M. Kishiuchi,
In Chief.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 567, Shigeru Kishiuchi.

MOICHI KISHIUCHI, a witness called on behalf of the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Mr. Kishiuchi, you have a claim with respect to a fishing vessel? A: Yes.

Q And I will show you this form (indicating). Will you tell me if that correctly describes your fishing vessel?
10

A Yes, I understand it.

Q And have you signed that form? A: Yes.

Q And are the particulars given in it true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will tender that form with respect to the claim concerning the fishing vessel, sir.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q Now you tell us that you bought that fishing vessel in 1941, is that correct?
20

A Yes.

Q Can you remember the month that you bought it?

A About May.

Q How long did you use it altogether before you were obliged to turn it in to the Navy?

A I used it for about two years before the Navy took over the vessel.

Q You bought it in May, 1941. When were you evacuated? A: In May, 30 1941.

M. Kishiuchi,
The Chief.

Q He was evacuated in May, 1941. Just ask him again because I think he is confused in his years.

A 1942.

Q Well, you bought it in '41, in May, and you were evacuated in May, 1942, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q So that you could have only used it one year, isn't that right?

A Yes, for one year. I had used it for one year
10 and it was the second year that I was evacuated.

MR. HUCKVALE: Now I take it my friend will want to file, sir, the Naval valuation or the marine valuation on this thing.

MR. RICE: The survey report.

(SURVEY REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. HUCKVALE: So far as that report is concerned, I believe the form I have filed covers the criticisms I make of it.

20 Now, sir, I want to deal with the other chattels that this man is claiming for, but before I do so I would point out that there are some reductions that have been made in the original claim and they have been set forth in the form I am about to file. They total $289.00 and are apart from the fishing vessel. The claim for personal chattels will be amended by reducing it by $289.00.

30 Q Now you claim, Mr. Kishiuchi, for some chattels that were set out in the supplement to your original claim which I now show you, is that correct?

M. Kishiuchi,
In Chief.

A Yes.

Q And with respect to those chattels will you look at this form (indicating), please?

A Yes.

Q Has that form been prepared in accordance with your instructions? A: Yes.

Q And are the particulars given in it true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

10 Q And have you signed it? A: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will tender that form with respect to the other chattels, sir.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. HUCKVALE: Now my friend probably will want to file the analysis of personal property.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Now, Mr. Kishiuchi, at the time you were evacuated you were renting a house belonging to a man named Imai? A: Yes.

20 Q And were all these chattels left in that house?

A Yes.

Q I think that is all. Will you answer my friend, please?

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the boat was sold for its fair market value. I am submitting that through the carelessness of the claimant these goods that he is claiming never came into the hands of the Custodian and the Custodian is not responsible for the same and that they are outside of the terms of reference, and if the Custodian is

M. Kishiuchi,
In Chief.
Cross-Exam.

responsible then I say that the claim made for the various items is exorbitant.

I would like to point out, your Honour, that Kishiuchi declared that he was leaving goods on the property belonging to Koichi Imai . The Custodian sent Koichi Imai a list of the chattels found on his property, asking him if they belonged to him and, if not, could he identify the owners. Imai returned the list with the owner's name
10 marked against the various articles. None of the goods were listed as belonging to Kishiuchi, the claimant here. On June 22nd, 1943, Kishiuchi declared some things in his J.P. Form, Shigeru Kishiuchi had declared, and Moichi, the witness here, has not filed a claim . No chattels were removed under the name of Moichi or Shigeru Kishiuchi from this building and what was removed in the name of Koichi Imai could not be identified as belonging to the Kishiuchis'.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: You stored these chattels you referred to in the house of Koichi Imai?

A Yes, I left them in the basement of the house. I was renting the house from him.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q Your key, who did you give that to, Imai?

A Left with Mr. Imai.

Q I show you a statement regarding the purchase of your boat.

A: Yes.

30 Q Did you ever complete that statement, or a copy of

M. Kishiuchi,
Cross-Exam.

one like that?
not a copy.

