JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION.

B E F O R E

(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B.C.

April 23, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

KICHINOSUKE KITAMURA

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
R.J. McMASTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

T.J. MARRION, Esq.,	Secretary to Vernon SubpCommission.
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter
G. Hambleton, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. McMASTER: K. Kitamura, which was 198 on the original list, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be 203.

KICHINOSUKE KITAMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. McMASTER: With respect to the claim herein, your honour, there are two items on the face of the claim relating to bills receivable which are abandoned. The claim for the real property is $3,000.00. It was sold at $1150.00, leaving a net claim of $1850.00, and I would ask leave to amend the claim with regard to the chattels appearing on the back, with respect to the household goods, $80.25, which will make the total chattel claim $240.25. Nothing was received by the Custodian for those goods and chattels.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct Mr. Leckie to draw this statement with regard to your real property situated at Port Alberni? A: Yes.

Q: Would you be good enough to sign it please?

A: (Witness complies)

Q: Are the contents of that statement true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that statement with regard to real estate as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. McMASTER: I file on behalf of my learned friend what purports to be an appraisal by H.G. Winter. It appears to be undated.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. McMASTER: If I might refer to Exhibit No. 1, your honour, the property is situated at 306 Burde Street, Port Alberni, B.C., a house and attached garage. The house is a six-room house with bathroom, toilet and tub sink and kitchen all connected with sewer,it has a full cellar with board floors, shingle roof. The land was purchased as land only in November, 1940, for $350.00. The district in which it was situated was an Occidental residential district. The claimant erected his house and garage in 1941 at a total estimated cost of $2650.00. He points out that the appraisor mentions the sink only. The bathroom had bath and toilet and all plumbing was connected with the sewer, as previously stated. Apparently the claimant had not quite finished his building -- it required still to be stuccoed. He advises that Turner Brothers at Port Alberni advised him that it could be rented for $35.00 a month. However, he agreed to rent for $20.00 per month to a family without children rather than hold out for a higher rent, and he considers that the property was worth at least $3,000.00 when it was sold in August, 1944.

Q: Witness, did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement with regard to the personal chattels for which you are claiming, and is this the list of tools referred to in that statement?

A: Yes.

Q: Would you be good enough to sign it, please?

A: (Witness complies)

Q: Are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

Q Q: And are the values shown on the list of tools your estimate of the fair market value of those things at the date of your evacuation?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask to file that statement with the list of tools as the next exhibit.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my learned friend whether he would like me to file the claims analysis, and would you like to have it marked up with this revised claim to clarify it?

MR. McTAVISH: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I will file the Claims Analysis on behalf of my learned friend, together with a memorandum of the revised claim which, if the Secretary would be good enough, he might endorse on the original. I file that as the next Exhibit.

(CLAIMS ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my friend to admit that the rowboat which is claimed has not been accounted for, and that the other items which are claimed appear to have been lost in shipment.

MR. McTAVISH: The note I have on this, your honour, reads as follows: "Rowboat included in J.P. declaration, and confirmed by Custodian agents, remains unaccounted for, possibly stolen." But files show everything else of value was included in a large shipment of 82 packages made on October 9, 1943. A complaint that some articles were missing from this shipment was dealt with in our Chattels Department, letter of December 2, 1943."

MR. McMASTER: May I see that -- I mean the letter of December 2, 1943. (Handed to Mr. McMaster.)

Q: Witness, I produce to you a letter addressed to your wife from the Custodian's office. Did you and your wife receive that letter?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: This is a letter dated December 2, 1943, addressed to Mrs. Mari Kitamura. I don't think I need to read it. It deals with the apparent loss of these articles. It also quotes from a letter from Messrs. Turner Brothers which refers to the condition of the property that was there.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

Q: Now, witness, at the time of your evacuation, you completed a J.P. form and included in that was a long inventory of goods and chattels. Is that your signature on this J.P. form dated August 12, 1942?

