(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Kamloops, B.C.

May 18, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

YOJIRO KONDO

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

R.W. KENNEDY, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.G. HUMPHREYS: Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

J.R. COLLEY, Esq.,	Secretary to Kamloops Sub-Commission
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I would move to amend the claim of Yojiro Kondo.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is No. 69. You are appearing in that case, are you, Mr. Humphreys?

MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes. That will be case No. 128. Very good. You wish to amend it.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to amend the real estate values. The amount at which the Custodian sold the property and credited it to our account was, on the sheet, $2100.00. We are amending it to $2200.00. We are claiming $3000.00, leaving a loss to us of $800.00.

I would further like to amend the personal property to read, claim for boat $1500.00, fishing gear, $183.75; personal property claim, $1568.64, with a 30% reduction for depreciation and with the exception of two articles which I will mention later, giving a total of $2843.30, the Custodian realized $469.85, and our net loss is $2,373.45.

YOJIRO KONDO, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

Q: I have here a statement made out for real estate other than farm. Did Mr. Kondo have Mr. Verchere draw this form out? A: Yes.

Q: Is this statement correct to the best of your knowledge? A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Has he signed it, Mr. Humphreys?

MR. HUMPHREYS: Q: Did you sign this? A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to file this.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. HUMPHREYS: The details of this statement of real estate are as follows: It is a house situated on 717 Cordova Street, East, Vancouver, B.C. The legal description of the property is Lot 37 Block 51 District Lot 181 Vancouver, B.C. This house is situated in a Japanese area. It has two sections, one with five rooms in the main portion, four rooms in addition to the back of the premises. Type of finish is siding half way up and shingle on the second floor of the building. It is a dwelling house. The size of the lot is 25 feet by 122 feet and it was purchased in July, 1940, the cost price was $2100.00 and various improvements were made. The chimney was repaired at a cost of $15.00. The furnace was repaired at a cost of $50.00. The entire premises were painted within his occupancy at a price of $153.00. It was tarred -- the roof was tarred for $75.00. The interior was decorated, and other sundry repairs at a cost of $150.00. A Japanese bath was installed for $75.00. We are claiming $3000.00.

The premises were well maintained, the interior was redecorated during the two years the claimant was in possession, and while the appraisal is fairly accurate as to facts, the appraisal of $2200.00 appears to be below what he considers to be its fair market value at its date of sale.

I would ask my learned friend to produce the appraisal given by Loewen and Harvey Limited.

(Handed to Mr. Humphreys)

I have here, your honour, a letter from Loewen and Harvey, Limited, Real Estate Agents, Insurance, Mortgages, Real Estate, in the City of Vancouver to the Department of the Secretary of State, Office of the Custodian which gives a description of the house and of the real estate. "The above lot is on the north side of Cordova Street, between Heatley and Hawkes Avenues. . . Cement walks lead to the front and back entrances." It gives a fairly accurate description of the property, and I would like to file this document on behalf of my learned friend.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Will my learned friend admit that the property in question was sold on August 16, 1944 for $2200.00?

MR. KENNEDY: Yes, I will so admit -- August 16.

MR. HUMPHREYS: August, 16, that is right.

MR. KENNEDY: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Will my learned friend also admit that the above mentioned appraisal was done on the 20th of September, 1943?

MR. KENNEDY: Whatever it says in the letter. It speaks for itself, I think.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to point out to your honour that $2200.00 was the valuation as of September, 1943, and the house was sold one year later, approximately, for the value of that appraisal. Real estate values were rising at that time.

Would my learned friend admit that the five rooms known as 717 East Cordova Street were rented continuously for $25.00 per month from the time Mr. Kondo left until the Custodian sold the premises?

MR. KENNEDY: It was apparently leased through the claimant's agent, Mr. A.H. Young, for 27 months at $675.00.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Would my learned friend admit that 717½ East Cordova Street was rented continuously for $15.00 per month?

MR. KENNEDY: The file shows that it was rented -- 717½ Cordova Street was rented at $15.00 per month for a period of 27 months through the claimant's agent and that a total of $405.00 was received in revenue.