A: No, I have

Q But did you ever complete that or give the information that is contained in that statement?

A My son may know where it is but I am afraid I do not.

Q Well, do you know anything about that? Is that your document or is it a copy of a document you have?

10 A My son had this copy in his possession; I am afraid I don't know anything about it.

Q Your son had this copy in his possession?

A Yes.

Q Where did he get it?

A I am afraid I don't know.

Q When you declared particulars regarding your boat to the Custodian's office, did you complete a document like that, or, excuse me, declared to the Fishing Vessels Committee, not to the Custodian?

20 A Yes, when I bought it I did give full details of this boat.

Q And that is a copy of the details you gave when you bought the boat?

A: Yes, I believe it is.

MR. RICE: I wish to tender it as an exhibit, your Honour.

(DOCUMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: I also wish to tender as an exhibit, your Honour, a "Summary taken from Vessels Records".

30 MR. HUCKVALE: Taken by whom?

M. Kishiuchi,
Cross-Exam.

MR. RICE: It is taken from the Vessels Records.

MR. HUCKVALE: By whom?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Who made the records?

MR. RICE: It is an analysis from the Custodian's office, your Honour, regarding the vessel.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: Q: How much did you pay for this boat or vessel when you bought it?

10 A I bought it for $450.00, but had to put some more repairs in which cost me about $150.00 before I could use it.

Q Then this statement that you filed to the effect that you paid $550.00 is not correct?

A I paid $550.00 altogether when I bought it.

Q You have already told me that you bought it for $450.00; is that right or not?

A Well that price includes the price of repairs that I had to put in.

20 Q Why did you not put that in the statement that you declared before the Vessels Committee, the declaration that you prepared before the Japanese
Fishing Vessels Committee, Exhibit 5 -- excuse me,
I am misleading him there -- no, it is the value that you placed on it. You valued it at $450.00,
I don't think it shows here how much you paid for it.

A: I realize the figures do not coincide, but that is my explanation of it.

Q What is your explanation?

30 A That the price, the increased price includes repairs

M. Kishiuchi,
Cross-Exam.

I had to put in to it.

Q In this statement I am showing you, and you are looking at Exhibit No. 5 now, you valued your boat before the Japanese Fishing Vessels Committee at $450.00, and you walk in before His Honour here and swear that the value of the same boat at the same time was $550.00. Now, will you explain that?

10 A As there seems to be a little confusion, and it is giving a little trouble, I shall be willing to place it at $450.00.

Q You are very generous.

A The $550.00 is actually inclusive of the repairs which I shall be willing to deduct.

Q In other words, shortly before you were evacuated this boat was valued by you at $450.00 and today you value the same boat at $550.00?

20 A I had placed a value of $550.00 on it and I do place that value of $550.00 on it, but I am willing to forfeit the $100.00.

Q Well, will you explain why it has gone up $100.00 since you first valued it at $450.00?

A I placed the value of $550.00 because I had made several repairs.

Q You had made repairs when you completed the form Exhibit 5?

A: Will you kindly revise the price to $450.00 from $550.00 as there seems to be some confusion?

Q And it seems to be impossible to obtain an answer.

30 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: Were the repairs made on the

M. Kishiuchi,
 Cross-Exam.
 Re-Direct Exam.

boat previous to the time this statement was prepared?

A: Just after I had bought it, bought the boat. Apparently the boat needed repairs when he bought the vessel and therefore he had to make repairs before he could use it.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCK VALE:

10 Q There is just one thing I should get straightened out for the record. Who is Shigeru Kishiuchi?

A He is my son.

Q Well, are you making this claim, or giving this evidence on his behalf?

A Yes.

Q Is he the proper owner of the boat and of these other chattels?

A I had them all turned over to Shigeru there in his name. They are in his name. I was in camp at the time. I was not at home.

20 Q That is all, Mr. Kishiuchi. Thank you.