A: Yes, that is my signature.

Q: And did you file this inventory of the same date when you made it out? A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to have the J.P. form and the inventory filed as one exhibit.

(J.P. FORM AND INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

Q: Now, who prepared the inventory that you produced when you filed the J.P. form?

A: My wife.

Q: And on looking through it, I don't see any mention of any tools, can you explain that?

A: My wife wrote out the list, and lost the list of tools, and for that reason it wasn't put in.

Q: I see. Did you advise the Custodian at that time that you had any tools over there?

A: I sent him a letter.

Q: Do you recall when you sent him that letter?

A: When the Custodian sent me some goods, I noticed these were missing, and therefore I wrote and told him about it.

Q: Yes. You don't recall notifying him before that time? A: No.

Q: I see.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my learned friend to admit that Mr. H.G. Hinton, acting as agent of the Custodian took an inventory of the goods and chattels of this man on September 23, 1942, as appears on the Analysis of Personal Property claim.

MR. McTAVISH: That is according to the information on the file, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: And I draw your honour's attention to the fact that included in that inventory are one box tools and one tool chest, and also 17 boxes miscellaneous.

Q: Now, witness, from your statement which I have filed, I take it that you did receive some tools, but that the tools that you did receive were mostly your Japanese tools.

A: They were old tools and Japanese tools.

Q: Now, you did receive some goods from the Custodian that were shipped to you, is that right?

A: I did receive some.

Q: But amongst the things you did receive, were there any of the things for which you are now claiming?

A: No, I did not receive any of these.

Q: When you did receive a shipment from the Custodian were most of the things packed in boxes that you did receive? A: Yes, they were boxed.

Q: And was there any appearance of any of the boxes having been broken open?

A: No, they weren't broken open, there was an appearance of breakage.

Q: Well, did it appear that any of the boxes had been opened? A: They had the appearance of having been opened.

Q: Yes. Now when the Custodian shipped the goods to you, did he send any list or inventory of what he was shipping? A: Yes.

Q: Do you have that list now?

A: No, there was no list.

Q: Well, he didn't send him any list?

A: He says "yes" now.

Q: Well, does he have the list? A: No, I didn't bring it.

Q: Has he got it at home? A: I think so.

MR. McMASTER: Can my friend produce a copy of that list?

MR. McTAVISH: There doesn't seem to be any copy of the list on the file except the one from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

THE INTERPRETER: He says he is not quite certain of that.

MR. McMASTER: Is this the kind of list you got?

A: That was received from the CPR, but I think I have another list.

Q: From the Custodian? And you checked over the goods that you received and found certain goods were missing, is that right?

A: Yes.

Q: And you complained to the Custodian?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the real property was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that the personal chattels for which the claimant is claiming were lost while in transit, and not while in the possession or under the control of the Custodian. It is submitted that the prices claimed by the claimant for the personal property are exhorbitant.

I would ask my learned friend if he will admit the assessed value of the real property.

MR. McMASTER: What year?

MR. McTAVISH: 1944. The assessed value of the land is shown as $180.00, the assessed value of the improvements at $850.00.

MR. McMASTER: It appears to be correct.

MR. McTAVISH: With regard to the real property, your honour, it is purely a question of value.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: I produce this CPR bill of lading dated October 15, 1943. Will the witness identify that as similar to one he received? A: Yes.

Q: And were all the packages shown there received by you? A: Yes.

MR. McTAVISH: We have been talking about this. I might as well put it in as an exhibit.

(BILL OF LADING MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7)

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, with the exception of the tools, the articles claimed for are all shown on the J.P. form at the same value they are claimed for, with one exception, that is, with regard to dinner plates. The claimant claims for five dinner plates and puts a value on them of $3.75. On his J.P. form he shows a 64 piece dinner set, a total value of $18.00. With regard to the personal property, your honour, it also is just a question of value. There are no questions.

