B E F O R E

(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B.C.

April 22, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

(MRS) KANE HIGA

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.J. McMASTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.
T.J. MARRION, Esq.,	Secretary to Vernon SubCommission.
MRS. I.C. SMITH	Official Interpreter.
MR. G. HAMBLETON	OFFICIAL REPORTER.

MR. McMASTER: Mrs. Kane Higa. It was 193 originally on the list.

THE COMMISSIONER: Now 195.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, your honour.

(MRS) KANE HIGA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. McMASTER: With regard to the claim form in this case, your honour, I would ask to strike out off the face the sum of $1728.30 for equipment which is actually a chattel claim, and I will speak to that chattel claim in a few minutes; to strike out the claim for crop, as arrangements were made to sell the crop, and to strike out the claim for loss on chickens as that was what is usually called a "forced" sale, but was an actual sale made by the claimant. So that the claim on the face of the claim for the real estate will be $5900.00, the Custodian got $1984.64 for the real estate.

On the chattel claim, the claim for chattels is reduced to $1140.50, credit from the Custodian is $237.75, leaving a net of $902.75.

Referring to the lists attached to the claim form, the first list, which sets out a large quantity of chattels is standing, down to the iten about the fifth from the bottom of the list on the right-hand side, 48 yards of chickenhouse curtain. From that item to the end of the list is either being abandoned or is included in the real estate claim.

With regard to the second typewritten sheet attached to the list, the claim for crops and chickens is taken out as indicated.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct me to prepare this statement with regard to your real property and is this your mark on the statement? A: Yes.

Q: And are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I file that as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. McMASTER: I file on behalf of my learned friend the Farm Appraisal Report of the Soldier Settlement Board with respect to this property.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. McMASTER: With respect to Exhibit No. 2, the Farm Appraisal Report, I would like to draw your honour's attention to the fact that this property is situated just a mile and a quarter away from White Rock. It is on Stayte Road, which is a good gravelled road. There is a very good water supply on the property, as shown by this statement.

Then, at page 3 of the Farm Appraisal Report, the appraisor states: "Farm located fairly close to White Rock summer resort and not far from the sea. This not only gives a possible market for certain farm products, but is an attraction to buyers though the district generally is very poor agriculturally. There is quite a good house on the place, quite suitable for a white, and place is well equipped with poultry buildings. The soil is much better than the average soil in the locality. . . . Two wells on place and I believe hold out all right. There is a small area of fruit consisting of 1.17 acres weedy strawberries, and two acres of black currants." Then he mentions fourteen mixed fruit trees.

Referring to Exhibit No. 1, the claimant states that she purchased the land in 1931 for $1200.00 uncleared. Since that time they have cleared four acres at an estimated cost of $200.00 per acre. They have planted crops as shown above on two and a quarter acres, installed a 110 volt transformer, seven electric poles and wiring outside and wiring in dwelling house and also in chicken house, and she states that she planted 26 fruit trees and grapes which were all bearing at the time of evacuation.

In addition, she dug these two wells in 1933 and 1935 respectively.

She states that she left the property with a friend at a nominal rental as they did not know when they would be back. She says that the appraisor is incorrect in stating that there was no electricity and points out that the appraisor mentions only fourteen fruit trees; there were actually 26 trees, and he does not mention the grapes. He places a value of only $1.00 on each tree. "I estimate that each tree would average from ten to fifteen dollars each year in gross revenue. In addition to our small fruits and tree fruits, we had about 500 hens. We had a good revenue from the premises."

She states that since she bought the property she has put in $6,000 to 7,000 cash into the premises as well as a large part of the earnings, that the district has grown tremendously and she considers that at least $5900.00 is a fair value at the date of sale.

