PART 1, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER T99

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE M.M. COLQUHOUN, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

10

Vernon, B.C.

April 29, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF KOMAKICHI TAMAKI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

20 APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq., appearing for the Dominion Government.

R.J. McMASTER, Esq., appearing for the Claimant.

---

T.J. MARRION, Esq., Secretary to Vernon
 Sub-Commission.

MRS. I.C. SMITH, Official Interpreter

G. HAMBLETON, Esq., Official Reporter.

30

K. Tamaki
In Chief

MR. McMASTER: I would like to call, first, Komakichi Tamaki, No. 221 on the original list.

KOMAKICHI TAMAKI, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. McMASTER: In this case, your honour, I would ask leave to amend the chattel claim, to reduce it to $910.00. The claimant is not claiming all of the goods that were sold by the Custodian, and I will have to advise the Commissioner later as to the amount to be charged against that in the Custodian's favour.

10

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct me to prepare this statement with regard to your personal property with respect to which you are claiming, and is this your signature?

A: Yes, it is.

20 Q: And on the back of that statement are chattels listed. Are the values shown at the right-hand column your estimate of the fair sale price at the time of your evacuation?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I ask to file that as Exhibit No. 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. McMASTER: Referring to that exhibit, I would draw your honour's attention to the fact that the list of most of the chattels is on the back. The cohoe net has been dealt with separately on the face of the exhibit. The claimant states that all of the goods and chattels were left at B.C. Packers, Deep Bay Cannery, and were taken into storage by the Custodian, and he states that as far as he can check, all goods listed on the back and also the cohoe net are included in all or one of the following, that is, his J.P. form or in the inventory taken by the Custodian when he took the goods into possession, or on the auction sheets of sales. He points out that he had many other chattels in the 10 19 boxes as declared by him, but he is unable to identify them in particular, and therefore he is not claiming for these. He states that the beds with respect to which he is claiming were quite new and in good order. The tables were also in good order. It therefore appears to him that the goods abandoned by the Custodian must have been someone else's goods.

30

Does my friend wish to file the Analysis of Personal Property claim?

20 MR. McTAVISH: Yes, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: I file on behalf of my learned friend, the Custodian's Analysis of Personal Property claim as the next exhibit, and would point out that some adjustment needs to be made in the amount credited to the Custodian by virtue of the limitation of the claim.

(CLAIMS ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend produce the J.P. form, please? (Handed to Mr. McMaster)

30 Q: Witness, I produce to you what is known as a J.P.

form, or a declaration of your property dated May 6, 1942. Is that your signature on that form?

A: Yes.

Q: And did you give the Custodian the information contained in there?

A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I file that as the next exhibit.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

10 MR. McMASTER: I ask my learned friend to produce to me the auction sheets in this matter. Perhaps he will be good enough to admit that these are the auction sheets with respect to the sale of the property of this claimant from the Custodian's file.

MR. McTAVISH: That is correct, your honour.

MR. McMASTER: And I ask to file those as the next exhibit.

(AUCTION SHEETS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

20 MR. McMASTER: I would like to point out again, your honour, the reference made in the claimant's statement that he showed on his J.P. form 19 boxes of goods and the Custodian inventoried them as goods on hand at 992 Powell Street, but from the sale sheets or from the inventory the Custodian took it is impossible now to ascertain what was in those boxes and the claimant notes he had many other goods at Deep Bay where he lived, but he can't specifically identify them, and therefore we are required to abandon them, or abandon the claim.

Your witness.

30 MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that the personal property which was sold was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that where the claimant has claimed for something which was not sold, that his claim is exorbitant.

10 Referring to Exhibit 1, I would just like to refer to a few items there. The two beds shown, for which the claimant claims $35.00, one was sold for $11.00, one was abandoned. One couch, for which the claimant claims $10.00 was sold for 50¢. One
10 couch for which the claimant claims $15.00 was sold for $7.00. A kitchen table, for which the claimant claims $10.00 was sold for 35¢. Another table, which I take to be the mahogany table, for which he claims $5.00, was abandoned. Gramophone, for which the claimant claims $10.00 was sold for $3.00. Four chairs, for which the claimant claims $3.00, there were five chairs sold for $2.25. The sewing machine, for which the claimant claims $50.00, was sold for $40.00. Two pairs of rubber boots, for which the 20 claimant claims $15.00, were sold for $2.00. Two Coleman stoves, for which the claimant claims $5.00, were sold for $1.00. Several other items on the list are hard to reconcile with the list put forward by the claimant, your honour.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Did you leave this cohoe net, for which you claim, at your residence when you were evacuated?

A: Yes, I did.

30 Q: At Deep Bay?

A: Deep Bay.

Q: Who did you leave it with? A: I left all the things at the school teacher's house. There were ten families who had left everything there.

Q: And you left this coho net there as well?

A: Yes, everything he possessed he left them there.

Q: Who did you buy this coho net from?

A: B.C. Packers. He bought it from B.C. Packers.

Q: Was it a new net when you bought it?

THE INTERPRETER: I didn't quite catch that.

10 MR. McTAVISH: Q: Was it a new net when you bought it?

A: It was perfectly new.

Q: Had you used it at all? A: I used it for four weeks, and I put it away as the season was over.

Q: Had it been damaged at all when you were using it?

A: No, it was not damaged at all.

Q: When did you -- may I see Exhibit 3, please? -- on the 6th day of May, 1942, you made out your J.P. form. Where were you at that time?

20 A: Lillooet.

Q: How long before this had you left Deep Bay?

A: I was in Vancouver for two months, and then I went to Lillooet, and there I was two years.

Q: Was it two months after you left Deep Bay before you filled out this J.P. form? A: Yes.

Q: Was this list in the J.P. form the first list of your chattels which you gave to any representative of the Custodian? A: Yes.

MR. McTAVISH: That is all.

30 MR. McMASTER: Your honour, I draw attention to the Custodian's Claims Analysis which has been filed as an Exhibit, that in the inventory of May 8, 1942, the second column shown as "goods on hand at 992 Powell Street, Vancouver," the Custodian admits having the fish net which he apparently neglected to define.

10 I would also point out that in that list of things that the Custodian admits having, there are two sets of bed ends, two sets of bed rails, and two springs and mattresses, which would sound as if there were two beds.

Now, the Custodian, then, in the details of claim says that he sold one bed and spring and that he abandoned three beds and springs.

Now obviously -- that is a matter for argument, I suppose. I just draw that to your attention.

20 Likewise, it shows tables in the inventory. The claimant claims for two tables shown sold for -- what is it? -- 35¢ or some ridiculous price like that in the sales slips, and he also shows two tables as abandoned. Now, I draw that to your attention as well.

Likewise, there is one couch shown in the inventory of May 8, and the Custodian sold one couch for $7.00, and sold another couch for 50¢, if I am not mistaken.

That is all.

THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you, that is all.

Description of Storage of Goods:

Left at P.C. Parkers Deep Bay Cannery & taken into storage
by the Custodian.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above:

As far as I can check all goods listed on back were included in all or one of the following: my J.P. form, Inventory of the Custodian at auction sheets. I had many other chattels in the 19 boxes declared but I am unable to identify them in particular and therefore am not claiming for these.

Additional Comments, if any:

The beds with respect to which I am claiming were quite new & in good order. The tables were also in good order. It therefore appears to me that the goods abandoned must have been someone else's.
