JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

Lethbridge, Alberta,
April 1st, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF
MORIHEI MURAKAMI.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

Original.

CASE NO: 494.

IN THE MATTER OF THE "INQUIRIES ACT"

PART 1, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER 99.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER).

Lethbridge, Alberta,

April 1st, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MORIHEI MURAKAMI.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
W.E. HUCKVALE, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,	Secretary.
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
T.P. HORROBIN, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. HUCKVALE: I take it my learned friend wants to proceed with the Murakami claim, my lord. I am ready with whichever one he wants to take first.

THE COMMISSIONER: Which will suit you first, Mr. Hunter?

MR. HUNTER: Murakami is all right.

MR. HUCKVALE: Before calling the witness, my lord, I would like to refer to the original claim because there is a small amendment I want to make. The reason for the amendment, sir, is the usual one of a pump and pipe being sold with the real property, and also because certain crops were claimed as a chattel. So, therefore, in round numbers, sir, I want to raise the value of the real property from $15,175.00 to $16,000.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is the sale price correct, $2340.00?

MR. HUCKVALE: I am not sure at the moment whether that takes in these commissions,and so on, or not.

MR. HUNTER: I will just check that, my lord. The sale price was $2342.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: $2342.00.

MR. HUCKVALE: Correct. Now, sir, on the back of the claim form he claimed household goods and farm implements at $3292.00. That will have to be amended by reducing it by $350.00, plus $200.00 being the pipe and pump.

THE COMMISSIONER: $550.00, is it?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes. Then he will have to abandon his claim for the tomatoes which were sold, it will appear later, and for the shallots and potatoes. In fact, he will abandon all the claim from where it says, "crops-tomatoes" down, because I have included it in real estate.

THE COMMISSIONER: What is a "shallot", as a matter of curiosity?

MR. HUCKVALE: It is a small onion, I am informed, sir, a very tasty dish to people who like onions.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will reduce your chattel claim to $2754.00.

MR. HUCKVALE: That is correct, sir.

Now I should also advise my learned friend that I have changed the real property form somewhat and if you will give me back the one I gave him, I will give him one that is up to date. The change is very minor. I will call Mr. Murakami.

THE COMMISSIONER: This is a Salt Spring Island property, is it?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, my lord, largely dealing with greenhouses and chicken houses.

MASAYOSSI MURAKAMI, a witness on behalf of the claimant herein, being first duly sworn through the Interpreter, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Can you get along in English partly at least, Mr. Murakami? A: I will try.

Q You are a son of Morihei Murakami, the eldest son, I believe? A: Yes.

Q Q Have you authority from your father to present this claim on his behalf? A: Yes, my father is an out patient at the hospital.

Q Has he given you authority to appear here?

A Yes.

Q And your father owned part of the east half of the west half of Section 4, Range 2, East, North Division of Salt Spring Island, about 21 acres?

A Yes.

Q Now with respect to that real property, I believe you have on behalf of your father signed this form, is that correct? A: Yes, that is right.

Q And have you read it over? A: Yes.

Q And is it true to the best of your knowledge, recollection andbelief? A: Yes.

Q And that is your signature here?

A Yes.

Q Signed on behalf of your father?

A Yes.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. HUCKVALE: Now the form states, my lord, that the cost price of this land was $2800.00. I can produce for my learned friend's inspection the agreement for sale dated the 1st of December, 1927, where some people named Thomas Rehill and Amelia Rehill sold to Murakami for $2800.00, the land, payable a thousand dollars in cash, $600.00 the 1st of December, 1928, a similar amount the 1st of December, 1929, and a similar amount the 1st of December, 1930.

Q Have you been on that land, Mr. Murakami, since the date of purchase by your father?

A Yes.

Q And have you assisted him since the 1st of December, 1927? A: Yes, sir.

MR. HUCKVALE: Now, will my learned friend produce the appraisal?

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

Q I want to show you some photographs, Mr. Murakami. Is that a picture of the dwelling house which is mentioned in your real property form (producing)?

A Yes.

Q Can you tell me roughly when that picture was taken?

A 1941.

MR. HUCKVALE: I submit that, my lord.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

Q Now, Mr. Murakami, the appraiser mentioned your greenhouse. Is that a picture of part of your greenhouse? A: Yes.

Q And can you tell me when that was taken?

A It was taken about 1936.

MR. HUCKVALE: 1936. I submit that, my lord.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

Q Can you tell me what that picture is (producing)?

A That is the tomatoes growing in the greenhouse.

