Lethbridge, Alberta,

August 26th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF YOSHIHIRO HIKIDA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

20 APPEARANCES:

G.E.A. RICE, Esq., K.C., appearing for the Dominion Government.

L.S. TURCOTTE, Esq., appearing for the Claimant.

MIS LILLIE THOMAS, Secretary.
 MRS. LUCIE HANDFORD, Official Interpreter.
 S.R. HOWARD, Esq., Official Reporter.

30

Y. Hikida,
In Chief.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 617, Yoshihiro Hikida.

YOSHIHIRO HIKIDA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. TURCOTTE:

Q Mr. Hikida, you are making a claim for loss arising out of the sale of nets, and three rowboats, is that correct?

A Yes.

10 Q I am showing you a statement setting out where the nets were stored and the boats, and so forth, and also showing a statement of the nets; what they were sold for, what you valued them at, the original value, their age, their size, and so forth, and you are making a claim for $689.60, is that correct to the best of your information?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I will file that as Exhibit 1.

(STATEMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

20 MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Now where were these nets stored,

Mr. Hikida?
net house.

A: At the cannery

Q Pardon?

net house.

A: At the cannery

Q At the cannery nethouse?

A: Yes.

Q Where; what place?

Cannery.

A: The Winch

Q Winch Cannery?

A: Yes.

Q And in what town?

A: Steveston.

30 Q Steveston?

A: Yes.

- Q I see; and were you there when they were left?
- A Yes.
- Q And was any identification put on your nets?
- A Yes, got a tag on them.
- Q A tag? A: Yes.
- Q Now you are claiming that these nets were worth about $1275.00 or thereabouts, and in your J.P. form, you remember signing a J.P. form for the Custodian before you left the Coast?
- 10 A Yes.
- Q In your J.P. form you valued eight fishing nets without lines and four fishing nets with lead and cork lines at $900.00. Now how do you account for the difference between what you said they were worth in the form that you signed and what you say they are worth now when you are making the claim?
- A Well it was very complicated, you know, and we haven't any time to estimate all the things.
- 20 Q You didn't have time to estimate it?
- A No.
- Q What was the first word that you used there?
- BY THE REPORTER: "Very complicated".
- MR. TURCOTTE: Q: What do you mean, very complicated?
- A We have to move fast, you know, to evacuate.
- Q Oh, I see. You were in an uproar, is that it?
- A Yes.
- Q I see.. Now what about the boats? I don't think that you included those in the J.P. form.
- 30 A I guess we forgot them.

Y. Hikida,
In Chief.

Q You forgot them? A: Yes.

Q Well in the personal property statement, the last sentence he has in there, "We forgot to include the boats in the J.P. form", and it is in there, or I have got, "We forgot to include them in the J.P. form". Will you just change that, your Honour?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Change the word "them" to "the boats"?

10 MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right.

MR. RICE: On what ground is my learned friend claiming them now if they were not declared?

MR. TURCOTTE: I don't think that these claimants are bound by what was put in the J.P. form. In a lot of cases nothing was in the J.P. form.

MR. RICE: That is a matter of argument, anyway.

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well did they come into the 20 hands of the Custodian, the boats?

MR. TURCOTTE: He has no record of them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I see.

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Where did you leave the boats?

A At the house, too; stored in the house.

Q At what? A: The house.

Q At what house? A: A friend's house. You know there is an empty house down there at the cannery, you know.

Q An empty house at the cannery?

30 A Yes.

Yl Hikida,
In Chief.

Q And that is where the boats were left, is that it?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: Well I presume, your Honour, unless I can show the Custodian got the boats there wouldn't be a claim in this case on the boats.

Q How did you arrive at your values, Mr. Hikida?

A What do you mean?

Q Now, for example, you have a net here, 5-7/8ths x 50 x 400, one year old, valued at $125.00, 10 and you placed an original value of $200.00.

Do you know the value of nets?

A It is about that. You use so much. W

Q Well then the nets become less valuable each year, do they? A: Yes.

Q I see. How long have you been fishing, or how long had you been fishing before you were evacuated?

A I forgot.

Q Well, five years, ten years, one year?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: You can answer that, can't 20 you? How long have you been fishing?

A About five years.

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: And that is 1936?

A Yes, around there.

Q How old are you now? A: 26.

Q Twenty-six? A: 29.

Q Twenty-nine? A: Yes.

Q So that in 1942 you would be 22 years old, is that right? A: Yes.

Q And when did you start fishing? How old were 30 you? A: Let's see. I start

Y. Hikida,
In Chief.

fishing in --

Q --well you went to school, I presume?

A Yes.

Q When did you stop school?

A Grade 8.

Q Grade 8? A: Yes.

Q How old were you then? A: 16.

Q Did you go fishing right after that?

A Yes.

10 Q Well, 16 to 22, about 6 years, all right. You fished every year? A: Yes.

Q Did you buy nets?

A Yes, buy from the cannery.

Q Bought nets from the cannery? A: Yes.

Q So that in the six years you acquired a knowledge of what nets were worth?

A Yes.

Q Is that correct? A: Yes.

20 Q And it is from your knowledge of the value of nets that you have made out this statement?

A Yes.

Q All right.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the claim for nets that were sold, I say that those nets were sold at their fair market value, and the claim for nets that were declared and not found the claim for the same is exorbitant; and I am submitting that the claim for nets of which there is no record of at any time, the Custodian is not responsible for the same.

30

MR. TURCOTTE: You mean the boats. There are no nets
"no record of at any time", just boats.

MR. RICE: According to the analysis there were.

MR. TURCOTTE: Just the two boats.

MR. RICE: No, there is a net in the analysis.

MR. TURCOTTE: "No account" over here, do you mean?

