JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION.

B E F O R E

(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B.C.

April 22, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MINORU SARAYAMA

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.J. McMASTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.
T.J. MARRION, Esq.,	Secretary to Vernon Sub-Commission.
MRS. I.C. SMITH	Official Interpreter.
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. McMASTER: I might say, your honour, that this is a case that I arranged with the Secretary to have transferred from Judge Colquhoun's list. The claimant resides in Revelstoke and was in Vernon, and, rather than bring him back next week, I consulted with my learned friend and, subject to your honour's approval, I would like to have his case now.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see, it is one down for Judge Colquhoun. You want to hear it now.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see. That will be case 192.

MR. McMASTER: The name is Sarayama, Minoru.

MINORU SARAYAMA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

THE COMMISSIONER: Does this witness speak English?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, he does.

THE COMMISSIONER: You can sit down, then, Mrs. Smith and we will call on you if you are needed.

MR. McMASTER: In this case, your honour, I would ask for leave to amend the claim by reducing it to $1140.00 as claimed as the value of the goods, less $230.00 for which those goods were sold by the Custodian, making the net claim $910.00.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I don't know if this is quite the time to raise it, but the goods were sold by the Custodian for $547.00.

MR. McMASTER: I think if my friend will check on the goods actually claimed in the revised claim -- a copy of it was given to you -- you will find that corresponding amount is $230.00. In other words, we aren't claiming for all the goods that the Custodian sold. That is subject to my friend's checking. If I am mistaken, I would certainly be pleased to have it corrected.

MR. McTAVISH: What was the credit, again?

MR. McMASTER: $230.00.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement with regard to your chattels, the subject matter of this claim. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement? A: Yes.

Q: Would you be good enough to sign it, please?

A: (Witness complies)

Q: And I produce to you a list of nets and lines. Is that the list referred to in the statement which you just signed? A: Yes.

Q: And did you prepare that list? A: Yes.

Q: And are the values shown at the right-hand side of that list your estimate of the fair sale price of those chattels at the time of your evacuation?

A: Yes.

Q: And are the contents of the statement which I produce to you true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask to file the statement with the list annexed as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT WITH LIST ANNEXED MARKED EXHIBIT 1)

MR. McMASTER: Now, I would ask my learned friend if he is prepared to admit that all of the lines and nets and fishing gear claimed for are shown in Exhibit No. 1 and were, in fact, received by the Custodian and inventoried by the Custodian.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, this is a rather difficult case. According to the information on the file, all the goods listed were received by the Custodian and inventoried by the Custodian, but it later turned out that all the nets and lines with which this claimant was credited -- some of them did not belong to the claimant and they were later credited to somebody else. The original list was sent to the claimant, and I notice that several of the articles on this list are articles which were later credited to somebody else as belonging to them. At no time did the Custodian get from the claimant a complete list of all the nets and fishing gear which he claims for.

MR. McMASTER: Is my friend filing the Claims Analysis?

MR. McTAVISH: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: Before I put that in, would my friend be good enough to produce an inventory of nets and gear which was sent to the claimant and which he was asked to acknowledge were his?

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, the claimant has gone under two names during the course of these proceedings, so I think if my friend would check up his proper name now, we might solve a little difficulty.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Witness, are you known as Minoru Sarayama? A: Yes.

Q: And are you also known as MinoruFuruya?

A: That is before I changed my name.

Q: Yes. When did you change your name?

A: Three years ago, I think.

Q: And for what reason did you change it? I mean, it doesn't matter, but --

A: (No response)

MR. McMASTER: I don't think it is material if you don't want to answer it.

Q: However, you are known by both names, is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q: Now, I produce to you a list from the Custodian's file of nets and lines and gear, fishing gear. It states: "Nets Believed to belong to Minoru Furuya," and it gives your registration number. Now, is that your signature on that list? A: Yes.

Q: And did the nets in that list in fact belong to you?

A: Yes.

Q: And the other gear that is listed there?

A: Yes.

Q: And upon receipt of that memorandum from the Custodian's office, you signed it and sent it back.

A: Yes.

Q: To the Custodian's office. A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would note that it was received by the Custodian on February 17, 1943, as shown, your honour. I would ask to file that.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. McMASTER: Are you putting in the Claims Analysis?

MR. McTAVISH: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: On behalf of my learned friend, I file the Analysis of Personal Property Claim by the Custodian as the next Exhibit.

