H. Yamamoto
In Chief.

MR. COBUS: The claim, your honour, of Yamamoto, Heiza-buro. I am calling Harue Yamamoto, the wife of the claimant in this case.

(MRS) HARUE YAMAMOTO, a witness called on behalf of the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

10 MR. COBUS: Your honour, in this case it has been necessary to call the wife of the claimant, Heiza-buro Yamamoto, because the husband is a paralytic and is incapable of speech.

I would ask leave to amend the claim, which is a claim for fishing nets and lines, now showing the total value as $1351.00 and the credit to the Custodian as $368.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: How is that reduced? The statement shows $503.46.

20 MR. COBUS: No, your honour, the items and figures appearing on the front side of the claim form should be deleted; that is improperly filled out.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see.

MR. COBUS: ~~It~~ is a claim for personal property in the nature of fishing nets and lines. The claim is now $1351.00, and that is not an increase, because we now show the credit as $368.00, and the net claim of $983.00.

30 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

H. Yamamoto
In Chief

Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement concerning the nets and lines for which your husband is submitting a claim. Now, was that statement prepared on your instructions by Mr. Leckie, and is that your mark? A: Yes.

Q: In your statement you make reference to a list of nets and lines for which your husband has submitted a claim. Is this the list to which your statement makes reference?

10 A: Yes.

Q: How was it possible for you to give the information contained in the statement and in the list concerning these nets and lines?

A: I took these from a document whereon these nets were outlined.

Q: And who prepared this document, witness?

A: My husband made that list prior to his illness.

Q: And to the best of your knowledge and recollection, is the information contained in your statement and in the list true? A: Yes.

20

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: The witness says that the nets and lines claimed were left at the Phoenix Cannery net house at Steveston, B.C. She says that depreciation has been allowed and that her husband is a paralytic and unable to appear before the Commission. The details in connection with these nets and lines were prepared in consultation with her husband, and the information was supplied by him, and she has explained how that information was supplied, your honour.

30

Would my friend produce the Analysis of Personal Property Claim?

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

MR. COBUS: The Analysis is filed on behalf of the Crown, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit 2.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Four of these nets, Mr. Cobus, are shown as "Not found". They were probably stolen?

MR. COBUS: "Declared, not found," yes, your honour, that is how the Analysis reads. We have abandoned, your honour, the two items under the column, "No Record at Any Time," that is, the line and lead, 220 fathoms which was claimed originally at $60.00; that has been abandoned, as well as the original claim regarding the last item which was estimated at $50.00. Those two items have 20 both been abandoned.

With respect to the items shown under the heading "Other sales," in the Analysis marked Exhibit 2, we are not claiming against any item therein.

THE COMMISSIONER: Those are all abandoned.

MR. COBUS: Those are all abandoned, your honour. I gather from column 1 that this man was in possession of a fishing boat, but he did not submit a claim therefor.

H. Yamamoto

Discussion

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: Mrs. Yamamoto, how long were these nets put away before evacuation?

A: They were put in storage at the time of evacuation.

Q: What was done with the nets to prepare them for storage?

A: They were bluestoned and prepared for storage.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

10 MR. MACDONALD: I submit, your honour, that the personal property that was sold was sold for its fair market value.

On checking through the file, your honour, I find a memorandum here of J.D. Mather. I would just like to read the remarks of Mr. Mather. "This man was the President of the Japanese Buddhist Mission, the property of which is dealt with under a separate report. I found it very hard to obtain any information from him as he does not speak very good English, in spite of 20 the fact that he has lived in Canada for the past 25 years. Interviewed the Phoenix Cannery with regard to the nets and obtained this list from him as appears as per the inventory, but this was submitted without any responsibility on their part as to the accuracy of same, they having accepted the accuracy of Yamamoto himself."

Now, on the J.P. form, which I think should be filed in this matter, your honour, under the heading of "remarks," --

30 THE COMMISSIONER: That is her J.P. form, is it?

MR. MACDONALD: I think she should answer that question.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. MACDONALD:

Q: Whose signature is that?

A: This is my husband's signature.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit 3.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

MR. MACDONALD: What I would like to draw to your 10 honour's attention in this matter is that under the heading of "remarks" appears this note:
"The Cannery is taking care of fishing nets and row boat for the declarant during his absence.
Declarant is President of the Buddhist Association and their properties are listed at the back of this form."

MR. COBUS: That is something else.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cobus, I notice in the J.P. form here that this man has also made a claim for the 20 property belonging to the Buddhist Mission. Is there a separate claim for that.

MR. COBUS: I don't think so. The J.P. form, your honour, was the form declaring the property, of whatever nature it might be, to the Custodian, but it was not in the nature of a claim, that is, a man may have left property behind him, but he may have received it, he might have taken some of it with him, he might have had it shipped to him.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, but there is nothing in this

H. Yamamoto
Discussion

claim at all that refers to the claim of Heizaburo Yamamoto, with reference to the nets and so on; there is nothing here at all.

MR. COBUS: I will just look at that, your honour.

10 He declares his own property here, and this refers to his capacity as president of the Buddhist Association. But no claim is being submitted, as far as I know, with respect to the Buddhist Association. In any event, I presume that will be treated as a company claim if it were submitted, and those are all to be heard in Vancouver before Mr. Justice Bird. I would say that portion of the J.P. form has nothing to do with the claimant's individual claim here.

THE COMMISSIONER: No.

MR. MACDONALD: The only matter in this connection is that it was left in the care of the manager of the Phoenix Cannery and, as I stated before, the manager did not check on these nets, but took 20 Mr. Yamamoto's own statement for them.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see. That is all, thank you, Mrs. Yamamoto.

MR. COBUS: Might I have one word -- my friend has raised the question of in whose care these goods were left, and of course we submit that, once declared to the Custodian, "in whose care" merely means the location of the property, because it wouldn't matter very much if Mr. Yamamoto gave certain property to somebody else, it vested in 30 the Custodian, nevertheless. However, that, I

H. Yamamoto
Discussion

think, can be dealt with in Vancouver.

MR. MACDONALD: That can be dealt with later.

THE COMMISSIONER: We don't need to concern ourselves with that.

That is all, Mrs. Yamamoto.