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend admit that these goods and chattels were shipped by the Custodian?

MR. McTAVISH: The goods and chattels shown on Exhibit 7 were shipped by the Custodian, yes.

MR. McMASTER: Well, the ones that my friend says were lost in transit in his defence.

THE COMMISSIONER: You don't actually admit that, do you?

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, the Custodian shipped the goods and articles shown in Exhibit 7, 82 packages. Now, the claimant in a letter and in examination stated that when he got those, he wrote saying that some were missing. Now, in cross-examination, he says he received the full shipment.

MR. McMASTER: He said they had been opened. That is not a fair statement. He gave evidence there was an appearance of the boxes having been opened and if one refers to Exhibit 7, it refers to a number of parcels and packages, and doesn't define the goods.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, that is about as far as you can go, I guess.

MR. McTAVISH: That is as far as I can go, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: No questions, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very good.

Comments re upkeep of premises:
see opposite — erections new when left —

Comments re Appraiser's report not covered above:
appraiser mentions sink only Bathroom had bath and toilet and all plumbing was connected with sewer I consider appraisal at 1150.00 to be much below a fair value. Comment, It was my intention in 1942 but evacuation prevented. Turner Bros, real estate, told me they could not for 35 per month. I later agreed to rent for 20.00 per month to a family without children rather than hold out for a higher rent from less desirable tenants. I consider that my property was worth at least the sum of 3000.00 (bare cost to me) when sold by me Concluded in Aug 1944, for $1150.00

Cost of (1) (2) estimated: materials 1700.00; hired labour 750.00; own labour 525.00 — Total — 2475

(3) clearing + levelling lot (stumping etc) in 1941 prior to building - hired labour - cost about — 175.00

Description of Storage of Goods: all goods claimed were packed and left in the basement of house at 306 Burde St. Port Alberni, B.C. The boat was also left there unwrapped. The basement was locked.

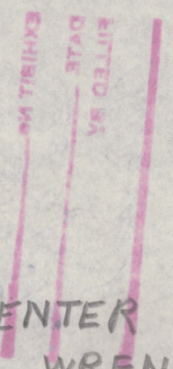

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above: all chattels claimed for including those mentioned above are detailed on a revised "Custodians claims analysis" and a list of tools which my counsel will file.

Additional Comments, if any: The box of tools sent to me by the custodian were Japanese carpenter tools. The tools claimed for were my canadian tools. I have excluded from my claim all chattels shipped to me. Where goods were new and unused I have shown them at cost price. In all cases I have claimed what I believe to be a fair market value.

Vernon, B. C.

Dear Madam:-

Thank you for your letter received here on December 1st from which we were sorry to see that many items are missing. We draw your attention, however, to the fact that these items were not declared by you and only partly declared by your husband. In this connection, we quote from letter received from Messrs. Turner Brothers on July 17th.

"Yesterday we went along with Mr. Wm. Burnip and broke open the door to the attic and we found a considerable amount of personal effects for which we herewith enclose a list covering same. These articles mentioned are in excellent condition and most of the articles are new. There are 16 cardboard boxes that are unsealed and these contain many new articles. Mr. Burnip and the writer had a truck call and remove these articles to Mr. Burnip's warehouse for storage. About one year ago we had considerable correspondence regarding an electro-lux which was missing. No doubt the one among these articles is the one you were looking for. We think that there is some reason that the Japanese did not declare these articles as they were way up in the attic and the attic was nailed up. We were under the impression that there was just lumber in the attic to complete the house."

It appears from this that there could not have been any house-breaking while the articles were in the attic as no one knew of their existence. None would have been stolen subsequently as they were moved directly from the attic to safe storage with Mr. Burnip. Under these circumstances, we fear that any losses suffered must have occurred in the course of shipment and for this, of course, we cannot be responsible.

We are sending a copy of this letter and of yours referred to above, to Messrs. Turner Brothers and asking them for their comments.