MR. HUMPHREYS: The total rental for this period would be about $40.00 per month, giving a value of $480.00 per annum. I would like to point out to your honour that allowing for 5% as a fair return on real property this would raise the value of the property to $9,600.00, which is considerably higher than our claim for $3,000.00.

Next, your honour, I would like to prove this statement concerning the personal property which includes the fishing boat and gear and equipment.

Q: Was this document prepared for you by Mr. Verchere? A: Yes.

Q: Is this statement correct to the best of your knowledge? A: Yes.

Q: Is this your signature? A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to file this statement.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I have before me a statement put in by Yujiro Kondo concerning personal property, fishing vessel, gear and equipment. Attached to this statement is a form giving the details of other gear and equipment. First of all, nets: We have a shrimp net size 30 feet by 27 feet, the mesh is one-quarter inches. It has been used. Its original value was $135.00 and the estimated value at evacuation is $50.00. The boat was the "YK 3". The registered number is New Westminster 2100. It was a motor boat, purchased 1933, new, and the price paid was $1500.00. Considerable maintenance work was done on it. It had copper painting and an over-all painting. Its condition when evacuated was good. It was left with the officer in charge at Bidwell Bay. Estimated value, $1500.00.

Q: Mr. Kondo, when did you surrender the boat to the officer commanding at Bidwell Bay?

A: On the 9th of December, 1941.

Q: Did you later see this boat, "YK 3", registered number N.W. 2100 at New Westminster?

A: Yes, I saw it at New Westminster.

Q: What changes had you noticed in the condition of your boat?

A: I passed quite closely but I couldn't recognize the boat because it was damaged. There was nothing on the boat at all. There were parts of the engine taken away.

Q: You were able to recognize this as having been your boat? A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to describe the other gear on the boat. We have the description in detail of other items left on the boat at the time Mr. Kondo surrendered it to the Officer Commanding, Bidwell Bay.

Q: Were these items on the boat at the time you surrendered it to the Officer Commanding, Bidwell Bay? A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: At the time these articles mentioned here were bought, at the time of the purchase of the boat, they were new, and the estimated values are given herein. The condition of these articles was good, and a total claim is made of $115.25. Also on the boat at this time was 80 gallons of gasoline at a total value of $18.50. "Arrangements made for storage when evacuated:" The things were left on board and turned in with the boat at Bidwell Bay and were locked in the cabin.

Would my learned friend produce two appraisals, one by O.W. Phillipson and another by John Gould in Vancouver as to the condition of this boat?

MR. KENNEDY: That is Mr. Gould's. I haven't actually got the Phillipson appraisal, your honour. I have a document which refers to the Phillipson appraisal. All I can give my learned friend is the reference to it.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I have here a document, which my learned friend has admitted, referring to an appraisl which was done by O.W. Phillipson on behalf of the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee. He gave a valuation as of March, 1942 of $431.00. I would like to file this on behalf of my learned friend.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. HUMPHREYS: I have here a survey report done by John Gould, Marine Surveyor and Appraisor, Vancouver, B.C. He gives a description of the boat and appraises its value as of February, 1943, $350.0 I would like to file this on behalf of my learned friend.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to point out that the first appraisal was done in March, 1942 and this was a considerable time after Mr. Kondo had surrendered his boat to the Officer Commanding at Bidwell Bay. The later report was made practically a year later and the value had dropped from $431.00 to $350.00. I would like to then point out that the boat was sold shortly after this second appraisal for $315.00.

Would my learned friend admit the boat was sold by the Custodian on February 13, 1943?

MR. KENNEDY: I will so admit.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Will my learned friend please advise who was the purchaser of the boat?

MR. KENNEDY: Nelson Brothers Fisheries, Limited, your honour.

MR. HUMPHREYS: I would like to point out, your honour, that a fishing company bought this boat to be used as a fishing vessel.

As to the personal property claim, I have a personal chattels form here.

Q: Was this statement prepared for you by Mr. Verchere? A: Yes.

Q: Is this statement true to the best of your knowledge? A: Yes.

Q: Are these two signatures yours?

