(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B. C.,

February 18th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

KEIZO MORI.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.J. McMASTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,	Secretary.
D.J. HANDFORD, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. McMASTER: No. 48 on the list, my lord, K. Mori.

My lord, in this case I wish to file an amended exhibit. I am afraid this was written with one of these pens that makes six copies and no original, and Mr. Leckie had to finish it off in indelible pencil.

KEIZO MORI, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q Witness, would you be good enough to sign this declaration?

A (Witness complies).

Q How well do you speak English?

A Well, maybe I can speak English all right.

Q You should be able to understand this declaration. I file that, my lord. It is an amended claim.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Mori, you solemnly declare that the information set out in this form, that is here, is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information and belief and you make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act.

Now that means simply this, that if you should be found later not to have told the truth, you may be subject to prosecution for perjury.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: And that is your signature?

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very good.

MR. McMASTER: Q; Witness, you were a fisherman before you were evacuated from the Coast?

A Yes.

Q Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to draw this statement with regard to your claim for fishing nets and gear?

A Yes, sir.

Q Would you be good enough to sign it, please?

A (Witness complies).

Q And the list referred to in that statement is the one that I now produce to you?

A Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I file the statement and the list, my lord, as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT & LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

Q How long have you been a fisherman?

A Seven years.

Q And in the course of that time, have you had occasion to purchase fishing nets and fishing gear?

A Yes.

Q And were you at the time of your evacuation familiar with the current prices for new and used fishing gear and nets?

A Well, I know, I buy from the store and cannery and I get the statement and receipts.

Q Did you just buy new nets and gear?

A Yes, everyyear.

Q No used nets? A: No.

MR. McMASTER: I think, if I am not mistaken, my lord, that thislist that is annexed fully corresponds with the list attached to the analysis of property claim with regard to nets.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. McMASTER:. Q: Witness, did you also instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare a statement with regard to the 1929 Willis-Knight sedan automobile with respect to which you are making a claim?

A Yes.

Q Is this the statement and did you give him the information? A: Yes.

Q Would you be good enough to sign it?

A (Witness complies).

Q Are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A Yes.

MR. McMASTER: This is the statement with regard to the Willis-Knight automobile and is Exhibit 2.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. McMASTER: Q: Witness, I see by this statement that you purchased this car in June, 1928, is that correct? A: Yes, I did.

Q And it was new when you got it them?

A Yes.

Q And you operated it up until the time it was delivered to the R.C.M.P.?

A I didn't deliver it to the R.C.M.P.

Q I am sorry, it was left with S. Leslie.

A Leslie.

Q Do you know what he did with it?

A Well he says keep care and in good condition until any time I want it.

Q When did you hand it to him?

A March 9th, 1942.

Q Did you transfer the title to him?

A Yes, same day.

Q Yes. Were you aware of the Government regulations with regard to automobiles owned by Japanese at that time?

A No.

Q Why did you transfer it to him then?

A Well, he is my good friend and he says keep in care and good condition until I come back.

Q When were you evacuated?

A I evacuate first sixteenth April, 1942.

Q Where did you purchase these four new tires?

A When did you say?

Q Where? A: Two at the Monk Garage, Steveston.

Q Monk? A: Yes. M-o-n-k.

Q Yes. A: And two tires, Bosbie's Garage, Mission, B. C.

Q Were you advised by the Custodian that he had taken possession of the car and sold it in September, 1944?

A The Custodian wrote letter to me about 1946 last year.

Q Yes, that is when he told you?

A Yes.

Q Now did you ask Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement with regard to your other personal chattels with respect to which you are claiming?

A Yes.

Q Would you be good enough to sign it, please?

A (Witness complies).

Q Are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge andrecollection?

A Yes.

MR. McMASTER: My lord, I will file this. This is a statement with regard to chattels other than nets or the car.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. McMASTER: I draw attention to the comments, my lord. Ithink that is all.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: Apparently the radios were left with Mr. Tom Leslie at Steveston and subsequently came into the hands of the Custodian.

MR. HUNTER: I beg your pardon?

MR. McMASTER: Apparently the radio -- I guess there is only one.

THE WITNESS: Two radios.