Q Can you tell me when that was taken, approximately?

A About the same year, 1936.

MR. HUCKVALE: I submit that, my lord.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

Q Now I believe also you grew strawberries, did you not? Is that correct? A: Yes.

Q Is that a picture of your strawberry fields (producing)? A: That is right, yes.

Q Can you tell mewhen that was taken?

A It must have been taken around 1935 or 1936, I am not sure.

MR. HUCKVALE: I submit that, my lord.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

Q There is just one more picture. What is that?

A That is the tomatoes taken, too.

Q Is that taken inside of the greenhouse?

A Yes.

Q That is the tomato crop in a well advanced stage in the last picture. Do you remember the year that was taken? A: I don't remember but around 1938, I believe.

Q You have a note on the back, May, 1937. Would that be correct? A: Yes, I think so, 1937 or 1938.

MR. HUCKVALE: I submit that, too, my lord.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

Q I believe at the time of evacuation, Mr. Murakami, a lease was arranged between you or your father and certain other farmers with a man named Chew, is that correct? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: Perhaps my friend would produce his copy of that lease, sir.

MR. HUNTER: There is the lease and the assignment.

MR. HUCKVALE: This, sir, is a lease arranged between a man named W.L. Chew as lessee, and three other farmers as lessors, one of the three being this claimant's father. Apparently the lease was some time after evacuation, and that is in October, 1942, assigned apparently with the permission of the Custodian toa third party. I put that lease in, my lord.

(LEASE MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8).

Q Can you tell me, Mr. Murakami, who arranged that lease with Chew? A: Mr. Gavin Mouat.

Q Mr. Gavin Mouat, and where does he live?

A He is living on Salt Spring Island.

Q Had he anything to do with the office of the Custodian?

A Well I understood he was one of the -- what do you call him?

Q A representative, is that what you mean?

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I have heard his name before.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Your father signed that together with the other people, but who introduced Chew to your father, as far as you know?

A Mr. Gavin Mouat.

Q Did your father have anything to do with any tenant on the place other than this man Chew? He had nothing to do with any successor to Chew?

A No.

Q Now the appraiser, in his report, Mr. Murakami, says that this farm of yours was too far from outside markets. Where didyou market your crops?

A Mostly Vancouver and Victoria.

Q Did you have any difficulty in selling them at any time? A: No.

Q Was it an expensive market to reach?

A No.

Q What did your crops consist of? What revenue did you get from this farm -- from what source, I mean? You had tomatoes, and what else?

A Tomatoes, strawberries, asparagus, loganberries and raspberries.

Q Did you go in for chickens at all?

A Yes, we had 1300 to 1500 just before the evacuation.

Q Where would you sell your tomatoes?

A Mostly Vancouver.

Q And your strawberries? A: Strawberries to Victoria.

Q The strawberries to Victoria, and tomatoes to Vancouver? A: Yes.

Q Was that a regular custom? Did that happen every year with every crop? A: Yes.

Q What about the other small fruit such as logans?

A We sold mostly to Victoria.

Q And your chickens? A: The chickens, we sold to the local store.

Q To the local store on Salt Spring Island?

A Yes.

Q Now in your form concerning the real property, Mr. Murakami, you have detailed the cost of sheds, barn, chicken houses, and brooder houses to a total of $3,334.25. Have you got any papers showing how you made up that total? A: Yes.

Q Are they here? A: Well, yes.

Q Can you get them for me? I have them, have I?

A I think I left them with you, yes.

Q Does that page show how you calculated the number of board feet of lumber? A: Yes.

Q And of shingles? A: Yes.

Q And of wire and glass? A: Yes.

Q And that is a recapitulation of the amount of shingles, is that correct?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will put this whole series of estimates in as one exhibit. It just explains how he arrived at those figures.

THE COMMISSIONER: A cost calculation, is that it?

MR. HUCKVALE: That is right, sir. I have detailed it on the claim form, but this is in greater detail. I put it in as one exhibit.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9).

Q Now I believe I asked you also, Mr. Murakami, to prepare a detail of how you arrived at the cost of your greenhouse, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q First of all I would like to show you a plan. Did you prepare this? A: Yes.

Q And of what is that a plan?

A That is the side of it.

Q The side elevation of a greenhouse?

A That is right.

Q Can you tell me how you supported these posts for your greenhouse? A: Yes, with cement foundations.

Q The posts were set in cement? A: Yes.

Q Can you tell me what this barrel shown here is?

A This is the heating system, 3 40-gallon barrels connected together.