A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I have here a personal chattels statement which has been reduced 30% to allow for depreciation on all personal chattels with the exception of a new fish net and some new manilla rope which were left in the house of Mr. Kondo. The details of this statement are; a radio, purchased in 1939 new, price paid was $274.00, condition when evacuated was good, estimated value at the date of evacuation was $274.00 minus 30%; also, he had 1380 feet of manilla rope, purchased in 1940 new, $70.00 was paid, it was still new, it was left in the house and we are claiming $70.00 for this; also there was a fish net purchased in 1940, its condition was new, paid $135.00 for it, its condition when evacuated was new, and we are claiming $135.00; there was a generator motor purchased in 1939 new, the price paid was $50.00, its condition was good, and the estimated value is $50.00 minus 30% depreciation. I also have a list of compass, saws, planes, braces, drills, etc., which were left in the house and which I have listed here. We are claiming that the condition of these goods is good. We are claiming $176.64 minus 30%. Description of Storage of Goods: Left in the house in storage. House rented by solicitor and agent to various tenants.

General description of Chattels not described above: Household furnishings, dishes, bicycle and other household articles were left in storage in the house. These articles were purchased at the time of and after purchase of the house. Their condition was good, and we are claiming $863.00 for these various articles minus 30%, and I have a detailed list of these household goods attached to this exhibit.

Our total claim for personal chattels is $1159.55.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Would my learned friend please produce a series of letters between the Custodian and Mr. Stadeus as to the control of the chattels?

MR. KENNEDY: What letter, specifically, do you want?

MR. HUMPHREYS: It was dated December 7, 1944, from the Custodian to Mr. Stadeus.

(Handed to Mr. Humphreys)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I have here before me a copy of a letter sent by Mr. G.D. Milsom of the Administration Department to Mr. A. Stadeus, who was residing at 717 East Cordova Street, Vancouver, B.C. It gives a statement here as to the control assumed by the Custodian at this time: "Our Protection Department advise us that they are having difficulty obtaining from you 4 chairs, 1 table and 1 large brown bed, the property of Yojiro Kondo. As these chattels are vested in the control and management of the Custodian, we must insist that they be delivered to our Protection Department when they call for same, otherwise it will be necessary for us to place the matter in the hands of our Legal Department to take whatever steps they see fit."

I would like to file this on behalf of my learned friend.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Will my learned friend admit the Custodian assumed control of these chattels at the time of this letter?

MR. KENNEDY: No, I can't admit that. I can only admit what is on the file.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Would my learned friend produce to me Mr. Kondo's letter dated October 22, 1944 giving a list of articles in the house?

MR. KENNEDY: I produce the letter dated October 22, 1944.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I have before me a letter addressed to Mr. Milsom signed by Yojiro Kondo. It gives a detailed list of various articles in the house at the time he evacuated. It is dated October 22, 1944. I would like to file this on behalf of my learned friend.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Would my learned friend please produce the J.P. form? (Handed to Mr. Humphreys)

I have before me a document from the Office of the Custodian, Japanese Section.

Q: Mr. Kondo did you have this document prepared?

A: Yes.

Q: Is it correct to the best of your knowledge?

A: Yes.

Q: Is this your signature? A: Yes.

MR. HUMPHREYS: This is a document giving a statement of property which Mr. Kondo gave to the authorities. I would like to file this.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9)

MR. HUMPHREYS: Will my learned friend admit that five nets were removed from the house and sent to Steveston on January 8, 1945?

MR. KENNEDY: I don't see any reference to that in the personal property summary.

I have a memorandum dated January 10, 1943 with reference to fishing nets. Is that what you are referring to?

MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes. I would like to file that on behalf of my learned friend. There was one of these nets which was new for which we are claiming $135.00.

(MEMORANDUM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 10)

MR. KENNEDY: Your honour, the submission of the Custodian in respect to this claim will be (a) as regards the real estate, that the property was appraised by experienced appraisors and sold for a fair valuation based upon the appraisal report, (b) as regards the fishing boat "YK 3" and such gear as came into the possession of the Custodian, the submission will be that the same was sold at a fair price considering the times and conditions, (c) as regards the personal property, that such of the personal property that came into the hands of the Custodian was disposed of on the basis of fair valuation or otherwise accounted for to the claimant.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. KENNEDY:

Q: Mr. Kondo, prior to the evacuation, did you appoint Mr. A.H. Young your agent to deal with your property at 717 and 717½ Cordova Street?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you give Mr. Young a Power of Attorney to act on your behalf? A: Yes.