MR. McMASTER: Two radios were left in the hands of Tom Leslie and subsequently came into the hands of the Custodian.

MR. HUNTER: That is not a correct statement. We don't admit that.

MR. McMASTER: One of them did.

MR. HUNTER: We don't admit that.

MR. McMASTER: Did you not sell one of the man's radios?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, but he has identified it as not one of his.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, go ahead and put in your own case and we will hear what counsel says and you will have an opportunity to recall him.

MR. McMASTER: He says they re-sold it for $8.50, $7.03 net which he refused to accept and returned his cheque. "The other goods above and all chattels for whihh I am making no claim, were left in warehouses No. S-1 and 2 of the Canadian Pacific Cannery Company, Steveston, B.C., and I so declared in my J.P. Form. The Custodian sent me a typed list of all these goods in December, 1942, which list I signed and returned to him".

THE COMMISSIONER: I take it that the radios were not disclosed in the J.P. Form?

MR. HUNTER: No, my lord.

MR. McMASTER: That is correct, my lord, and it is admitted, my lord, that the radios were handed to Tom Leslie, contrary to the regulations.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: The claimant states that the Custodian -- that the radio the Custodian sold was a Majestic battery set (long-wave, low-boy style radio) as described above. He has a letter, my lord, -- I can see in this case I will have to call Mr. Leslie -- he has a letter to the effect that the Custodian came and took the man's radio away.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, you will have to call him.

MR. McMASTER: I can see I will have to call him on that, my lord. Your witness.

MR. HUNTER: It is submitted, my lord, that the fishing nets were sold for their fair market value.

THE COMMISSIONER: That includes gear?

MR. HUNTER: I beg your pardon, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Nets and gear, all articles shown on Exhibit 1, is that what you refer to?

MR. HUNTER: Correct, my lord.

It is submitted that the motor vehicle was sold for its fair market value. It is further submitted, in connection with that, that it was undeclared.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well the only significance that would attach to that would be this, wouldn't it: Any deterioration that took place between the time when he should have declared it and the time it was sold would be for the account of the claimant.

MR. HUNTER: That was the very point I was just going to make, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: The individual items, my lord, I shall go over individually. The radio which was sold and credited to the claimant is apparently not his.

MR. McMASTER: I see on the claims analysis he is credited and there is no such suggestion there.

MR. HUNTER: It is in your own form here where he denies it is his.

THE COMMISSIONER: What it comes down to, Mr. McMaster, as I understand it, is that the Custodian says that the battery radio that they sold was this man's and he says no, he didn't have a battery radio.

MR. McMASTER:. He says, my lord, it is a mis-description of the radio.

MR. HUNTER: I beg your pardon?

MR. McMASTER: He says it is a mis-description of the radio.

THE COMMISSIONER: Of course he can't tell what was sold because he doesn't know, but what he does say is that he never did have a battery radio; isn't that right?

Q You say you never had one?

A No.

Q Yours was a tube radio? A: Tube radio.

MR. HUNTER: It will be submitted later that the claimant only left one radio with Mr. Leslie, after that, the only one he left with them was the Majestic.

THE COMMISSIONER: Majestic battery, is that it?

MR. HUNTER: That is the one which we will submit was turned over to us by Mr. Leslie, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: I should like to file an analysis of personal property claim, my lord.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. HUNTER: If I might go over Exhibit 3 with Exhibit 4, my lord, I think we could clear up the items claimed for very quickly insofar as what happened to them.

THE COMMISSIONER: How long will you be, Mr. Hunter; it is half-past four.

MR. HUNTER: There are 11 items, my lord, and it will only take a moment.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

MR. HUNTER: The first item is the radio whihh is in dispute, I am talking about the items on Exhibit 3, my lord, that is the personal property statement -- no, my lord, the detail, the personal property, detailed statement. I think it was in front of you. I think that is it right there.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, that is right.

MR. HUNTER: And, subject to the confusion about identity, the one which we had sold for $8.50 , as is shown on page 2 of the analysis, The second item, the Stromberg Carlson, again on page 2, it is shown as never found by the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: Item 3,which is 4 rolls of linoleum, will be seen on page 1 of the analysis. 2 rolls were found and then they were lost.

