MR. McMASTER: Kamenosuke Natsuhara, No. 216 on the original list, your honour.

KAMENOSUKE NATSUHARA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. McMASTER: In this case, your honour, the claim for equipment was set up on the face of the claim form at $5,000.00. That was for noodle manufacturing, also including goodwill and other items which are not within the terms of reference. I would ask to reduce the claim with respect to the noodle equipment to $1129.50. That relates to the equipment used in the claimant's business. I would also ask to amend the chattel claim on the back of the form to a claim for the radio only in the sum of $175.00. I might say with respect to the radio that the Custodian sold it for $67.00; the equipment was sold by the Custodian for $14.85.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, this would appear to be setting up an entirely new claim here. He claims for goodwill on the original claim and certain items of personal property. Now the claim is being amended to set up an entirely new claim for chattels.

MR. McMASTER: I would submit, your honour, if my friend would look at the face of the claim form, clause (e)(iii), it shows: "If business, put value on business as going concern (including land and buildings, tenancies, chattels, fixtures, stock-in-trade, goodwill and accounts receivable)", and

K. Natsuhara
In Chief

opposite that item, the claimant had shown $5,000.00. He has now been advised that he cannot claim for goodwill and accounts receivable, and he therefore is limiting that claim to the chattels and fixtures relating to his business.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think that is in order. Have you any further objection to make?

MR. McTAVISH: That is the only objection, your honour. It seems to be setting up an entirely new claim and the time for setting up a new claim is out of 10 time.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I think the original claim was broad enough to include the way it is being presented now. It will be allowed.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement with regard to the chattels that you are now claiming for? A: Yes.

20 Q: And did you prepare, or have prepared, these two sheets of inventory that are annexed to this form? A: Yes, sir.

Q: Do those inventories, which are annexed, set forth your estimate of the fair market value of the respective chattels at the date of your evacuation?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: Did you sign this statement? A: Yes, I did, sir.

Q: And are the contents of that statement and of the 30 inventories that are referred to true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes, sir.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask to file this statement and the two inventories as one exhibit.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

THE COMMISSIONER: I am afraid I still haven't got the right case number. Was that 213?

THE SECRETARY: Yes, your honour.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: That was the first case we had this morning.

THE SECRETARY: I am sorry, that is the new number.

MR. McMASTER: I am sorry, your honour, if there is some mix-up. On the original list that went out there were certain numbers assigned. At my suggestion the other day, in view of the fact that the list was going to be mixed up by claimants coming in at different times, Judge Archibald decided -- and I should have raised the point with you -- to give them case numbers as they are actually called and heard.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I am just trying to follow this list. If you will just show me what number it is on the list I have here.

THE SECRETARY: 216, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see, 216 on the list I have here.

MR. McMASTER: Q: Now, witness, I understand from your statement that your son actually delivered your radio to the R.C.M.P. on your behalf?

A: Yes.

30 Q: The receipt was issued in his name and the money

K. Natsuhara
In Chief

paid to him by the Custodian?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: I produce to you a statement. Is that your son's signature on that document?

A: Yes, sir.

10 MR. McMASTER: This, your honour, is a letter dated to-day's date, addressed to the Japanese Claims Commission: "I hereby certify that the RCA Combination Victor radio which I handed over to the R.C.M.P. and which was sold by the Custodian and with respect to which my father, Kamenosuke Natsuhara, is now making a claim was the sole property of my father. And I hereby certify that I paid over to my father all monies paid to me by the Custodian being proceeds of sale of said radio." Signed, "K. Natsuhara," and witnessed by myself.

I have spoken to my learned friend and he is satisfied to have that filed and it won't be necessary to call the son.

20 MR. McTAVISH: That is correct, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that as the next exhibit.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. McMASTER: Now, if I might refer to Exhibit No. 1, your honour. The claimant states that the noodle manufacturing equipment was stored at 566 Powell Street, Vancouver, B.C., and the key given to Richards Akroyd and Gall, Limited. The Victor combination radio was turned over to the R.C.M.P. as just stated.

30

K. Natsuhara
In Chief

Q: Witness, you carried on a noodle manufacturing business at these premises prior to your evacuation, is that right? A: Yes, sir.

Q: And all of the equipment and machinery that you now claim for, was that your own property?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: And was it all left at these premises?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you ever have any of it shipped to you or receive any of it? A: No, sir, none at all

Q: And did you ever sell or authorize the sale of any of it? A: No, sir.