Q Is that an actual side elevation of a greenhouse on your farm? A: Yes.

Q As shown in that picture that you put in?

A Yes.

Q And this plan shows what? A: The back and front.

Q The back and front elevation of one of your greenhouses? A: Yes.

Q Now were all the greenhouses on your place constructed in accordance with those designs?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will submit that, the side and either the front or back entrance of the greenhouses as constructed on this farm.

(DIAGRAM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 10).

Q Now you are claiming a total of $3975.00 for the greenhouses shown in here, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Do these sheets show how you arrived at the cost of the materials for those greenhouses?

A Yes.

Q Do they show any details? A: Yes.

Q And can you tell me from that what you arrived at for the cost of the material, without counting labour? A: Well, $4,975.79.

Q That is what you figured the material alone cost you? A: Yes.

Q And that is set forth in detail in these figures which are all together here? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will submit that showing the cost of the material in these particular greenhouses, my lord.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 11).

Q Now, you are also claiming for a living house in the sum of $3000.00, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And in your claim you say it contains six rooms and has a sun porch? A: Yes.

Q Is this the way you estimated the cost of that living house? A: Yes.

Q And on the front page you have recapitulated it to show the materials to be $1985.30.

A Yes.

Q Freight charges, $97.00. Labour, $1500.00, total $3582.30? A: Yes.

Q And this second sheet shows the lumber and other materials used? A: Yes.

Q And this is the shingles (indicating)?

A Yes.

Q And this is the floor covering, and so on?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I tender that, sir, in support of the claim for the living house.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 12).

Q Now in compiling those figures, Mr. Murakami, for the sheds, chicken houses and for the greenhouses and for the dwelling house, have you allowed anything in case you might be mistaken?

A Well, yes.

Q How have you done it?

A I done it myself.

Q You did it yourself? A: Yes.

Q Do you think you could build those various buildings for the amount of material you have shown?

A Well, I believe you got to add at least 20% more.

Q You should have to add about 20% more than the figures you have shown? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I think I have fairly well covered the other points in the appraisal in this real property form, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: There is just one thing. Did you read over this appraisal and see the age that the appraiser has given for your buildings?

A Yes, I read this all.

Q Is he right in any single case?

THE COMMISSIONER: I think your question might be put a little differently so as to be less leading.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Can you tell me whether he is right or wrong on the ages here?

A Well I think they are practically all wrong to me.

MR. HUCKVALE: There is one other item, sir. Perhaps my friend will admit that the assessed values in 1942 of this property were land, $1700.00, and improvements $2000.00, a total of $3700.00.

MR. HUNTER: That is correct, my lord.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: On behalf of your father you are also submitting a claim for loss of personal chattels. Is that your signature on this form?

A Yes.

Q And have you read the form over?

A Yes.

Q And is it correct, to the best of your recollection and belief? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I file that, my lord, as Exhibit 13.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 13).

MR. HUCKVALE: Perhaps my friend would put in, my lord, the inventory taken by Mr. G.C. Mouat, at evacuation, and if he would now file also the claims analysis, I think it would save time.

MR. HUNTER: You just wish the inventory, or do you wish the list of goods shipped to Mr. Murakami as well?

MR. HUCKVALE: We can put them in one at a time, if you like. I was going to refer to that, too; also a letter from Mr. Mouat to Mr. R.G. Bell, dated the 29th of January, 1948.

THE COMMISSIONER: Now what have we, Mr. Hunter, with these documents you have handed to the Secretary?

MR. HUNTER: The letter mentioned by my friend, my lord, and an inventory of things shipped to the claimant, and an inventory which was made by Mr. Mouat apparently back in 1942.

MR. HUCKVALE: And the claims analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: We will mark this first series of documents, the letter and the inventories, as Exhibit 14.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 14).

MR. HUCKVALE: I think we might attach to that, sir, the list of goods shipped to Mr. Murakami.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, they are all together, the letter and the two inventories, one of goods shipped and the other of the total contents.

MR. HUNTER: And the analysis, my lord, will be Exhibit 15.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 15).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Mr. Murakami, you have seen the inventory that Mr. Mouat took?

A Yes.

Q Is that correct? A: Yes.

Q And you have had sent to you the auction sheets showing the various articles sold by the Custodian?

A Yes.

Q And you have also seen the list of goods alleged to have been sent to your father by the Custodian?

A Yes.

Q Did you receive all those goods? A: No.

Q Can you just tell me which ones were not received?

A We did not receive -- it says 2 levels here, but we only received one.

