(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B.C.

April 23, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

(MRS) TSURUYE NAGAMATSU

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.J. McMASTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.
T.J. MARRION, Esq.,	Secretary to Vernon Sub-Commission.
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. McMASTER: Mrs. T. Nagamatsu, No. 210 on the original list.

THE COMMISSIONER: This will be case No. 200.

TSURUYE NAGAMATSU, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct me to draw this statement with regard to the real property with respect to which you are claiming, and is that your signature on the statement? A: Yes.

Q: Are the statements contained in there true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. McMASTER: I am sorry, my friend draws my attention to the fact that I neglected to speak to the amendment to the claim. I thought I had. I guess I did it only in my own mind.

I would ask to strike out from the face of the claim the claim for crops and the equipment as shown on the face of it. If that would be striken out, the claim for the real estate is for $2800.00, $1202.00 was the price at which it was sold by the Custodian. The chattel claim for household furniture and equipment is $217.00. The items claimed for will appear on the statement that the claimant will file in her evidence.

I would ask to file on behalf of my learned friend the Farm Appraisal Report of the Soldier Settlement Board with regard to this land.

(APPRAISAL REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT NO 2)

Q: Witness, this property was situated a quarter of a mile from Pitt Meadows, is that correct?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: Referring to Exhibit No. 1, your honour, the property is a six acre farm. It was purchased in 1929 for $1500.00 with two acres cleared and four acres uncleared. At the time of purchase there was a three room house on the property which was later extended as shown farther down in the statement. The claimant states they cleared three acres at an approximate cost of $250.00 per acre, that they had planted two acres in strawberries and certain other improvements have been made to the land. The buildings are shown there, and the approximate cost of adding the extension to the house. There was an electric pump and motor, and electricity had been brought into the house in 1932.

With regard to the appraisor's report, the claimant states that neither she nor her husband recall telling anyone that the land was too cold for strawberries and not suitable for raspberries. She states that neither she nor her husband recall seeing the appraisor at all, and that neither of them speak enough English to convey such an idea to him. She states that this is perfectly good ground for growing strawberries on but that they come later than the average. They had ever-bearing plants there which brought two crops a year. Being later berries, they brought a better than average price. She states that they had grown strawberries commercially on these premises for years. And she states that while she is not an expert on land values, she believes the land and premises should have sold for at least $2800.00.

Q: Now, witness, did you instruct me to draw this statement with regard to your personal chattels and is that your signature on the statement?

A: Yes.

Q: And did you instruct me to draw this list of chattels setting out the approximate date of purchase, the condition when purchased, the price paid and the condition when evacuated and the estimated market values? A: Yes.

Q: And that is your signature on the inventory?

A: Yes.

Q: And that is the list which is referred to in the statement which I just had you identify?

A: Yes.

Q: Are the statements contained in this yellow form and in the inventory true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask to file the statement together with the inventory as Exhibit No. 3

(STATEMENT AND INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT No. 3)

MR. McMASTER: Referring to the last exhibit, your honour, the claimant states that she and her husband left all their chattels at 2291 Ford Street, Pitt Meadows, B.C., and locked the door. In October, 1942, the Custodian advised that a Mr. Fred J. Walsh wanted to rent her place and asked her to let him use certain chattels until December 31, 1943, and she agreed that they be included in the lease made by the Custodian. She states that all chattels for which she is claiming are on the attached list and her husband has agreed that any of these which might be deemed to be his chattels should be claimed for by her. All these chattels appear on an inventory taken by the Custodian in October 1942 headed with her husband's name. She states that about May, 1947, she asked the Custodian to ship to her her range and washing machine and other household goods. I believe those were sold, were they not, Mr. McTavish?

MR. McTAVISH: Some articles were sold at auction.

MR. MCMASTER: But that she never received these things that she requested.

Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the real property was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that the personal properties sold were sold for their fair market values. It is submitted that the values claimed by the claimant for personal property not sold are exhorbitant. It is further submitted that the personal property was left by the claimant in the custody of someone other than the Custodian and that the Custodian can only be held responsible for when he assumed control.