Q: And do you know whether or not Mr. Young proceeded to rent those premises to tenants on your behalf? A: Yes.

Q: Do you know the names of the tenants who occupied the place after you left? A: No, I don't know.

Q: Mr. Young would have that information?

A: Yes.

Q: Mr. Kondo, I believe you had all your personal property other than the fishing boat and gear stored at 717 and 717½ Cordova Street, is that right? A: I left it in the basement of 717.

Q: Who was occupying the premises at 717 when you left? A: I don't know the name, but he was a white man.

Q: Was he one of the tenants secured by Mr. Young?

A: Yes, Young would know him.

Q: Did any of your friends have personal property stored at your place on Cordova Street?

A: Yes.

Q: What were their names? A: There were four others, Tanaka, Otsuka, K. Tanaka, and Hatanaka. I don't know what all their initials were.

MR. KENNEDY: Thank you.

MR. HUMPHREYS: Your honour, I would like to point out that Mr. Young, who was the solicitor for Mr. Kondo, had the approval of the Custodian, or was there with the approval of the Custodian.

Would my learned friend admit that rents were submitted to the Custodian for remission to Mr. Kondo, and that the Custodian gave approval to this agency?

MR. KENNEDY: I can't admit that, your honour.

MR. HUMPHREYS: That will be all.

Dear Sir:

Re: Catalogue No. 76, 717 East Cordova Street,
Lot 37, Block 51, District Lot 181.

The above lot is on the North side of Cordova Street, between Heatley and Hawkes Avenues. It is 25 x 122 feet and level with the street, and the 20 foot lane at the back. Cement walks lead to the front and back entrances.

On the front portion of the lot is a bungalow with full basement 45 x 21 feet built in 1926. There is an entrance hall, living room, sliding doors to dining room with fireplace - kitchen with good sink and built in cupboards, two (2) bedrooms with bathroom and toilet separate, and containing full standard plumbing. Foundation and basement floor are cement, coal and wood hot air furnace and laundry tubs. Interior floors and decoration are good. The exterior is narrow siding to floor level and shingle walls above,- with shingle roof which will need attention soon. Paint is in fair condition.

Attached to the above by extending the back porch is a more recent addition containing four (4) rooms, two (2) up and two (2) in the basement. The upper floor contains kitchen with sink, and living room, the two (2) rooms below being used as bedrooms. All walls are finished in "V" joint, and a toilet has been built on the verandah between the two (2) houses. The occupants of the back portion have to use the bathroom of the front house. Foundations are cement. There is a single flu chimney to the ground, and the exterior is in good condition.

In my opinion a fair valuation as at the date of inspection, 20th September, 1943 is $2,200.00.

Yours faithfully,

Loewen and Harvey, Limited.

A. Rout Harvey
Director.

AW/W.

April 26th 1949.

Messrs. Fulton, Morley & Verchere,
Barristers and Solicitors,
Kamloops, B.C.

Dear Sirs, Re claim of Yojiro KONDO - Case #128

The Commissioner directs me to advise you that he expects to conclude Sessions of the Commission during the month of June 1949. Your name is shewn on the Commission's records as Solicitors for the above claimant.

Government Counsel has informed the Commissioner that in answer to the foregoing claim the Government will rely on the documentary evidence which was adduced before the Commission, when each claimant was heard, as well as evidence of general application which has been introduced since September 1948,- the latter being of a general character relating to the administration of the Custodian's office and the conduct of sales of evacuee property by the Custodian. The Government does not propose to adduce other specific evidence relating to your client's claim.

In these circumstances the Commissioner instructs me to ascertain whether or not you desire to present argument in support of the above claim.

Will you kindly advise me on or before May 14th next whether or not it is your wish to present argument. If so, a date will be fixed for the hearing of such argument, subsequent to May 16th next, at Vancouver B.C. Otherwise, the Commissioner proposes to make his recommendations upon the above claim based on the material which is now before the Commission.

Please note that unless advice is received before May 14th next of your desire to present argument, the Commissioner will assume that you do not wish to do so, and will make his recommendations accordingly.

Yours truly,

A. WATSON
Secretary.