MR. RICE: No, "declared, not found", and then the row-boats, "no record at any time". Excuse me, I guess that is right.

10 I wish to file the analysis of personal property claim, your Honour.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. RICE: I also wish to submit, your Honour, that personal property summary with the net statement attached as an exhibit.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

20 Q Some nets, when they are two years old, are practically worthless, are they not?

A No, you use them.

Q You use them? A: Yes.

Q But you don't buy any nets that are two years old, do you? A: Sometimes you do when you need them.

Q Do you go out and try to buy nets that are over two years old? A: You have to sometimes. You have to buy and go after a certain kind of fish.

30 Q And you buy nets that are two years old?

Y. Hikida,
Cross-Exam.

A Yes.

Q And you know that they aren't any good?

A Well they aren't as good.

Q You mean you have to be a good fisherman, is that it?

A: Yes.

Q When you made your J.P. form you valued your nets at $900.00 and you now value the same nets at $1347.00?

MR. TURCOTTE: That is with the rowboats.

10 MR. RICE: Oh yes, excuse me; it is less $60.00, so that it would be $1287.00.

Q Why have you raised the ante on the prices?

A Pardon?

Q Why have you raised the ante?

A That time, I told you before everything was too complicated.

Q Everything was too complicated and it is better to keep your sights high on the value, is that it?

A No.

20 Q All right. Then in your J.P. form you claim you had eight nets, and in that you say you had 13.

MR. TURCOTTE: No, 12 nets; 8 fishing nets without lines, and 4 fishing nets with lead and cork lines, making 12.

MR. RICE: Excuse me.

Q But you made no claim in your J.P. form for corks, and one hundred and fifty fathoms of lead line whatever. Why is that?

A Didn't I put in with the Custodian?

30 Q What?

A: Didn't I put in the Custodian?

Q Well, I was under the impression that your last two items, or at least Nos. 14 and 15, were included in the first four fishing nets, the lead and cork lines. In your J.P. form you made no mention of 560 corks or 150 fathoms of lead line, did you? I will show it to you.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: When you refer to a J.P. form, are you referring to this original claim?

10 MR. RICE: No, that is the claim form and this is the declaration.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What does J.P. stand for?

MR. TURCOTTE: Japanese Property. That was a form that they were signing as they were being evacuated. They were brought into the Custodian's office and asked what property they had and they sat down and made out these forms and you can well imagine with thousands of Japanese going to the offices in a few days how correct these forms were.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

MR. RICE: Q: On the 20th of April, 1942, you declared you had eight fishing nets without lines and four fishing nets with lead and cork lines valued at $900.00 in the cannery net house of the Canadian Pacific Cannery, Steveston, B.C. Now you file a claim here and say that you have 13 lines, and item 14 shows 560 corks, and item 15, 150 fathoms of lead line.

30 A That is 12, is it?

Y. Hikida,
Cross-Exam.
Re-Direct Exam.

Q Eight. A: Eight and four are twelve.

Q Yes. Is that mixed up, too?

A I guess so.

Q Pardon? A: I guess so.

Q All right.

10 MR. TURCOTTE: Your Honour, I would like my learned friend to file the inventory, if he has not done so, which the Custodian received from this man on December 14th, 1943, in which the corks and the lead lines were listed. I presume that that is probably admitted because it is on the analysis of personal property form, "Net inventory received by Custodian from Yoshihiro Hikida, December 14th, 1943".

MR. RICE: I will file it.

MR. TURCOTTE: It is on the left hand at the bottom.

MR. RICE: This is not the one you have reference to,
is it (indicating)?

20 MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

MR. RICE: The Custodian's office received a form here which I will submit as an exhibit.

MR. TURCOTTE: Well I presume it is admitted, anyway.

MR. RICE: On December 14th, 1943.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It is admitted in the analysis of personal property.

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

MR. RICE: Yes, this form refers to 12 nets, is all that I can count.

30 MR. TURCOTTE: You have 13 on here (indicating).

Y. Hikida,
Discussion.

MR. RICE: It will speak for itself.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: There are 13 nets enumerated on this claim form that is filed.

MR. RICE: I am afraid as a fisherman my learned friend and I will have to leave it to those who are.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: There are 13 referred to in the personal property analysis claim.

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

10 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The witness said he had only 12.

MR. TURCOTTE: He had 12 in his J.P. form. In the J.P. form he declared 8 and 4, but now he says that on December 14th, 1943, when he made a detailed statement of his nets, he then found he had 13.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. RICE: I will file that as an exhibit.

(INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Any further questions, Mr. Rice?

MR. RICE: No.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

Arrangements made for storage when evacuated: The nets were stored in the net house of the B. C. Cannery. Tags with my name were placed on each net. The boats were left at the Cannery.

Additional Comments, if any: The value of nets shown on the J. P. form was merely a guess. Everything was upset and we did not have time to figure up the total value. We forgot to include ~~them~~ ^{the boats} in the j. P. form.

CHATELS: The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on April 20/42 and was evacuated on May 15/42, declared 8 fishing nets without lines and 4 fishing nets with lead and cork lines valued at $900.00 left in the net house of the Canadian Pacific Cannery at Steveston. At our request the above completed and returned a net form giving full details of his nets. Nets tagged with his name were inventoried at the Canadian Pacific Cannery net house by Custodian agent, C. Three of these nets together with 35 lbs. salmon twine and 12 lbs. bluenose cotton twine, were sold direct to the Cannery by the Custodian and the remainder were given Custodian numbers as shown on Net Statement of Dec. 18/43 on file, and sold to private individuals. The total amount derived from sale of nets was $657.40 and this sum was credited to the account of the above with this office. Two nets as noted on Net Statement were neither found nor inventoried by the Custodian.