Now, in view of the suggestion in the Soldier Settlement appraisal which is Exhibit 2 -- on page 1 the appraisor states "No lights but could be had at not too great expense" -- I would like to produce to my learned friend a contract dated December 6, 1932 between the claimant and the British Columbia Electric Railway Company Limited providing for the running of electricity into these premises in conformation of the statement that she has made, that they were wired both in the house and in the chickenhouse. I do not think I need to file it, but I will if my friend wishes.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I have no objection to that statement going in, but it doesn't prove the electricity got there.

MR. McMASTER: It is in substantiation. It is an agreement between them.

MR. McTAVISH: It is an agreement they would charge so much once the electricity gets there.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Witness, I produce to you an agreement between yourself and the British Columbia Electric Railway Company dated December 6, 1932. Is that an agreement that you made with the B.C. Electric? A: Yes.

Q: And was power brought on to your premises as a result of that agreement, electric power?

THE COMMISSIONER: Mrs. Smith, I think you should tell us what she said before. What she said before is part of the record, and you should interpret it before you ask another question.

THE INTERPRETER: A: I have spent $200.00 for the transformer.

MR. McMASTER: Electricity was brought into the house?

A: Yes.

Q: Now, witness, did you instruct Mr. Leckie -- or myself to draw this statement with regard to your personal chattels with respect to which you are making a claim and is that your mark on the statement?

A: Yes.

Q: And I produce to you a list showing detailed items of personal chattels, showing when they were purchased, the price paid for them, their condition, and the value at the date of evacuation. Now, did you instruct your daughter or some person to prepare that list for you?

A: My grandchild.

Q: Yes. And do those estimated values represent, in your opinion, the fair market value at the time you were evacuated for these goods? A: Yes.

Q: And those are lists that are referred to in this yellow form with regard to your personal chattels?

A: Yes.

Q: Now, are the contents of that yellow form and of the inventory attached to it true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I file that as the next exhibit.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. McMASTER: On behalf of my learned friend, I file the analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend be good enough to produce a list of chattels left on the property from the file of the Custodian which had been sent out to the claimant and returned by the Custodian and returned to her -- returned to the Custodian, I am sorry.

Q: Now, witness, I am producing from the Custodians file a list of chattels that were left by you on your property at White Rock which the Custodian sent to you. Did you put your mark on that document? A: Yes.

Q: And you remember receiving that list from the Custodian and sending it in to him?

A: Yes, I have received it.

MR. McMASTER: I would like to file that. It is accompanied with a letter from the British Columbia Security Commission to the Department of Secretary of State of November 26, 1942. The letter reads as follows: (Reading)

(LETTER AND LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

Q: Now, witness, are all of the things for which you are now making a claim included on this inventory?

A: I don't know if the things are still there.

Q: That wasn't what I asked her. Now did she make up her claim that she filed or that we are now making from this list or did she have her grandchild make it up from this list?

A: She goes into details about what the things are, the carpet and other things.

Q: Does she understand the question? All I want from her is yes or no. A: They are all taken from here.

MR. McMASTER: Yes. Referring to the Custodian's Analysis Sheet -- what exhibit No. is that, Mr. Secretary?

THE SECRETARY: Exhibit 4.

MR. McMASTER: Yes. I would like to draw attention to an error that appears on the second page. I think my friend will admit it on looking at it. In the column under "details of claim," the sixth item on the second page is "20 yards curtain." That is shown as "no record at any time." On the inventory in the second column, at the end of the inventory, it shows "20 yards curtain." Obviously there has been an error in making up the analysis sheet. It was found in that inventory and there was some record of it in any event. What the disposition was, I don't know.

Now, also referring to the second page of the Custodian's analysis, following after that item 20 yards curtain, in the amendment of the claim the claimant dropped the items from there to the end of the list and, accordingly, the analysis of claim at the right-hand lower corner of the second page of the Custodian's form requires to be amended.

Q: Witness, when you rented the premises to Mr. Hogg,-- you did, when you left White Rock? A: Yes.

Q: And did you leave your goods and chattels in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg?

