THE SECRETARY: Case No. 616, Nariyoshi and Yoshio
Akune.

YOSHIO AKUNE, one of the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. TURCOTTE:

- Q Your name is Yoshio Akune? A: Yes.
- Q You are one of the claimants in a claim arising out of the sale by the Custodian of certain 10 nets at the Coast?
- A Yes.
- Q Fishing nets? A: Yes.
- Q And the other claimant is your father?
- A Yes.
- Q Nariyoshi Akune? A: Yes.
- Q I am showing you a list of the nets describing them, their age, their original value, the value you place on them, what they were sold for and where they were left?
- 20 A Yes.
- Q Is the information in that correct to the best of your information and belief, Mr. Akune?
- A Yes.
- Q Is that correct to the best of your belief?
- A This is my selling price (indicating).
- Q That is what you say they are worth (indicating),
and that is what they were sold for (indicating),
and that is the net amount of your claim (indicating) $594.00?
- 30 A Have you got the list?

Y. Akune,
In Chief.

Q Yes. I mean this claim here of $1235.00
(indicating) is that claim there (indicating).
It is exactly the same, and if it is, is it correct?

A Yes, that is correct. Well that is the one that the cannery manager signed for, some of those.

Q Yes, that is right, and that is the value that you are putting on the nets?

A Yes.

10 Q And that is correct to the best of your information? A: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I will file that as an exhibit.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Where were these nets and lines stored, Mr. Akune?

A They was stored in the cannery net house.

Q In the net house? A: Yes.

Q And were you there when they were stored? Were you present? A: Yes.

20 Q And did you get a receipt for them?

A For the nets?

Q For the nets and lines. A: Well that is the receipt there (indicating).

Q I am showing you a document containing two pages (indicating). What is that?

A That is a receipt from the cannery.

Q That is a receipt from the cannery?

A Yes.

Q Signed by the cannery manager?

30 A Yes.

Y. Akune,
In Chief.

Q That is initialled? A: Yes.

Q I see. And that sets out the nets that you left?

A Yes.

Q The nets and lines? A: Yes.

Q And the price of each net?

A Yes, the selling price.

Q The selling price? A: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I would like to have that marked as an exhibit.

10 (STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. TURCOTTE: And will my learned friend file the analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Were the nets identified in any way? Was there anything placed on the nets to show that they were yours?

A Yes, it was piled in the one place and some of them hanged in the net house.

Q Well was there anything put on the nets?

20 A Yes, there was tags.

Q Pardon? A: Tags.

Q Tags? A: Yes.

Q And what was on the tags?

A My name and dad's name.

Q And you are making your claim based on those values that are in Exhibit 2, the receipt signed by the cannery manager?

A Yes.

30 Q Were those prices discussed at that time? I mean, how did the manager put those prices there?

Y. Akune,
In Chief.

A Oh, that was the selling price, you know.

Q Pardon? A: The selling price.

Q The selling price?

A Yes.

Q But how did you put the price on or how did you arrive at the selling price? Why would he put $160.00 opposite one net there?

A Oh, they had been used; they aren't new nets.

Q Not a new net? A: No.

10 Q Did you talk over the prices?

A Yes.

Q And did you agree upon the prices?

A Yes.

Q That is what I am getting at.

A Yes, we made the arrangement with the manager.

Q I think that is all.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the nets declared were sold for their fair market value. I am submitting that nets undeclared, unknown or 20 lost prior to the 15th of March, 1943, are not the responsibility of the Custodian.

MR. TURCOTTE: I don't quite get that, your Honour. All the nets were declared that we are claiming for and they are shown in the receipt.

MR. RICE: The analysis of personal property does not show it. I am submitting that after receiving the son's net statement on the 15th of March, 1943, other nets were located and sold for their fair market value.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q You sold your own nets, did you not, to the cannery direct?

A I beg your pardon?

Q You sold your own nets direct to the cannery, did you not?

A: No.

Q I show you a statement dated November 17th, 1943, showing nets apparently that belonged to you valued at $415.00.