I ask my friend if he would be good enough to admit the assessed value of the real property.

MR. McMASTER: What year?

MR. McTAVISH: The assessed value as shown on the 1942 assessment notice: for Lot 9, improvements $50.00, land $300.00; for Lot 10, improvements $50.00, land $300.00, and for Lot "A" of Block 11, improvements $650.00, and land $300.00.

With regard to the real property, your honour, it is only a question of value

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Would you ask the witness if, at the time she left the property, she had leased it?

A: Only the house.

Q: Who had she leased it to? A¢ Mr. Wells?

Q: Walsh. A: Yes, Mr. Walsh.

Q: And did you leave the chattels, for which you claim, in the house at that time? A: Yes.

Q: When the property was re-leased by the Custodian, did you consent to have the chattels included in the lease? A: I didn't lend them all. The things that I lent were detailed in a letter.

Q: Is this the letter that details the list?

A: These are the things, and that is my signature.

MR. McTAVISH: I put that in as an Exhibit, your honour.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

Q: Did you later consent to these articles being included in the next lease applied for?

MR. McMASTER: What is the date of that?

MR. McTAVISH: This is October 20, 1942.

A: I don't remember lending them the second time, just the first time only.

Q: Did you sign this document?

A: Yes, I signed it.

MR. McTAVISH: I put this in as Exhibit 5, your honour. It is an inventory of chattels to be used by lessee, dated October 30, 1942.

(INVENTORY OF CHATTELS MARKED EXHIBIT NO.5)

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I would like to put in as Exhibit No. 6 the Custodian's Analysis of Personal Property Claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

MR. McTAVISH: It appears, your honour, that several of the articles claimed for were lost at some time, we don't know when. The Custodian has no record of them other than on the lists that are put in already.

With regard to the other articles, the General Electric washing machine was sold at auction for $25.00. The two dressers claimed for were sold at auction for $5.50. The chest of drawers was sold at auction for $2.00. The eight kitchen chairs were sold at auction for $1.50, and some tools were sold at auction for $3.00. The last two items on the list, International Truck chains and Brown's Crystal Duster are not shown at any time.

MR. McMASTER: Well, they are shown on the inventory of the husband's that I referred to; the claims analysis doesn't refer to it.

MR. McTAVISH: Oh.

Q: Would you ask the witness if she remembers this J.P. form? A: I signed this.

MR. McTAVISH: I put it in as Exhibit No. 7.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7)

MR. McTAVISH: That is all, your honour.

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, I produce to you an inventory of chattels left on the property at 2291 Ford Road. Did you or your husband receive that inventory from the Custodian? A: Yes.

Q: Are all of the chattels with respect to which you are now claiming included in that list?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that as the next Exhibit.

(INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8)

MR. McMASTER: It is a list dated October 13, 1942.

MR. McTAVISH: That includes the truck chains and the --?

MR. McMASTER: Yes, I think so.

Q: Now, witness, I produce to you a letter dated October 30, 1942, addresssed to yourself from the Custodian's office, and an inventory dated October 30, 1942. Did you receive those from the Custodian?

A: Yes, I received this.

MR. McMASTER: And this is a letter, your honour, dated October 30, 1942 from the Custodian's office addressed to the Claimant which advises: "Mr. Fred J. Walsh has applied to lease your property at 2291 Ford Road, Pitt Meadows, B.C., and has asked for the use of certain chattels left on the property for the year ending December 31, 1943. Enclosed you will find a list in duplicate representing the chattels to be included in the lease. If you are agreeable that these be included in the lease, kindly sign and return one copy to this office as soon as possible."

Q: Now, did she sign a copy of the inventory and return it to the office?

MR. McTAVISH: That is Exhibit 5, isn't it?

MR. McMASTER: I think so.

A: I think I did.

MR. McMASTER: Could I see Exhibit 5, please?

