AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA

THURSDAY, the 3rd day of DECEMBER, 1942.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL:

WHEREAS the Minister of Labour reports with reference to Order in Council, dated March 4, 1942, (P.C. 1665), which empowers the British Columbia Security Commission, inter alia, to hold property, real or personal, but orders that no real property shall be purchased by the Commission, except with the approval of the Governor in Council,-

3 Dec. 1942

1. That he is advised by the said Commission that,-

(a) in order properly to house and care for the several thousand persons of Japanese race which it is evacuating from the protected areas of British Columbia to abandoned mining townsites in the interior of that Province, it is expedient for the Commission to acquire title to sufficient building sites in and about said townsites on which to erect buildings additional to those now available there and necessary for said purposes,

(b) the Commission, having firm offers from the owners of the properties described in paragraph 2 hereunder to sell said properties to it at the prices therein set forth, that said properties are well located for the required purposes and that said prices are all reasonable,

(c) several of said properties contain considerable stands of timber, most of which can be expeditiously and economically processed by the Commission for the aforesaid building purposes and for fire-wood now urgently required for the evacuees,

(d) the work of cutting, processing and moving said timber will provide desirable employment for many of the evacuees;