10 A The Custodian sold those.

Q Well you made your own deal with him, did you not, and the money was paid in to the Custodian?

A I don't know. The Custodian, I guess, sold these nets.

Q The Custodian? A: Sold them.

Q The Custodian says that you sold these nets direct to the Great West Cannery, that you made your own deal about the sale and the price of $415.00. The money probably was paid to the 20 Custodian but did you not make the deal with the cannery?

A No, I got the receipt from the cannery.

Q But you did not make a sale at all to the cannery?

A No.

MR. RICE: I wish to submit that statement, your Honour, as an exhibit.

MR. TURCOTTE: Well, your Honour, that is a statement not signed by anybody.

MR. RICE: No, but it is a statement of what he claims.

30 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Where does the statement come

Y. Akune,
Cross-Exam.

from?

MR. RICE: It is a statement prepared in the Custodian's office from information he has on file showing the nets listed and they are described here with the value on them and showing they are Yoshio Akune's.

Q That is your name, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q And they are nets and lines that were not inventoried by the Custodian but they were sold to the 10 Great West Cannery by the claimant.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: You say that is prepared from information on the file?

MR. RICE: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Why not file the information?

MR. RICE: Well it is just summarized here, your Honour.

MR. TURCOTTE: Well, I am just making this point here, your Honour. My learned friend is asserting something of which he has no proof, is that correct?

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That is apparently correct.

MR. TURCOTTE: And he confronts my client with a statement and says, "There is the proof", and it is not proof at all.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I think it is proper to bring it to the attention of this witness.

MR. TURCOTTE: Oh yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: In order that he may be able to meet it.

MR. TURCOTTE: I think, your Honour, that it should go 30 in possibly for identification, so that it will be on the file.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Are you filing that, Mr. Rice, for identification?

MR. RICE: Yes, that is the net statement. I will file that.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit "A" for identification.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT "A" FOR IDENTIFICATION).

MR. RICE: I have another statement that I wish to 10 submit regarding this witness' father's claim, Nariyoshi Akune.

MR. TURCOTTE: Are these all in the same claim?

MR. RICE: It is a net statement, your Honour.

MR. TURCOTTE: If that is a statement of sale, I think it should go in as an exhibit.

MR. RICE: I think the two statements, one respecting the witness' nets, and the other respecting his father's nets, should both go in. I think they should both go in as exhibits.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: They are statements of the sales?

MR. RICE: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I think they ought to be admitted as exhibits.

MR. TURCOTTE: The first one that was marked as Exhibit "A" for identification is a statement of nets that Yoshio Akune sold direct to the cannery and that has been marked for identification.
What is the second statement? Is it a similar one?

30 MR. RICE: The second one is a statement of the father's nets and the sale.

MR. TURCOTTE: That ought to go in as an exhibit.

MR. RICE: The first one should, too, your Honour.

Just how did you mark it; as an exhibit or not, your Honour. It is the same thing. What is good for one is good for the other. One is a statement of the witness' nets sold to the cannery and the other is a statement of his father's nets that were sold to the cannery.

10 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well I understood it differently.

I understood the first statement that was marked Exhibit "A" for identification was a statement of a sale by the witness to the cannery which he denies making.

MR. RICE: My information is that he sold the nets direct. He says that he didn't.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That is right.

MR. RICE: And that I doubt is right.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: So that it could not be admitted 20 as an exhibit.

MR. RICE: But I am not trying to prove that that statement proves that. The only thing is that that is a statement of the sale of his nets.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well, it may go in as an exhibit with that explanation, Mr. Rice.

MR. RICE: Very well, your Honour.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Exhibit "A" for identification will be marked as Exhibit 4.

(EXHIBIT "A" FOR IDENTIFICATION MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

30

Y. Akune,
Discussion.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: And the second net statement will be marked as Exhibit 5.

(NET STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: I also wish to tender, your Honour, as an exhibit a personal property summary.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: I might be misleading your Honour on this item, and it may be that the Custodian sold this witness' nets for $415.00.

