will lay a charge against the Custodian?

MR. HUNTER: I do not think that is my task; I think it is more your task, my lord.

There is another matter involved. I see here in connection with this vehicle that there is a copy of an offer to purchase the vehicle by Southard Motor Company Limited made July 25, 1942, for $308.00. I do not know quite how there could be such an offer when it was sold in April, unless it was just taken from a long catalogue list.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps that can be cleared up later.

MR. HUNTER: The discrepancy, of course, is only $12.00 between the accepted offer and this offer. Your Lordship will have seen from Exhibit 2 that there is not very much missing or not found.

The double seamer for bottoms was declared and not found.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q What is a double seamer for bottoms?

A It is all sheetmetal machinery. It is very hard to describe unless I give you a picture.

MR. OUIMET: What kind of bottoms?

THE WITNESS: When you insert a bottom on any receptacle, it is what is used to clinch in your joint. It is what is called a double seamer. You cannot explain it very easily unless you have a drawing or something.

MR. HUNTER: Where was it left?

A At 240 Main Street.

Q With all the other stuff? A: With everything else.

Q Have you any suggestion as to why that would be missing and not the rest?

A I really cannot say.

Q Would they be likely to be missing because of the name or not knowing what it was?

A They might have. When we moved it we had to separate it. It was in one unit but we could take it apart into 2 or 3 pieces. It was too heavy to be moved alone so we had to take it apart, so that a person not knowing the machinery may have thought one piece was one unit and disposed of it in that manner. I do not know, but a person not familiar with equipment would not know what it was for.

MR. HUNTER: The other discrepancy is in value. He is claiming $400.00 for certain things for which we got $205. and $300. respectively.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Hunter, when was this sale made?

MR. HUNTER: The auction sales?

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, in 1944.

MR. HUNTER: The radio, June 27, 1944. I do not seem to have the other auction sheets here.

THE COMMISSIONER: The only reason I have for inquiring is that if a cash register were sold in 1944 undoubtedly there would have been a ceiling.

It may have been sold before the ceilings were applied.

MR. HUNTER: I would not think so. There was very little sold in the way of chattels in 1943, as your Lordship knows; practically all were sold in 1944 or later.

THE COMMISSIONER: There seems to be a marked discrepancy between the amounts claimed for some of these articles and the amounts realized on auction sale, which may be another instance of goods being sold by auction which might better have been sold by tender. However, that is a matter in respect of which we will hear from the Custodian later.

MR. OUIMET: Yes, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: Yes. This cash register was 12 years old at the time of evacuation and it would be 14 years old at the time of sale. The safe would be 19 years old. They are not very new things.

It is really a matter of argument, my lord, but a certain amount of obsolescence crept in with respect to those things.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes; in anything 10 or 12 years old there would be. However, I agree with you it is a matter of argument. We cannot get much help here on it.

Any cross-examination of Mr. Yamamoto?

MR. HUNTER: No, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Any re-examination?

MR. OUIMET: Q: When had you had a new motor and clutch put in the car?

A That was in 1941. The car was completely overhauled, motor, transmission and rear end so I see no reason why they should have a repair bill for two hundred and some odd dollars on it. It was in top shape.

MR. CUIMET: The R.C.M.P. report says it appears to be in good shape.

Furthermore, in the inventory of chattels of hardware store and sheet metal shop which also mentions the Ford de-luxe coach, it is mentioned by the claimant that new motor and clutch were put in, in 1941, for a sum of $110.00. The price paid for the Ford car was $595.00 which would make a total of $705. for the car and the claimant is only claiming $500.00.

Q Is there anything else you wish to add?

A I would like to add in regard to my equipment, as to obsolescence, I believe you people are not familiar with sheetmetal equipment but basically the designs do not alter; ten, twenty years ago the present day designs are still basically the same. In regard to obsolescence, such articles as radios and car may age and go out of fashion, but it is not so with sheetmetal equipment; the equipment is not intended for high speed work; it is not production work; so, whether it is 50 years old it is equipment which can be valued with very little depreciation from the principal sum paid. I wish you would understand that.

Q Do you believe that it may have been sold at a greater profit had it been sold by tender rather than auction? A: I do not know just what sale by tender would be?

Q Asking for tenders from different people who were in the trade and who would know something about it. A: Yes; I imagine you would, especially such items as a 36 inch double seamer.

10 Q $12.00 received. A: I am sure you would have got much more than that.

Q It was originally priced at $100.00. There is an electric drill which was valued at $50. and yielded only $3.40. A: That is ridiculous. May I ask the Government counsel to explain what he means when he says "fair market value"?

THE COMMISSIONER: That is simply what I would have to pass upon. It is a matter for a lawyer to determine. These gentlemen will probably be worrying me a good 20 deal with their argument on that question.

THE WITNESS: Because I certainly cannot see the interpretation of that term as Mr. Hunter applies it.

MR. OUIMET: Q: Forty feet of shelving, ladder and track, valued at $85.00, sold for $1.00. That was shelving for stock? A: Hardware stock kept in the store. It consisted of steel tracks running along the top end of the shelf and a hardwood ladder running along the runway on the shelving.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Q: It would be necessary to take it down? A: No. It was already down. It was removed from its original installation.

MR. OUIMET: Q: And had been stored in your house?

A Yes.

Q As to Hinkle knives, what are they?

A They are knives of all description put out by J.A. Hinkle & Sons in Germany. They were awfully high priced, but they were demanded by cooks, butchers and fishermen, people in those trades, because they 10 were the only knives that withstood the requirements of them in their service. They were not available at that time.

THE COMMISSIONER: Who was your wholesale house in Vancouver? A: We dealt with Marshall Wells, Mac & Mac, Wilkinson Crane Limited.

Q You dealt to some extent with Wilkinson & Company Limited? A: Pardon, sir?

Q You got some of your materials, sheetmetals, and so on from Wilkinson? A: Yes.

20 Q And had done so for how long before your evacuation? A: Oh, since around 1925, I imagine.

Q Up until evacuation? A: Yes, sir.

MR. OUIMET: Q: You did not start the hardware store?

A No; I merely took it over. I was in it when the war came along.

Q You took it over from whom?

A My brother was running it.

Q But it was your own store? A: Yes, sir.

30 Q When the war broke out?

A That is right.

Q Thank you.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is all, thank you, Mr. Yamamoto.