A: I had left them all to Mrs. Hogg.

Q: Yes, and you were advised subsequently --

A: Except the stove.

Q: Except the stove. And you were advised subsequently by the Custodian's office that Mr. Hogg wanted to sublet the house, that is, rent to somebody else?

A: I have not heard that it was sublet. The only notice she got was that the Custodian said the house was sold.

Q: Yes. Now does she remember when she was at Hastings Park for a while after she moved from White Rock?

A: (Interpreted)

Q: Well, now, that is a simple question. I would like a simple answer. What does she say? Was she at Hastings Park?

A: Yes. She asked the Custodian to wait for a week, but he couldn't so she left for Hastings Park.

Q: Yes. Now when she was at Hastings Park, does she remember a man there who was one of the Custodian's men by the name of Mr. Williams?

A: I don't remember him.

Q: Well, does she remember any man telling her that Mr. Hogg wanted to rent her house to somebody else?

A: No, I hadn't heard at that time.

Q: Does she remember giving her permission to Mr. Williams or to anybody else, as far as that goes, for Mr. Hogg to rent her house on the condition that he assumed full responsibility?

A: I didn't hear it.

MR. McMASTER: Well, that is my friend's problem.

Now, I would ask my friend to produce a letter from his file, a copy of a letter from the Custodian's office to Mr. Thomas Hogg at White Rock, B.C. with respect to this claimant. Perhaps he would be good enough to admit that it is a true copy of a letter which appears to have been sent by the Custodian to Mr. Hogg.

MR. McTAVISH: According to information on the file it is.

MR. McMASTER: The letter is dated June 22, 1945, addressed to Mr. Thomas Hogg re this claimant. (Reading)

I file that as an exhibit.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

MR. McMASTER: I might say, the purpose in filing that, your honour, is to show that as at June 22, 1945, the only items which were outstanding on the inventory that the Custodian had, apparently were those five or six items that are mentioned in that letter.

Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the real property was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that the personal property was sold for its fair market value, the personal property which was sold. It is submitted that the prices claimed for the balance of the articles comprising the personal property are exhorbitant. It is further submitted that the personal property was in the custody of someone other than the Custodian appointed by the claimant and that the Custodian was only liable from the time he assumed custody.

Do you admit the assessed value of the property?

MR. McMASTER: If you have the assessment there, yes.

MR. McTAVISH: The assessed value of the property in 1942 according to the 1942 tax notices of the Corporation of the District of Surrey -- improvements $1250.00, land $450.00. I will ask my friend to admit that.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, it appears to be correct.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I wish to put in an inter-office memorandum from W.J. Iverson with regard to this claim, and enclosed in that is a copy of the list of chattels left on the property and shown as Exhibit 5. This copy is referred to in the memorandum as "A".

MR. McMASTER: Your honour, that, as I recall it, refers to certain abandoned articles. I think Mr. Iverson could be called in due course to establish the condition for abandoning.

MR. McTAVISH: You are objecting to the memorandum going in, are you?

MR. McMASTER: Yes, I think it would be wiser to keep it until the witness can be called.

MR. McTAVISH: Well, then, your honour, I wish to put in the copy of the list of chattels shown on Exhibit 5 and on which Mrs. Thomas Hogg has stated "The above articles have been left in my care by the owner and I will be responsible for their safe-keeping."

MR. McMASTER: Your honour, I am afraid I must take the same objection. I don't like to tie my friend's hands. If Mrs. Hogg did agree to that, she should give evidence to that effect. I don't think it is terribly material, because the claimant has admitted all these things were left in the hands of Mrs. Hogg.

MR. McTAVISH: That is correct, your honour. This just shows that Mr. and Mrs. Hogg had all these same articles.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, you can put it in subject to objection, then.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7)

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Would you show the claimant this form and ask her if she has ever seen that before?