Q: Were you ever advised that the premises had been broken into and any parts of the equipment stolen?

A: No, sir.

MR. McMASTER: Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the personal property which was sold was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that where the claimant has claimed for something which was not sold, that his claim is exorbitant. It is further submitted that the personal property was in the custody of someone other than the Custodian appointed by the owner, and in that case the Custodian is only liable from the time he assumed custody.

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend like to say who?

MR. McTAVISH: Richards, Akroyd and Gall.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: I show to you, witness, a J.P. form dated the 22nd day of June, 1942. Is that your signature on that form? A: Yes, sir.

Q: Did you complete that form?

A: First time, Mr. Swensen, a member of Richards Akroyd and Gall, he made out this form, and I ask him; then I went to the Custodian at Powell Street and a lady was there who spoke Japanese fluently and she forced me to make another J.P. form and 10 Mr. Thornethwaite, he advised me, "Don't do it again," but when I went to Custodian's office at Powell Street and asked them to stamp out my registration card -- you know, the registration card -- she forced me to make another form again, otherwise, she wouldn't stamp it out for me.

Q: Which one is this? Is this the original one?

A: Well, its just the same thing.

Q: Both the same? A: Just the same

20 thing, because the other one was just the same one.

Q: And at the same time did you put in this letter?

A: This is my sign, all right, yes.

MR. McTAVISH: I would ask to put in as one exhibit, your honour, the J.P. form signed by the claimant and a letter to the Custodian, also signed by the claimant, dated June 20, 1942.

THE COMMISSIONER: You had better attach the letter.

MR. McMASTER: May I see that? (Handed to Mr. McMaster)

(J.P. FORM AND LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

30 MR. McTAVISH: Q: Witness, you left these articles at 545 Powell Street, is that correct?

A: Yes, but they were moved and stored at 566 Powell Street.

Q: Who moved them to 566 Powell Street?

A: I did, sir.

Q: You did? A: Yes, sir.

Q: And you left them there in charge of Richards Akroyd and Gall?

A: No, in charge of -- I think it is Mr. Pemberton.

10 Q: Who is he? A: Pemberton and Sons, Vancouver -- real estate.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, with regard to the inventories attached to Exhibit 1, the complete set of noodle manufacturing machines, for which the claimant claims $700.00 was sold for $10.00. The two scales claimed for were sold at $1.85 and $1.25, and the claimant claims $10.00 for the two scales. The radio, for which the claimant claims $175.00 was sold for $67.00. With regard to the other 20 items, there doesn't appear to be any trace.

That is all.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my learned friend if he would advise me whether the Custodian ever took any inventory of this man's goods and chattels.

MR. McTAVISH: I am not able to answer that question, your honour. My understanding of the file was that the inventory was taken of the goods at 566 Powell Street, and what was shown to be this man's from his J.P. form were sold and credited to him.

30 MR. McMASTER: Perhaps my friend would undertake, if an inventory was taken, to produce it to me before the proceedings at Vancouver.

MR. McTAVISH: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my friend if there was an appraisal made of this man's goods and chattels before they were sold.

MR. McTAVISH: I am not able to answer that question.

MR. McMASTER: Perhaps my friend will undertake to produce such an appraisal to me before the hearings in Vancouver if there is one.

MR. McTAVISH: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: Can my friend advise me when the Custodian first visited these premises after evacuation?

MR. McTAVISH: There is no record on the file, your honour, either.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, I understood you to say that you signed two J.P. forms, is that correct?

20 A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember how many days elapsed between the signing of the first J.P. form and the second one?

A: Must be about three, four days.

Q: I see.

MR. McMASTER: With respect to Exhibit No. 3, your honour, I draw your attention to the fact that the letter which was filed with it is dated June 20, 1942 and refers to a J.P. form made that day. The J.P. form which my friend has filed is dated June 22, 1942, two days later, in which the claimant states that he voluntarily turns over to the Custodian all his property in the protected area.

30

That is all.

MR. McTAVISH: Just one more thing, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Have you got a further question?

MR. McTAVISH: I just want to refer once more to the J.P. form that my friend referred to -- no, there are no further questions, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: That is all.

Additional Comments, if any:

the Victor combination radio was my property. I was unable to turn it in to police myself and my son did so. The police issued a receipt to him and when the radio was sold the custodian remitted proceeds to my son Kaoru. He has accounted to my son same. In estimating values I have allowed for depreciation on used articles.