Q Two levels, and you only received one?

A Yes, and there is 3 filing sets, two filing hammers and 20 files, and I only received about a dozen files and 2 filing sets and it says 2 drills and 27 drill bits but I only received about half a dozen drill bits. I think that is about all there is.

Q And the rest of that list, do you acknowledge having received it? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: You will note in the personal property form, my lord, that I have tried to give credit for the things that we did receive.

THE COMMISSIONER: You might ascertain from the witness whether or not he reported to the Custodian's representative the fact that these goods were not received.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Did you write to the Custodian in any way, or communicate with him in any way about these goods that you did not get?

A No.

Q You just let it slide, did you?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: Now, I don't know whether your Lordship will want before you the list of goods which were sold at auction, but if my learned friend would file it, I think it would help you to understand the next batch of papers I am going to put in, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: Possibly the Custodian's analysis contains the same information.

MR. HUCKVALE: It would be much easier to follow it from the auction sheet.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well, put them in.

MR. HUNTER: My lord, I submit it would be rather unfair to have me put in the auction sheets now, when I have never seen until this morning what my friend is proposing to put in, and I have never had a chance to make a proper analysis and we will need them.

MR. HUCKVALE: I can let you follow on this so you will understand it, and my learned friend will understand what I am trying to do.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is there any reason why the auction sheets should not be received as Exhibits now and released to you later? That would meet the situation as far asyou are concerned, Mr. Hunter?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well, I will receive the auction sheets.

MR. HUNTER: There are four sheets, my lord.

(AUCTION SHEETS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 16).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Mr. Murakami, have you prepared these sheets which are headed "List of Chattels sold by the Custodian"? Have you prepared these?

A No.

Q This is not the auction sheets. Take a look at them. Who prepared them? You have seen these.

A Yes, I have seen that.

Q You will notice this one starts, "6 boxes of greenhouse glass", and so does this (indicating), and it ends up with "1 shoe last"?

A Yes.

Q Is that a comparison of yourvalues as compared to the selling prices as shown on these auction sheets? Is that correct? A: No.

Q Well, tell me just how you arrive at those figures? A: This box of greenhouse glass is about $7.00 a case.

MR. HUNTER: I am sorry,I can't hear this witness.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Will you speak louder so my friend can hear you? A: Well, 6 boxes of greenhouse glass, I estimate at $42.00, or $7.00 a case.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: $7.00 a case?

A Yes, that is in 1942.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: How much did the Custodian sell them for? A: The Custodian sold them for $4.00.

Q And what do you figure, therefore, your loss to be? A: About $38.00.

Q Have you shown that with all the items on that auction sheet -- the first page?

A Would you mind if I got the interpreter, please?

Q Yes. I just want to know about the typewritten white sheet.

THE INTERPRETER: The question you asked was has he shown the whole of the list in the same way as the first item, and the answer is yes.

Q Now would you turn to the second page of both the yellow and the white sheets, and has he shown the second page of the auction sheets transposed onto the white sheets and shown his list in the same way as on the first page?

A Yes.

Q And is that true of the third page of both the orange coloured and the white sheets?

THE COMMISSIONER: Does it apply to the whole list?

MR. HUCKVALE: It applies to the whole list. That is the way it has been done. He has taken it a page at a time, so if you have the orange coloured sheet you can follow it right through with the white sheet. A: Yes, the whole list has been shown on that basis.

MR. HUNTER: Now how many sheets are there?

MR. HUCKVALE: There are four auction sheets and four white sheets. I am filing the white sheets, my lord.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 17).

MR. HUCKVALE: In other words, that shows his estimated loss on the chattels which were sold at auction, and that totals $298.60. He has totalled them on the sheets.

Q Now then, I want to show you, Mr. Murakami, these sheets (producing). Were they prepared by you with the assistance of the members of your family?

A In consultation with my father and other members of the family, this was compiled.

Q And what does it represent? A: This is a list of tools and various equipment.

Q And what happened to them? A: They were not sold.

Q Yes. Now, will you turn to the page of those sheets,-- oh, before I do that, do the figures on the sheets represent your estimate of the value of each individual item shown?

A Yes.

Q Now, will you turn to the sheets headed "loss on lumber"? A: Yes.

Q Can you tell me if you are prepared to swear that that amount of lumber was left on your place?

A Yes, I am prepared to swear that, and there is no mistake.

Q And you have given, as I understand you, credit for the amount that was sold at the Custodian's figures? A: What was that exactly?