(CLAIMS ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

I would draw attention to the remarks on that form. It states: December 19, 1942 - a list of nets and lines which we believed to be the property of Minoru Furuya was sent to Takeo Furuya for discussion with his brother Minoru and father, Tomegoro. Some of these nets were not tagged so there was some doubt concerning ownership of these nets."

"February 17, 1943 - list returned by Minoru Furuya signed by him as describing his nets in the protected area (handled on separate claim.)"

Q: Now, in addition to these nets appearing on the list which has just been filed, witness, did you have other nets which you left with A.B.C. Packers?

A: Yes, lines.

Q: Lines and nets? A: Yes.

Q: And those were sold by A.B.C. Packers and the monies paid to you? A: Yes.

Q: And you are not claiming with respect to those nets?

A: No.

Q: The Claims Analysis, which is the last Exhibit filed, shows that on your J.P. form you left Gillnets to the value of $1,000.00 stored with your father Tomegoro at Steveston, B.C. A: Yes.

Q: How do you explain the fact that it states in your J.P. form that the nets left were worth $1,000.00 and you are now claiming -- you did claim in your original claim $2,000.00 and it has now been reduced to $1140.00. How do you explain that you are now claiming more than what appeared in the J.P. form as the value of these nets and lines?

A: Well, my father, I guess he just put the rought estimate, but all these nets belong to me and I mark the price on them.

Q: Now, I produce to you what is called a J.P. form. That is a list of your goods and chattels that you left behind, dated April 10, 1942. Is that your signature on it? A: Yes.

Q: And on the left-hand side of it it says "Gillnets to the value of $1,000.00 stored with father."

A: Yes.

Q: Now did you, when you filled in that J.P. form, sit down and make up a list and put a value on each net and total it up to the thousand dollars, or how did you arrive at $1,000.00 when you filled that form in?

A: Well, I got the list you got from the Custodian. I did have the list, too. And I wrote to the Custodian and got that list. Why, I check it up and it is the same list as we got there. And before that, these nets were left at A.B.C. Packers and it is not in the hands of the Custodian, but after we left, the Custodian took over everything. But before that we didn't report all the things left there at A.B.C. Packers.

Q: But when you declared these nets to be worth $1,000.00 on your J.P. form, did you make a list of the value of each net and total it up, or how did you arrive at $1,000.00?

A: That, I did check it up, but all the lists in here, they are not all the ones that I just put it on; there was some other stuff left with the cannery.

Q: Witness, will you answer the question directly. When you put $1,000.00 as the value of your nets being left behind on your J.P. form, how did you arrive at that $1,000.00?

A: Some of the items left here, I didn't mark on there.

Q: How did you arrive at the thousand dollar figure as being the value of the nets that you left behind?

A: My father, he just put the rough estimate on it.

Q: Now, that is your J.P. form, isn't it?

A: Yes.

Q: How did you come to tell the person that typed that out that the value of those nets was $1,000.00?

A: Why, I just put it roughly.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, I see. I file the J.P. form.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. McMASTER: Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the nets sold were sold for their fair market value. It is further submitted that the prices claimed for the nets and fishing gear not sold are exhorbitant. It is further submitted that the nets and fishing gear were left in the custody of an agent appointed by the claimant who was given power by the claimant to sell the said nets and fishing gear and the Custodian did not interfere with this arrangement.

MR. McMASTER: Didn't he sell some of these nets?

MR. McTAVISH: No.

MR. McMASTER: How come we are credited with $250.00?

MR. McTAVISH: According to the information on my file, your honour, the nets were all sold through this packing company.

MR. McMASTER: I would submit, your honour, that my friend, if he will refer to his file, will find that seven of these nets at least, as indicated on the inventory that has been filed, were sold by the Custodian and the money credited to the claimant.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I will have to check that. I have nothing on that now.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Did you at any time advise the Custodian that you had any nets other than that shown in the list the Custodian sent you? A: No.

Q: Did you have any nets other than those in the list the Custodian sent you? A: Not after I send it over to the Custodian. The Custodian took over.

Q: Did you have any nets other than those after you signed your J.P. form?

THE COMMISSIONER: Do you understand, witness?

MR. McMASTER: Give him the J.P. form. That phrase is very familiar to us, but it is very confusing to our clients.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Did this list, Exhibit 2, contain a complete list of your nets in the protected area?

MR. McMASTER: At what time? At the time of signature?

MR. McTAVISH: At the time of signature.

A: These are nets that the Custodian took over. He took over all the nets, but other lines which I sold to the A.B.C. Packers is not on this list.

Q: Those were not left with the A.B.C. Packers?

A: All these?

Q: Yes.

A: It was left in the A.B.C. Packers net house.