10 Q Your nets were sold for $415.00, is that right?

A Yes.

Q That is it.

MR. TURCOTTE: I would just like to point out before I forget, your Honour, that item No. 7 on the analysis of personal property claim is marked as $160.00. If my checking of those two lists is correct, that is not shown on either Exhibits 3 or 4. Item No. 7 is not down on either of two yellow sheets. I think they are Exhibits 3 and 4.

20

THE SECRETARY: Exhibits 4 and 5.

MR. RICE: Yes, we say it was declared but not found, that particular net.

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes, but it is not shown on either Exhibits 4 or 5.

MR. RICE: If it had been found it would have been shown on those exhibits.

MR. TURCOTTE: The other two are shown unaccounted for. Well, items Nos. 11 and 12 are shown on Exhibit 4 as unaccounted for. Now may I ask another question? Is my learned friend now abandoning what is on the statement, that is on Exhibit 4, that Akune sold his own nets?

30

Y. Akune,
Discussion.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Oh, I understand so.

MR. RICE: I am abandoning nothing. I apparently misled you. I was under the impression from the statement that I had before me that Akune had sold his own nets, that is, the witness Yoshio Akune had sold his own nets direct. As a matter of fact, the exhibit says that but Akune says that the nets were sold by the Custodian for that amount, and he may be correct.

MR. TURCOTTE: I thought I heard you say that you thought that was correct.

MR. RICE: Yes, that might be correct.

MR. TURCOTTE: Here is the position I am in, that I may have to go and get the cannery manager to give some more evidence at the Coast, depending on the position. That is the point, and I think it is very important.

MR. RICE: It would be up to us to get the cannery manager or someone at the Coast.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well are you not suggesting now that the Custodian sold the nets rather than the witness?

MR. RICE: It would appear from what the witness' statement is that he did not sell the nets and that the Custodian sold those nets for $415.00, which he said when I suggested to him that he had sold direct. He said that he did not sell

Y. Akune,
Discussion.

direct. It does not matter, I don't think, who sold them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: And you have nothing to show that this man, of course, did sell them direct?

MR. RICE: No, I have nothing on file.

I may say that I have a letter here written by the claimant, Yoshio Akune, which is dated March 15th, 1943, and that letter says in part:

10

QHaving received a wire from you last summer asking me to sell, was very willing to do so and have wired back so that I am sure it must be sold. If so, please send me the money as at present we are out of work and am short of money for board. It would be appreciated as I am in need of some very soon."

20

That is referring to the nets himself but there is nothing in that letter really that says that he sold it to the cannery. The letter is addressed to the Custodian, really, authorizing the Custodian to sell. That is all.

MR. TURCOTTE: All right, Mr. Akune.

Additional Comments, if any:

Nets and lines were stored with Great West Cannery. A list was made by the Manager and fair selling prices were set opposite each item on the list. The manager gave me a receipt for the nets. Tags with these prices and my name were placed on each net.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 1155

January 12, 1946.

RE: Nariyoshi AKUNE, Reg. No. 05823

CHATELS: The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on April 4th, 1942, and was evacuated on April 14/42, declared 5 nets valued at $500.00 stored in the net house of the Great West Cannery. These were sold for the net sum of $251.00 as per net statement of Dec. 7/43 on file, and the proceeds credited to the account of Mosaburo TERAGUCHI, File 1590, in part payment of a claim of $438.40 filed against the above by TERAGUCHI. This was done in accordance with a request made by AKUNE in his letter of February 27/43.

It is noted that on March 15/43 Yoshio AKUNE, File 4113, a son of the above, sent us in a net form which contained a list of nets belonging to both himself and his father as he did not remember which were his and which were his fathers.

SPECIFIED ARTICLES: A fishing vessel the "DEANNA"/"N.A.", belonging to the above, was sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee on March 28/42 for the net sum of $690.50, which was paid to the above on April 2, 1942. Full details of this are given on Specified Articles Summary on file.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.