Q I want to find out if he has given on that sheet the amount oflumber sold by the Custodian.

A Yes. It amounted to $32.25, which leaves a net total loss of $268.25.

THE COMMISSIONER: Incidentally, Mr. Huckvale, was the lumber inventoried by Mr. Mouat?

MR. HUCKVALE: I believe so, but I will have to check that.

MR. HUNTER: There is some lumber inventoried, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All I am concerned with is, did he estimate the quantity of lumber there?

Yes, I see he did.

MR. HUCKVALE: On his own inventory, which I think is much easier to follow than the analysis, he has in No. 5 house a very large quantity of lumber. It is on about the last sheet of his own inventory.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I see it. He assumes to estimate the measurements of the lumber left there.

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Now I believe in those sheets that the Interpreter holds, Mr. Murakami, you havegot a sheet covering crocks and beds.

A There are 20 jars here. Clocks or crocks?

Q Perhaps I can find it easier. It may be in the other one. May I see the other exhibit with a similar list to that? I probably have the sheet mixed up, sir. This is his comparison of the auction sheets (indicating). Would you ask him if he will look at that sheet, please? Can you just explain what that sheet shows? that is Exhibit 17?

THE WITNESS: A: The amount of crocks sold by the Custodian is one 8-gallon crock and 3 20-gallon crocks sold for $14.25 -- no, $10.25 -- no, sold for $10.75, so that loss is $14.25, and the rest of itfon the beds is a total loss of $25.75.

Q Can you just tell me what your estimate of the loss is on those items shown on that sheet?

A $14.25 and $25.75.

MR. HUCKVALE: May I tender this, my lord, as an exhibit. This is a series of sheets headed "list of chattels not sold."

THE COMMISSIONER: There was pilferage in this instance, was there, Mr. Hunter?

MR. HUNTER: I would think so, my lord.

(LISTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 18).

MR. HUCKVALE: Perhaps I can recapitulate these figures for you, sir, they are not on the personal property claim. It works out on the list of chattels not sold to $2140.70.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is the claimant's valuation.

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, sir. The loss on the chattels that were sold is estimated to be $298.60, the loss on the lumber, $268.25.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is on lumber sold.

MR. HUCKVALE: Part was sold and part lost, sir, yes, $268.25. On the crocks and beds, some of which were sold and some not, $25.75, and then you will find in the sheet, sir, that he gave credit for $195.00 on the pump and $350.00 on the pipe, a total of $545.00, which would leave a remainder of $2187.30, if my arithmetic is good, which I think it is.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I won't stop to check your arithmetic now.

MR. HUCKVALE: I did it in quite a hurry and I wouldn't swear to its accuracy. My only submission, sir, is that this vast quantity of goods must have disappeared because the inventory was taken by the representative of the Custodian and I can't find any other way to work it out.

THE COMMISSIONER: It seems that way.

MR. HUCKVALE: Your witness, Mr. Hunter.

THE COMMISSIONER: Would you like to have a little time to consider this, Mr. Hunter? We can take a recess now, or would you prefer to proceed?

MR. HUNTER: I think a recess now would be fine, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, we will recess for ten minutes.

(PROCEEDINGS RESUMED AFTER SHORT RECESS)

MASAYOSSI MURAKAMI, resumed the stand, testified further as follows:

MR. HUNTER: It is submitted, my lord, that the real property was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that the chattels which were sold were sold for their fair market value. Insofar as the chattels not sold were concerned, my lord, I have no submission at this time to make because I have only just seen this (indicating) and I don't know quite what to do about it. I understand this man lives in Moose Jaw and has to go back there, but in view of the fact that the claim filed is in general terms only and the man carried out your Lordship's instructions for the filing of claims, I think we should be allowed to reserve the right to cross-examine him.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is there any possibility of your being ready to cross-examine him if he should appear in Moose Jaw? That would give you roughly nearly ten days.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, I think it would be possible to do that.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: Could you be available in Moose Jaw for cross-examination if Government counsel should desire to cross-examine you there? Perhaps you better interpret that to him.

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Huckvale, that may put you at a disadvantage. I appreciate you cannot be there yourself but perhaps you will trust me to see he is adequately protected from Crown counsel.

MR. HUCKVALE: I am quite willing to do that, my lord, but I might point out with reference to my learned friend's statement that since January, 1948, he has known what was not sold. He had his inventory and auction sheets, and what was not sold is the difference between the auction sheets and the white sheets.

THE COMMISSIONER: It may be the Custodian was somewhat derelict but he has a very heavy task here.

