(Sections 12, 13, 31, 32.)

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA -- IN PROBATE.

In the Matter of the Estate of YAICHI OYE, deceased.

I, SAMUEL ALFRED MOORE, of the Court House, in the City of Vancouver in the Province of British Columbia, Official Administrator for the County of Vancouver,

, make oath and say:—

That I am the applicant for letters of Administration / under Section 25 to the estate of Yaichi Oye, who died on or about the 20th day of September, 1945, domiciled in the County of Vancouver.

That I have caused application to be made in the office of the Registrar of the above-named Court that letters of Administration under Sec. 25 be granted to the estate of the said deceased by the said Court.

That I have made full, careful, and searching inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining what real and personal property and effects the said deceased was possessed of, or entitled to, at the time of his death, together with the market value thereof respectively.

That I have, according to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, set forth in the Inventory hereby exhibited, marked "X," a full, true, and particular account of all the real and personal estate of the said deceased, or of which the said deceased was possessed, or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, and of all other property, income, and interests required by the form of the said Inventory to be set forth therein, together with the market value as at the date of death of each and every asset forming part of the said real and personal estate and of the other property, income, and interests particularized in the said Inventory. The said Inventory includes all real and personal estate over which the deceased had a general or limited power of appointment. The gross value of the said estate, property, income, and interests as at date of deceased's death was $ 167.96

That I have included in said Inventory every security, debt, and sum of money outstanding due or payable to or standing to the credit of the said deceased at the time of his death, and in estimating the value thereof I have included all the interest due, payable, chargeable, and accruing due thereon up to the death of the said deceased.

That, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory, the said deceased was not, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, at the time of his death possessed of, or entitled to, any debt or sum of money, or any security, pledge, or undertaking for the payment of any money to him on any account whatsoever, or to any leasehold or other personal estate, goods, chattels, or effects in possession or reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That in the said Inventory is included all the property of the said deceased situate outside of this Province, as well as the property situate within the Province.

That, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory, the said deceased was not, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, at the time of his death seised of, or entitled to, any real estate in possession, remainder, and reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not voluntarily transfer by deed, grant, or gift made in contemplation of his death, or made, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after his death, any property or any interest therein, or income therefrom, to any person in trust or otherwise by reason whereof any person is or shall become beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy in or to the said property or income thereof, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not at any time within two years previous to the date of his death transfer by way of donatio mortis causa, or purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, whether by way of transfer, delivery, declaration of trust or otherwise, any property whatsoever, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not at any time previous to the date of his death transfer any property of which property the bona fide possession was not assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift, and thenceforth retained to the entire exclusion of the donor or any benefit to him by contract or otherwise, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not transfer or cause to be transferred to or vested in him self and any person jointly any property to which he was absolutely entitled by purchase or investment, or in any other manner whatsoever, so that the beneficial interest therein or in some part thereof passed or accrued by survivorship on his death to such other person, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased was not at the time of his death a party to any past or future settlement, including any trust, whether expressed in writing or otherwise, whether made for valuable consideration or not, as between the settlor and any other person, and not taking effect as a will whereby an interest in such property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof for life, or any other period determinable by reference to death, was reserved expressly or by implication to the deceased, or whereby the deceased reserved to him self the right by the exercise of any power to restore to him self, or to reclaim the absolute interest in such property or the proceeds of the sale thereof, or otherwise resettle the same or any part thereof, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That I have in the Inventories, respectively marked "X" and "Y," hereto annexed, set forth the assets, debts, and liabilities of the deceased and the names of the several persons to whom the property of the said deceased will pass, the degree of relationship (if any) in which they stand to the deceased, their places of domicile and residence and their addresses so far as I can ascertain them, and the nature and value of the property passing to each of these persons respectively.