Item 4, 10 kitchen chairs, will be seen on page 1 of the analysis, 11 of those were sold for $5.75.

THE COMMISSIONER: Eleven out of 10.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord, they multiplied.

It will be seen that one heater stove, which is item 5 on Exhibit 3, was sold for $5.25 on page 1 of the analysis.

One cabinet, item 6 on Exhibit 3, was missing. It was found, inventoried and then lost.

Two rocking chairs, item 7, were sold for $5.50, as shown on page 1 of the analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: Those are the two rocking chairs?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

Item 8, two chesterfields, Those were not declared and were not found.

Item 9, one dresser and mirror, was sold on page 1 of the analysis for $2.00.

One mirror, item 10, was found, inventoried and then lost. It was also undeclared. However, that is negligible because we did find it.

Item 11, the last item on Exhibit 3, one pedestal table -- a number of tables were declared and it is impossible to ascertain from the analysis just what table this was or what it sold for, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is that the whole story?

MR. HUNTER: That is the whole story as far as those chattels claimed for there are concerned.

As far as the fishing nets and equipment were concerned, it will be seen from the analysis, my lord, that they were found and they were sold. There are three columns there, the claimant's value, there is an appraised value of those where we had them appraised, and the sale price at which they were actually sold.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see.

MR. HUNTER: So that it is just a question of value there.

THE COMMISSIONER: The fair market value?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, there is no question of missing items there, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Mr. Mori, you knew that you were supposed to hand this vehicle and these radios over to the R.C.M.P.?

A Yes, I knew.

Q I see. And you just chose to try and get around the law, is that all?

A Well, they say they keep my radio until any time as I come back.

Q Yes. You just didn't choose to obey the law, isn't that the fact?

THE COMMISSIONER: He tried and he got caught, Mr. Hunter, that is all.

MR. HUNTER: Yes. You have committed the worst crime of all, that of being caught.

That is all, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Any re-examination?

MR. McMASTER: I would like you to give me the J.P. Form, please.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q Witness, is this your signature on this J.P. Form?

A Yes, sir.

MR. McMASTER: Might I ask to file that? It is a J.P. Form, dated April 2nd, 1942.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

Q Whereabouts did you sign that, witness, do you recall?

A In the Japanese Hall, I think.

Q Whereabouts? A: At Steveston.

Q Yes. Do you remember giving the details of information for that form to some person who typed it in -- well, I will shorten it.

A A white man.

Q There was a white man there? A: Yes.

Q And did you give him certain details and he typed it or caused it to be typed on this form, and then you were asked to sign the form?

A Yes.

Q What details were you asked to tell him about the things you were going to leave at Imperial Cannery, Steveston? A: Well, I tell him my net and some old stuff leave in house No.1 and then No. 2.

Q Did he ask you to give him the specific and full inventory of the things that you were going to leave behind? A: Yes, I leave it to the cannery.

Q I am sorry. Those were of the nets, you left a full inventory of those with the cannery?

A Yes.

Q But at the time you signed this J.P. Form, and the man asked you, "What things are you going to leave?"-- forget about the nets -- of your furniture and that sort of thing, did he ask you to sit down and make out a full inventory of all those things?

A No, no.

Q What did he ask you to do?

A Well, just what kind net, and just kitchen stuff, and other furniture, that is all he asked of me.

Q Yes. Well now, did you, in fact, leave there all of the things which appear in the list of personal chattels? A: Yes.

Q Exhibit No. --

THE SECRETARY: 3, the fishing gear is Exhibit No. 1; 2, chattels; andthere is 3.

MR. HUNTER:. 2, the vehicle, 3 is the chattels.

THE SECRETARY: Yes, that is right.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Were all the things that are listed in Exhibit No. 3 in fact left by you as you have shown in this statement? A: Yes, because Custodian should know, because he sent me the list of the chattels after I evacuate, after they move my chattels, all my chattels, Custodian move to the warehouse No. 4, Steveston, from my house.

Q Now, I produce to you a list. Is this your signature on this list? A: Yes.

Q And was that list sent to you by the Custodian?

A Yes.