A: I have never received a letter from Mr. Hogg saying that he was sub-letting the house; that sign is my sign, but, she says, I have never given permission to sublet the house.

Q: She admits that this is her sign here?

A: Yes.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, since the witness has admitted her sign or cross on this document, I would like to put it in as an exhibit.

THE COMMISSIONER: The answer here has not been interpreted yet. She is saying something.

THE INTERPRETER: She says "I have never given permission to sub-let the house."

THE COMMISSIONER: Very good.

MR. McTAVISH: This is a memorandum dated September 11, 1942, to W. Anderson from F.T. Williams, re Higa, Kane, No. 06846.

MR. McMASTER: Now, the only part that would be admissible would be the part she put her "X" on, if she did put it on.

MR. McTAVISH: At the bottom of the memorandum, you honour, is this statement: "Permission is hereby granted Mr. Hogg, White Rock, to sublet my house on condition he assumes full responsibility." "Signed -- " and then there is the cross that the claimant states is hers, and witnessed by F.T. Williams, I guess it is. I can't quite make it out.

THE INTERPRETER: May I speak to her?

(Interpreter to Witness)

THE INTERPRETER: A: I have never given permission and I have not spoken an untruth. I have allowed Mr. Hogg to use whatever he could for looking after my property.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, referring to the list, being part of Exhibit 3, I have tried to go through part of the list to show the correlation between the amount of the claim and the amount that the goods were sold for, or what happened to the goods. Starting with the page headed "Bedrooms,": 1 single bed, estimated value $5.00, that article is shown on the analysis of claim form as having been "disappeared." The same applies to the second item, one bed complete. The third item, one chest of drawers, estimated value $25.00, was sold at auction for $4.00. The next two items, one spring and two bed sides, for which the claimant claims a total of $25.00, were sold at auction together for $13.75. Two wardrobes, for which the claimant claims $20.00, were sold at auction for $4.00. One mattress, for which the claimant claims $2.00, was abandoned. One Roll of linoleum, for which the claimant claims $40.00, was sold at auction for $4.50. One wardrobe, for which the claimant claims $20.00 was sold at auction for $13.00. Two dressers, for which the claimant claims $45.00, was sold at auction for $29.00. Two beds, for which the claimant claims $50.00, one was sold at auction for $8.50 and one was abandoned. Two linoleum, for which the claimant claims $50.00, was sold at auction for $8.00. Two desks, for which the claimant claims $10.00, one was sold at auction for $1.00 and the other, no record of. One wardrobe --

MR. McMASTER: No record of?

MR. McTAVISH: Well, disappeared after the inventory was taken.

One wardrobe, for which the claimant claims $35.00, was sold at auction for $2.00. One blanket, for which the claimant claims $3.00, is in the theft column which means it disappeared after the inventory was taken. One table, for which the claimant claims 50¢, was sold at auction for 25¢. Two bedsteads, for which the claimant claims $2.00, were abandoned, and the one table, for which the claimant claims $1.50, one more is an article that disappeared.

MR. McMASTER: I don't like to interrupt my learned friend, but I am wondering, in view of the fact that I understand the Custodian intends filing statements showing this relationship ultimately between the amounts claimed and the amounts referred to, whether there is much to be accomplished by going through a long list.

MR. McTAVISH: I don't think the list is being filed quite like this.

MR. McMASTER: Well, I don't want to interrupt my friend, but perhaps he has given sufficient to illustrate whatever point he is making.

MR. McTAVISH: I am just trying my best to make it easier for the Commissioner, your honour. I have several more listed, if your honour would like me to go through them.

THE COMMISSIONER: It is a matter for you to present your case, if you want to put it in now. Of course, you say they were sold at auction for a certain price, but that really doesn't prove it, unless Mr. McMaster is willing to admit it.

MR. McTAVISH: We can put in the auction sheets, of course

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, of course, it could be proved by the auction sheets or whoever sold them, I suppose.

