Dear Louise:

Herewith the names and addresses of the committee members. Mr. Toye has not been able to come very often and Mrs. Rouillard, who took Miss Kaufman's place, has come only a few times but is very interested and has aided the work by sending out our bulletins to Y secretaries. With those exceptions I count the others as co-workers of the first order. You will note I added Mrs. Coates' name as I thought it would be a good introduction for her and might help to give the feeling of continuity to the work.

If I have forgotten anyone I will call you again.

It is very sporting of you to give this party and I feel quite honored to be the "occasion" for bringing the group together in this way.

Sincerely,

Donald

Dear Louise:
Herewith the names and addresses of the committee members. Mr. Toy has not been able to come very often and Mrs. Howland and Miss Kautman's place has come only a few times but a very interesting and has aided the work by sending out our bulletins to Yessobara. In these exceptions I count the others as co-workers of the first order. You will note I added Mrs. Conter's name as I thought it would be a good introduction for her and might help to give the feeling of continuity to the work.
If I have forgotten anyone I will call you again.
It is very sporting of you to give this party and I feel quite honored to be the "occasion" for bringing the group together in this way.