Q And were you asked to sign and return one copy of that to their office? A: I signed it but I wasn't satisfied with this chattel because is many things lost, and I wrote a letter which sent back this.

Q You wrote a letter with it. Now at the time you signed it, was all this pencil writing and ink writing, that is all over that, on that document?

A No, sir.

MR. McMASTER: Might I ask the Custodian to produce the letter that this man wrote concerning this list?

THE WITNESS: Just a gramophone.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Didyou write a letter?

A Let me see. Oh yes, thiss my handwriting.

Q What about up above here? Is that ink writing yours? A: One large tin box missing, and one large heater, big stove.

Q That was in your handwriting?

A Yes.

Q So that all of the ink handwriting that appears on there is your handwriting, is that right?

A Yes.

Q That pencil writing isn't yours?

A No.

Q Did you cross out of that list, "One mattress and 2 chesterfields and 1 gramophone"? Did you cross those out? A: No, I cross out maybe this much--no. I cross out this gramophone, tell about this gramophone by my letter.

Q Yes. Well, have you got the letter, Mr. Shears?

MR. HUNTER: What would be the date of the letter, approximately?

MR. McMASTER: Well I would say -- this was signed December 5th, 1942, so that I would presume it would be shortly thereafter.

THE COMMISSIONER: You had better put that letter in, now that you are examining on it.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, my lord. Well you mean the inventory by itself, before I refer to the letter?

THE COMMISSIONER: I think it is safer. It may be forgotten.

MR. McMASTER: Yes.

(INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

THE COMMISSIONER: That is the Custodian's list.

MR. McMASTER: That is correct, my lord.

Q Now, witness, I produce to you a letter addressed to the Custodian's office, dated December 5th, 1942? A: Yes.

Q Is that your signature on that letter?

A Yes, sir.

MR. McMASTER: I will have that marked as the next exhibit, my lord, and then I want the witness to read it.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

Q Witness, I would like you to read that letter, if you would, please, Exhibit No. 7?

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps you can do it more quickly and we would understand it better.

MR. McMASTER: Oh yes, I forgot.

It is addressed to Mr. Green:

"Dear Sir:

"I am thank you for you for removed my chattels to safe storage at your warehouse. I'm not satisfy for this my list of chattels because many things misted in the list, like the large tin box (1) one heater stove, and two desks many other parcels might be without my name on them. I'm wonder who look out our fishing equipment we stored at the cannery nethouse? But I will return to you herewith one copy with my sign. I wish to you please check over again. Also mattress, chesterfield, and gramophone in this list of chattels are not belong to me."

Q Now, do you remember writing that letter?

A Yes.

Q Yes. And in the list which was Exhibit 6 there were two chesterfields referred to. Now, were those chesterfields not your chesterfields?

A I got small chesterfield, you know, that large chesterfield.

Q Well now, -- I am sorry, I am getting into cross-examination, my lord. I have got into something I did not know was here, and I think it is a matter that should be gone into.

THE COMMISSIONER: .Go ahead. Bring it out.

MR. McMASTER: Q: How could you tell from that list, Exhibit No. 7, that those were large chesterfields or small chesterfields?

A Well, my gramophone I left in Mission with my nephew. He has it. Chesterfield we store in same place, my friend's chesterfields, two chesterfields.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: That is with Leslie?

A No, in our warehouse, No. 1 warehouse, Canadian Pacific Cannery.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Did you store the chesterfields in any different place than you stored the rest of your chattels? A: I thought this was my friend say chesterfields.

Q Well now, answer the question that I asked you. Did you store the chesterfields in any different place from where you stored the rest of your chattels? A: I stored my chesterfields in another house, you know.

Q In what house? A: No. 2.

This is No. 1 house.

Q Were all of these goods in No. 1 house that belonged to you? A: Yes.

Q And you say you stored the chesterfields in No. 2 house? A: Yes, No. 2 house.

Q Did you store any other goods in No. 2 house?

A Yes.

Q What other goods did you store in No. 2 house?

A Kitchen equipment.

Q Did you ever advise the Custodian that you stored anything in No. 2 house?

A Yes, I think so.

Q When? A: Well, same time that I say many things missing, that is why please check up.