MR. McTAVISH: I will just go through some representative items from now on, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think it is quite right what Mr. McMaster says; you will have to go through this again to give valid proof of it, isn't that what you say?

MR. McMASTER: Yes, quite, your honour. I think it takes a good deal of time now.

THE COMMISSIONER: Of course, I am not going to object. You are conducting the case . If you wish to put it in this way, we will take it down.

MR. McTAVISH: I think it is helpful to the court, your honour. I think it should go in.

THE COMMISSIONER: It will be helpful to the Commissioner to put it in now.

MR. McTAVISH: I think so.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. McTAVISH: Supplies and tools, two rolls of wire, listed at the top, and then the fourth item on the list is again two rolls of wire -- once more, these items are disappeared. I couldn't find any reference to one feed cutter; one lawn mower, for which the claimant claims $7.00, was sold at auction for $2.00. Two axes, for which the claimant claims $1.00, were sold -- one was sold for 50¢, the other has disappeared. The next two items have disappeared. One potato digger, for which the claimant claims $10.00 was sold for $1.50. There were two originally, and one has disappeared. The next item was abandoned. The next two items disappeared. That is, the two bales of hay were abandoned, one fork disappeared. Shovel, for which $1.50 is claimed, was sold at auction for 50¢. Two spades, for which $3.00 was claimed, one was sold at auction for 75¢. The next two items disappeared -- excuse me, the next four items disappeared. Crosscut saws, three were sold for 50¢, and one disappeared. The coal brooder and stove, for which $22.00 is claimed, was sold at auction for $7.50. The drinking fountain, for which $2.00 is claimed, was sold at auction for $4.50 and the balance of the items on that page either disappeared or were abandoned.

On the other page, your honour, the one item of value was the three piece chesterfield suite, for which $90.00 is claimed, which sold at auction for $50.00.

Kitchen range, in the next list, for which $50.00 is claimed, was sold at auction for $10.00.

That is all, your honour.

Comments re Appraiser's report not covered by above information:

As I did not know how long I would be away I left the premises with a friend at a nominal rental

The appraiser is incorrect in stating or indicating that there was no electricity. As indicated above electricity had been brought in and I had an agreement with B.C. Electric to supply electricity.

The appraiser mentions only 14 fruit trees. There were actually 26 trees. He does not mention the grapes. He places a value of only $1.00 on each tree. I estimate that each tree would average from $10 to $15 each year in gross revenue.

In addition to our small fruits and tree fruits we had about 1500 hens. We had a good revenue from the premises. Since we bought the property we have put in $6000 to $7000 cost into the premises as well as a large part of our earnings. The district has grown tremendously. I consider at least $5-900.00 would have been a fair price in January 1943.

Farm Appraisal Report

Remarks: Farm located fairly close to White Rock summer resort and not far from the sea. This not only gives a possible market for certain farm products, but is an attraction to buyers though the district generally is very poor agriculturally. There is quite a good house on the place, quite suitable for a white, and place is well equipped with poultry buildings. The soil is much better than the average soil in the locality.

2 wells on place and I believe hold out all right.

There is a small area of fruit consisting of 1.17 acres weedy strawberries, and 2 acres of black currants.

(FOR ORCHARD LANDS ONLY)

REMARKS: re general lie of land, fertility of soil, irrigation, drainage or dyking and reclamation.

ANNUAL COST OF IRRIGATION, DYKING AND DRAINAGE.

RE: Kane (Mrs. Matsuzo) HIGA

Dear Sir:

When Mrs. Higa was evacuated from the Coast she left some of her furniture with you and it would seem that we have recovered most of the items, but we are wondering whether you still have anything else belonging to her in your possession, as an electric plate, a chiming clock, a heater and some crocks, are still outstanding.

We shall appreciate hearing from you on this matter at your earliest convenience so that we may complete our files.

Yours truly,

W. J. Iverson
Protection Department.