MR. HUCKVALE: That may be, but if there is an implied criticism of me--

THE COMMISSIONER: He is not criticizing you, but these things are bound to happen im the nature off a proceeding such as I am conducting now. Suppose you proceed, Mr. Hunter, as far as you can with your cross-examination and I will ask the witness to attend in Moose Jaw at the Court House at 2:30 on the afternoon of the 8th of April.

MR. HUNTER: Possibly the witness will leave an address so if I don't need him, I can let him know.

THE INTERPRETER: 946 Albert Street.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is the 8th of April. The 8th is a Thursday. You will add that to your list at Moose Jaw, Mr. Secretary, please. All right, Mr. Hunter, you may proceed as far as you can go.

MR. HUNTER: I do think in fairness to the Custodian it should be pointed out that the claim was filed in November before the Custodian had this inventory, therefore there was no possible way he could have correlated the inventory to the claim made. Obviously the claim based on the present inventory is an entirely different claim from the claim originally filed.

THE COMMISSIONER: I am not greatly concerned with that.

Neither of you are being charged with having omitted to do anything you should have done, or with having committed any act that was improper.

MR. HUNTER: Thank you, my lord.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Mr. Murakami, how old are you?

THE WITNESS: A: Myself?

Q Yes. A: I was born in 1912, 36.

Q And you were about 22, I take it, then, when your father bought this property?

A Yes.

Q Now these hothouses that were heated by oil drums --

A Yes.

Q I suppose there was an ordinary tin pipe from the oil drum through the roof?

A Yes, that is right.

Q And the fuel that was burned was wood?

The fuel for the use im the oil drum was wood?

A Yes, that is right.

Q And the wood had practically all been cut off your property? A: No.

Q How much was left on your property? (Question Interpreted).

THE INTERPRETER: A: I can't figure it out exactly, but there wasn't a great deal.

Q The great proportion of it had been used by your father and used im stoking the stoves in the greenhouse, isn't that so?

A We didn't use our own lumber for the greenhouse, we bought it elsewhere.

Q I am talking about the fuel that you used to stoke your oil drum stoves in the greenhouse. You had already taken the great majority of fuel wood off your land, isn't that correct?

A He used very little of his own lumber.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is the word "lumber" causing confusion? Counsel is directing his question to the availability of firewood in order to heat these greenhouses. Where did he obtain his firewood to heat the greenhouses?

THE WITNESS: A: We used to buy it from other people and pay so much stumpage.

Q Stumpage? A: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: Q: In other words, you had used most of it on your own property long ago? That is correct, isn't it? Most of the firewood you could have got off your own property had long since been used?

A Yes.

Q Now this stoking with wood required fairly constant attention, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q You didn't have any hot waterpipes or steam pipes throughout your greenhouses?

A No.

Q And this heating with drums is spotty, isn't it? That is certain parts of your greenhouse are hotter than other parts?

A Well that is why we connected three drums together.

Q Yes, but in the immediate area or vicinity of one of the stoves, it is obviously warmer than it is ten feet away or twenty feet away. (Question Interpreted).

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Now just clarify his answer. I take it what he means is this, that recognizing that there wouldn't be an even heat, if one drum was used alone, he used a battery of drums in order to equalize it.

THE INTERPRETER: He used three, yes.

MR. HUNTER: Q: And on a cold night how often would you have to look at these drums and re-fuel them?

THE WITNESS: A: Just once a night.

Q When would that be? A: That would be around 2 o'clock in the morning.

Q Now you were very exact as to the quantity of lumber left on the property. I presume you took that from the inventory made by Mr. Mouat, is that correct?

A From my own figures made before I was evacuated.

Q Now you had a complete list of things which you made before you were evacuated?

A Yes.

Q I see. Did it correspond to Mr. Mouat's inventory?

A I didn't receive a copy of Mouat's inventory before I was evacuated.

Q And have you that complete inventory which you made before you were evacuated here with you?

A Yes.

Q Would you mind producing that, please?

MR. HUCKVALE: I think there must be some confusion. The one I have is apparently the one made by Mr. Mouat.

MR. HUNTER: This is Mouat's.

MR. HUCKVALE: That is the copy he supplied to me. That is the only one I have. The only one he has given me is an exact copy of Mouat's. I am sorry. Here it is. I think, my lord, this might be filed as Exhibit 19.

THE COMMISSIONER: Will you have him identify it for the record?

MR. HUNTER: Q: I produce to you four sheets, Mr. Murakami. Do they contain an inventory made by you previous to your evacuation?