(Handed to Mr. McMaster)

MR. McMASTER: Yes, the inventory, I think my friend will admit, is the same as Exhibit 5. Wait a minute. I will file the inventory with the letter. I draw attention to the fact that in Exhibit 5 the words appearing on the copy that the claimant had reads, "Inventory of Chattels remaining at 2291 Ford Road, Pitt Meadows, B.C.," and on the copy the Custodian has filed, or that the Crown has filed, the words, "remaining at 2291 Ford Road, Pitt Meadows, B.C.," have been crossed out and in pencil has been written the words "to be used by lessee." However, I will file the letter of October 30, 1943 and the inventory as the next exhibit.

(LETTER AND INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9)

Q: Witness, referring to Exhibit No. 5 which has your signature on it, at the time you signed that document were these words that are written in pencil on the document? A: I don't know.

Q: I see. Is that your writing?

A: No.

MR. McMASTER: Thank you. Now would my learned friend be good enough to admit that the Custodian took an inventory of the goods and chattels on these premises on the date of the inventory that I filed, on October 13, 1942, Exhibit No. 8?

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, I have nothing on my file to show that.

MR. McMASTER: It is probably on the husband's file. You have the husband's file here, but I suppose there is no chattel claim.

MR. McTAVISH: No chattel claim.

MR. McMASTER: I see.

Would my learned friend advise me whether he has any inventory that was taken at the time this property was sold to the Soldier Settlement Board, of the chattels of this claimant?

MR. McTAVISH: I haven't, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: And would my learned friend advise me as to whether any rental was collected for the use of these chattels after January 1st, 1943, when the Soldier Settlement Board sale was effected?

MR. McTAVISH: I haven't any information with regard to that, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: Would my learned friend advise me whether any inventory was taken by the Custodian when the lease referred to in Exhibit No. 9 expired on December 31, 1943?

MR. McTAVISH: I can't answer that.

MR. McMASTER: Would my learned friend advise me at what date the rest of the goods and chattels, or the main portion or any portion of the goods and chattels were removed from the claimant's premises by the Custodian?

MR. McTAVISH: The only information I have, your honour, is that they were sold by auction in March and April of 1945.

MR. McMASTER: That is all.

MR. McTAVISH: I have one more question I would like to ask the witness, your honour, with regard to the truck chains claimed for.

RE-CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Were the truck chains your property?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you own a truck?

A: The truck was my husband's.

Q: Did you buy the chains for the truck?

A: I bought it.

MR. McTAVISH: That is all.

MR. McMASTER: There is just one question. If my friend is alleging that some of this property belonged to the husband, in the statement that was filed -- I think as Exhibit No. 3 -- the claimant stated that her husband had authorized her to make claim in the event of any of the property being deemed to be his, and the husband is here if my friend is pressing that point, and I will be pleased to call the husband to confirm the fact that he gave that authority.

MR. McTAVISH: I am not pressing the point, your honour, the chains are only valued at $10.00.

Farm Appraisal Report

Remarks: This is a property with limited acreage close in to Pitt Meadows.

The soil in this location is a sandy loam over hardpan and North portion of the property is subject to flood in winter, spring and very rainy periods.

The present owner advised me that he had had the cleared area in strawberries, but had given the venture up as land was too cold for profitable production. Further that the location was not suitable for Raspberries.

Due to location of property, I consider its value is from a residential standpoint rather than as an agriculture unit.

The dwelling is old, but has been kept in good condition. Electric light is installed.

Description of Storage of Goods: My husband and I left all our chattels at 2291 Ford St. Port Meadows B.C. and locked the door.

In October 1942 the custodian advised that Mrs. Fred J. Walsh wanted to rent my place and asked me to let him rent certain chattels until Dec 31, 1943. I agreed that they be included in the lease made by the custodian.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above:

All chattels for which I am claiming are on the attached list. My husband has agreed that any of these which might be deemed to be his chattels should be claimed for by me.

Additional Comments, if any: All these chattels appear on an Inventory taken by the custodian in Oct 1942 & headed with my husband name.

About may 1943 I asked the custodian to ship to me my Range, Washing machine & other household furniture but never received the same.