Q: Is that the list, the list shown here in your J.P. form?

MR. McMASTER: There is no list shown there, just nets.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Do they represent the nets shown in your J.P. form? A: Yes.

Q: So the list of nets shown in Exhibit 2 are the nets that you put a value of $1,000.00 on in Exhibit 3?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you admit that certain of the nets shown on Exhibit 2 were sold through the A.B.C. Packers?

MR. McMASTER: Would you show him the exhibit?

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Would you admit that certain of those nets and fishing lines were sold to A.B.C. Packers?

A: Sold to -- ?

Q: Yes. A: Not the list in here.

Q: Not that list? A: No.

Q: I shw you a letter dated July 4, 1943. Is that your signature on the letter? A: Yes.

Q: Did you write that letter? A: Yes.

MR. McTAVISH: I put that in as an exhibit.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend identify the letter?

MR. McTAVISH: Letter from the claimant to the Custodian dated July 4, 1943.

Q: Now, witness, did you receive the monies shown here on the sale of those nets? A: This $100.00?

Q: No, the $404.00. A: Not all of that.

Q: You did not receive all that money?

A: No.

Q: How much of it did you receive?

A: $250.00 and there is $40.00 and ninety-two -- I can't say exactly -- received through the Custodian which I sold to the A.B.C. Packers, which I am not claiming on that list there.

Q: How much money have you received from the Custodian, or from the sale of these nets since you left the protected area?

A: $240.00 and $50.00 I received through the Custodian, and this $40.00 and $92.41 which I received through the Custodian, that is the one I sold to the A.B.C. Packers, not through the Custodian.

Q: Did you receive $65.00 on the sale of nets made in June 3, 1942?

MR. McMASTER: From whom?

MR. McTAVISH: From the Phoenix Cannery.

A: What is the date, did you say?

Q: June 3, 1942? A: That I haven't got on this list.

MR. McMASTER: Does my friend mean through the Custodian or direct from the cannery?

MR. McTAVISH: Direct from the cannery.

Q: Would you deny having received that money from the cannery?

MR. McMASTER: Your honour, I would suggest that the question be put clearly and concisely now. It has been rather mixed a bit.

THE COMMISSIONER: Put the question a little more plainly Mr. McTavish.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Do you deny having received $65.00 from the Phoenix Cannery in June 1942 on the sale of one net?

A: That is the net I sold to the A.B.C. Packers.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: Did you get the $65.00 for it?

A: That I don't remember. I didn't receive it, maybe, but my father did.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: You don't remember if you received it or not. Did you ask the A.B.C. Packers to take care of your nets for you and sell them as occasion arose? A: Yes.

Q: You did. Would you deny having received a total of $547.00 from the sale of nets since you left the protected area? A: What I received is $412.00.

MR. McMASTER: From whom? I think that is a fair part of that question.

MR. McTAVISH: From various sources, Phoenix Cannery, the Custodian, A.B.C. Packers.

A: What I received, it totals here, $412.00.

Q: You admit having received $412.00?

A: And fromthe A.B.C. Packers and the Custodian.

Q: Does that include a sum paid at your request to your father? A: No.

Q: It doesn't include that? A: No.

Q: And does it include the $65.00 I previously mentioned from the Phoenix Cannery? A: No.

MR. McTAVISH: Now, your honour, I would like to refer to the list attached to Exhibit 1. In that list there are certain numbers and I could refer to these numbers and show the price obtained and the sale of the nets shown. Nos 546 and 548 were sold together for a price of $75.00. No. 546E was sold for $7.50. No. 551E was sold for $10.00. No. 553 was sold for $7.50. No. 554 was sold for $100.00. Now the following Nos, 552E, 556E, and 559, were nets which I mentioned before which were later credited to somebody else's account, and according to the Custodian were not the property of the claimant. 549E, 550E, 558E are shown in the Custodian's list as having no value, and No. 549 is "no account." I haven't been able to complete my check on this with the other numbers, but that is just an indication.

That is all, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: Your honour, I would like to register a protest at this point at the claims analysis prepared by the Custodian. It does not disclose any of the information that my learned friend has just given, and while I appreciate that the Custodian is working under difficulties, he obviously had this information in his files, and it would greatly assist these proceedings if that information were disclosed. On the claims analysis he doesn't show what became of these goods that were inventoried at all by the Custodian.