A Yes.

Q And this was the inventory of all your chattels, tools and equipment on your father's place on the island? A: That is right, yes.

Q And was the list made by you or by your father?

A Well, it was written by my wife.

Q This is your wife's writing, and who gave her the facts? A: Father and I.

Q That is you dictated it to her and she wrote it down? A: Yes.

Q And you have had that inventory ever since you were evacuated? A: Yes.

(INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 19).

Q Now this property of your father's, it was rolling with quite a bit of rock, is that so?

A Well in some places.

Q It was rough territory? It was just farming in pockets, isn't that so?

(Question Interpreted).

THE INTERPRETER: A: It was cultivated in parts.

Q Yes, in different places, just whereever the soil was.

THE WITNESS: A: Yes, that is right.

MR. HUNTER: I think, my lord, I will have to reserve the chattel situation until I have a chance to study it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. HUNTER: I wonder if I could have the auction sheets, Exhibit 16, my lord, and which Exhibit was it which was the inventory made by Mouat? Oh, that is Exhibit 14.

THE COMMISSIONER: Do you require your analysis as well?

MR. HUNTER: No, I have my analysis, my lord. I would also like Exhibit 19, the inventory by the claimant. If the Secretary would make a note, I have withdrawn Exhibits 14, 16, 18 and 19.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, Mr. Murakami. We will adjourn this claim until April 8th at 2:30 at Moose Jaw.

(PROCEEDINGS ADJOURNED UNTIL APRIL 8th, 1948)

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings herein.

(PROCEEDINGS RESUMED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT).

MR. HUNTER: My lord, in case No. 494, Morihei Murakami, which for the purposes of cross-examination was set over to Moose Jaw--

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: --I think so far as the father's claim is concerned, we can dispose of it now. I have had a chance to go over the exhibits and in connection with the list of chattels not sold with the exception of one obvious error on page 2 where it says "2 garden hose at $24.00," my friend suggests that the decimal point is out and it should be $2.40.

MR. HUCKVALE: I have spoken to the man with regard to that, sir, and that is correct.

MR. HUNTER: Aside from that, and aside from the values about which we don't agree, these things were inventoried and have disappeared, that is the items set forth in Exhibit 18 in the list of chattels not sold.

THE COMMISSIONER: The articles shown in Exhibit 18 were declared, were they?

MR. HUNTER: In any case they were inventoried, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, or inventoried and were not sold.

MR. HUNTER: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: There the inference being that they were lost, destroyed or stolen, is that correct?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, or possibly abandoned.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: In connection with the list of chattels which were sold and which are shown in Exhibit, the Exhibit before that, my lord,--

THE COMMISSIONER: You spoke of Exhibit 18, surely that is wrong. I thought there were only 10 exhibits in this case.

MR. HUNTER: No, 19, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, I am noting this on the wrong one; I am sorry. What was the claim number again?

THE SECRETARY: 494, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: I am sorry. Yes, proceed, Mr. Hunter.

MR. HUNTER: In connection with Exhibit 17, which contains the sheets showing the estimated loss on chattels sold at auction, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: We have made a summary of that, and goods which the claimant values at $447.60 were sold for $160.00. There was in that list a limited number which may well have been considered as some of the items sold. An example of that, my lord, would be the pipe fittings. While we show pipe fittings as having been sold for a dollar, where they are claiming for $10.00, it is quite possible that a box of nuts and bolts which sold might have been pipe fittings, and there are a certain limited number of items like that that could have been considered as having been received.

THE COMMISSIONER: What were your figures of the claimant's value?

MR. HUNTER: $447.50. We sold items which totalled $390.00 and while I concede it would be limited to the type of thing suggested, notwithstanding that, a certain number of them could have been included a and added to the $447.50.

THE COMMISSIONER: In the circumstances, will it be necessary for young Murakami to come to Moose Jaw?

MR. HUCKVALE: My lord, he tells me he has a small personal claim of his own at Moose Jaw, anyway.

THE COMMISSIONER: So that he is going to be present in any case?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, my lord, he is going to be present in any case. It has nothing to do with the present one, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Anything further in connection with this matter?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord, I would like to return Exhibits 14, 16, 18 and 19 so that the Secretary can't claim that I have them.

THE SECRETARY: Thank you.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. HUNTER: And that is all in connection with that matter now, my lord.