THE COMMISSIONER: I don't think there is any mention of No. 2 house here. "Cannery net house", is that No. 2?

A We got two house, No. 1, what we call No. 1, and No. 2.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Were any of the other goods with respect to which you are now making a claim stored in No. 2 house? A: I stored the very small thing I keep in No. 2 house, you know.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is no mention of No. 2 house in this Exhibit 7.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Is No. 1 house where you used to live?

THE COMMISSIONER: No, it is a warehouse, isn't it?

A No, formerly live that house.

MR. McMASTER: Q That was a living house for fishermen or cannery workers?

A Yes.

Q Now which house did you live in?

A No number on my house.

Q I see. Well, whose house was No. 1 house?

A How can I explain to you?

Q Whose house was No. 1 house?

A No. 1 house.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: A lot of men lived there, is that right, bunkhouse?

A Not bunkhouse, just one family was in there?

MR. McMASTER: Q: Just one family?

A Yes.

Q Some friends of yours? Why did you store the things im his house? A: Well, the cannery -- Mr. Charley Gillespie told us all keep in here.

Q Yes. A: Because when we keep those stuff in this house, nobody was in the house.

Q Yes. A: Empty house. But in No. 2 house Mrs. Zama was in No. 2 house, but she was in that house so we packed it upstairs.

Q And your statement is that you stored some of your things in No. 2 house included in which were the chesterfields?

A Yes.

MR. McMASTER: That is all, my lord.

Arrangements made for storage when evacuated: all of the fishing gear was tagged and stored in the Canadian Pacific Fish Company net house at Steveston BC

Additional Comments, if any: I took into the Cannery an itemized list with values of the gear shown on attached list about two weeks before my evacuation (April 16/'42). I am well acquainted with the valuation of fishing gear. The estimate of value for the various items which I have set, represents, in my opinion the fair market value, in each instance, for sale purposes.

In 1938 I had body repaired at cost of $75.00
The automobile was equipped with both new tires in 1941 at a cost of approximately 65.00
~~Others~~ - Mileage taken was (approx) 3000 miles

Description of Storage of Goods: Left with a friend of mine, Sh Leslie, to whom I gave title, to hold for me

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above: ~~I was~~

Comments - I was advised by the Custodian in Sept 1944 that he had sold the automobile for $48.07 — while I have no special knowledge as to the value of used cars, I believe that the was very much under a fair market value

Additional Comments, if any: I am of the opinion that the $400 value which I have estimated for the car would represent the market value when sold by the Custodian in May 1944 —

Description of Storage of Goods:

The 2 radios were left with a man from Leslie at his home in Steveston and I not-fied the Custodian about this by letter in 1944. The Custodian sold my Majestic radio for $9.50 (nit 7.93); which I refused to accept and rit credit.

The other goods mentioned above (and all of my other chattels for which I am making no claim) were left in Warehouses #S 1 & 2 of the Canadian Pacific Canning Company at Steveston, BC. and I so declared in my J.P. form.
The Custodian sent me a typed list of all of these goods in Dec 1942, which list I signed & returned to him.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above:

The Custodian claims that the radio he said was a majestic battery set. I never, at any time owned a battery set. My Majestic radio was a tube set, as described above, purchased from Symphony Radio Service in Vancouver in 1929 for $335.00. My Tom Leslie met whom I left it (a my Stromberg-Carlson as well) wrote me on July 7th, 1947 that it was not a battery set but a 3 tube radio which was taken away by the Custodian - this could only have been my Stromberg-Carlson - my Majestic.

Additional Comments, if any:

In valuing my goods listed above, I have deducted
what I believe to be fair amounts, allowing for age + use

Dear Sir:

I'm thank for you for removed my chattels to safe storage at your Warehouse. I'm not satisfy for this my List of Chattels because many things omitted in the list, like the large tin box (1) one heater stove, and two desks many other parcels might be without my name ong them. I'm wounder who look out the our fishing equipment we stored at the cannery net house?

But I will return to you herewith one copy with my sign. I wish to you plese check over again. Also mattress, chesterfield, and gramophone in this list of chattels are not belong to me.

Yours very truly,

Keizo Mori.