Now, I take it from the list that my friend has read that he admits that certain of these nets were sold by the Custodian, namely, 546, 548 -- I think he referred to -- for $75.00; 546E for $7.50; 551E for $10.00; 553 for $7.50; 554 for $100.00. I did not hear him mention 556. I understand that fifty feet of that 200 foot net was sold for $30.00. Can you confirm that now or would you do so?

MR. McTAVISH: I am not admitting these were sold by the Custodian, I am saying these were sold for those prices. I didn't say who they were sold by. That information was obtained from the file, that I have just given.

MR. McMASTER: Well, surely, your honour, we are entitled to know whether the Custodian says he sold them or didn't sell them. I think I am entitled to ask my friend to either say the Custodian sold them or he didn't sell them, one or the other. How can we establish our claim otherwise?

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I stated at the beginning, according to information I had these nets were sold to the A.B.C. Packers and I undertake, if there were any nets sold by the Custodian, to give that information to claimant's counsel later. I haven't the information now.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, do you have a statement from the Custodian with regard to the monies credited to your account?

A: (Producing)

Q: Now, witness, I produce to you this statement. Did you receive this from the Custodian? Did you receive the statement from the Custodian?

A: Yes.

Q: And the pencil markings on that statement are your own markings, are they?

A: Yes.

Q: Now were you ever aware to whom the nets shown in that statement other than the first cork line, the nets or lines were sold to until you received that statement? Let me put the question this way. Did you know before you received that statement that these nets and lines had been sold? Had anybody ever advised you?

A: (Witness produces document)

Q: I produce to you a letter dated May 29th, 1943. Did you receive that from the Custodian's office?

A: Yes.

Q: And attached was the inventory dated May 29th, 1943, was it, when you received the letter?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that as an Exhibit, your honour. It is a letter from the Custodian's office addressed to the claimant under his name of Minoru Furuya re fishing nets. It refers to a letter written by him and states that they are sending him a cheque for $100.00 and still hold to his credit $234.50 and states: "We shall be able to make further remittances as required by you from time to time."

"We are enclosing herewith a list of your nets sold and unsold as shown by our records at the present time."

Attached thereto is an inventory of nets showing the Custodian's Number, the description of the nets and lines, and the amount for which the same have been sold, and states at the foot: "No record of sales for 547E, 8E, 9E, 50E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, & 8E -- all miscellaneous pieces lines and webs -- possibly have been included in sale of above numbers."

(LETTER AND INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

THE COMMISSIONER: That is all you want of this witness, is it?

MR. McMASTER: That is all, your honour, yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very good.

Minoru declared (JP) "Gill Nets to the value of $1000."

According to a report from Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co.Ltd., Minoru, before evacuation asked A.-B.C.Packers to sell his nets as opportunity arose, and to credit his account. This office asked Mr. Bill Lord, Manager of Phoenix Cannery, that all offers be referred to Mr. Leckie for prior appraisal of the net- see letter of June 13/42, June 23/42.

Oct.29/42 - A.-B.C. Packing Co. sent to this office a list of 3 nets purchased from Minoru FURUYA and the amount of $205.

19th Dec.,1942- a list of nets and lines which we believed to be the property of Minoru FURUYA was sent to Takeo FURUYA for discussion with his brother, Minoru and father, Tomegoro. Some of these nets were not tagged so there was some doubt concerning ownership of these nets.

Feb.17/43 -list returned by Minoru FURUYA signed by him as describing his nets in the Protected Area (handled on separate claim).

Nov.30/43 - A.-B.C. Packing Co.Ltd. sent to this office a list of goods purchased from Minoru FURUYA and the amount of $93.41 to cover the price of these goods. This selling price was established by C.P.Leckie and A.-B.C. Packers. A.-B.C. Packing Co. wrote Minoru that Barbour and Cotton Twine had been purchased by them for the amount of $93.41

On May 21/43,June 11/43, July 4/43, August 19/43, October 10/43 Minoru FURUYA asked about nets -listing them by Custodian numbers and description according to the list that this office had sent him. He does not at any time offer any information of his own, he had never submitted a detailed list of nets left in the Protected Area. He has never asked for information concerning nets that were not listed in the Custodian list sent to him Dec.19/42.

According to Phoenix Cannery records Minoru FURUYA sold a net direct to this Cannery after filing JP Declaration of April 10/42- "June 3/42 M.FURUYA 1 net 6/40 x 7 x 40M.D. x 75 fths. - $65.00".

Dear Sir

In the claim of property sold by the Custodian. I would like to inform you that I had made an error

The cheque received from the Custodian is $250.00 and not $200.00

I think I had put $200.00 received in the claim as would you please check this up and make a correction to my error

Thanking you

Yours very truly