Comments re Appraiser's report not covered by above information:

Inventory taken by Custodian's agent G. Mount as at evacuation (on Custodian's file) shows 7800 tomato plants, 1½ ac. strawberries, 2 ac. asparagus, logans and raspberries, shallots and potatoes. The lease of this property was arranged by this agent. While the lease provided that the lessee took the crop it did not give the lessee any property in the plants themselves. This fact the appraiser entirely overlooks. This same inventory also describes the buildings, many of which are overlooked by the appraiser.
Later property was leased by Custodian to one F. Stevens under arrangements unknown to claimant.
Claimant says at time of evacuation farm was in excellent condition and crops in good shape, within a few weeks of harvest.
Claimant says water supply was adequate and good even in summer.
Dwelling house had running water in kitchen, electricity, contained 6 rooms and sun porch.

Sheds, barn, chicken houses and brooder houses are estimated to have used in building:

Lumber, 125,800 bd. ft. @ $20. per 1000 bd. ft.	$2516.00
Shingles 146,060 @ $3. per 1000	438.25
Nails, 2 tons @ $x 7¢ per lb.	280.00
Wire net, glass windows, hinges,	100.00
	3334.25

Claim for these Buildings amounts to $3175.00

Thus claim for buildings is much less than actual cost of materials, excluding labour.
Claim for greenhouses is based on $500. per 2000 sq. ft. and claimant's son will submit figures showing this is less than cost of construction, exclusive of labour.
Claimant says greenhouses were well constructed and maintenance costs light. Claimant states greenhouses had a long life. Approx. 30 yrs. from date of evacuation.

Appraiser's report shows a value less than original cost of land in 1927 and less than assessed value. Claimant says there was a ready sale for land on Salt Spring Island even in its raw state at prices considerably in excess of the amount he paid.

This land was purchased with $1000. cash payment. Subsequent profits have paid out the balance of $1800., built all the buildings described herein, paid for all the chattels claimed, paid for a truck and brought up his wife and family of 3 children.

Claimant had between 13-1500 poultry, which he was forced to sell at evacuation.
Claimant states farm made a profit each year even during the depression.

Claimant's original claim included crops etc. as chattels. He therefore increases his claim for real property from $15175. to ~~$17500~~ $17888. He reduces his claim for chattels by the value of the Fairbanks Morse Pump ($195.) and the value of the underground pipe ($350.)

Farm Appraisal Report

Remarks: Property fairly well located on the main road about 1½ miles West of Ganges, but has a poor outlook and is a cut-up slope or side-hill with the 6 acres cultivated in severed parcels. Remainder is rough cleared, stony, or shale pasture or scrub and stumps.

The water supply from seepage wells is about adequate, but stagnant and poor quality in summer. An electric pump is used for forced pressure in the dry season but the flow is mainly gravity to the dwelling and greenhouses at other seasons.

The greenhouses on wood post and sills are of cheap construction and are at the stage that maintenance costs will be heavy. It is problematical if they will be operated to any extent in future or that they are worth much more than the value of the glass in them. There are no hot water pipes and the heating system is simply oil drum stoves. There is no fuel left on the property.

The International Produce Co. Ltd., Vancouver, a Chinese firm, is renting this and one or two adjacent properties for $3000.00 for this season. Details of the lease can be obtained through Custodian.

(FOR ORCHARD LANDS ONLY)

REMARKS: re general lie of land, fertility of soil, irrigation, drainage or dyking and reclamation.

Lies South of Ganges road on a cut-up undulating slope just above a narrow valley. Fairly fertile light shaly clay loam soil with fair natural drainage down slope.

Mr. R. G. Bell,
Administration Department,
Office of the Custodian,
506 Royal Bank Bldg.,
Hastings and Granville Sts.,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Re: Your File 3275

I received from you copy of a letter written to Mr. Morihei Murakami, dated January 10th, and on looking over my old records I find that the enclosed is a copy of the inventory of goods as left by the said Mr. Murakami on his property at the time that he was evacuated in 1942.

As you will know, certain items were shipped from Ganges on October 20th, 1942, to Mr. Murakami, c/o B. C. Security Commission at Vancouver. This shipment consisted of one box of tools, 1 crosscut saw, total weight was 30 lbs., and I presume you have a list of these goods on file. However, I am enclosing a copy of this list for your information.

I think you will also find by the records that Mr. Murakami authorized the sale of a wood sawing machine and some blades and your records will show the proceeds for this was $190.00. The balance of the goods went to auction sale and should show in the reports as made by your Messrs. Carlson and Anderson.

Hope this will supply the information you require.

Yours truly,

SALT SPRING LANDS LTD.
