L.S. TURCOTTE, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

MISS LILLIE THOMAS,	Secretary.
MRS. LUCIE HANDFORD,	Official Interpreter.
S.R. HOWARD, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 637, Susumu Uyeda.

SUSUMU UYEDA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. TURCOTTE:

Q Mr. Uyeda, you are making a claim arising out of the loss of chattels which you state you had at the Coast before evacuation?

A Yes.

Q I am showing you a statement of the chattels and the valuation that you put on them (indicating). Those are the figures that are shown in sheets numbers 5 and 6.

A That is right.

Q Is that correct? A: Correct.

MR. TURCOTTE: Exhibit 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Now in the original claim you made to the Commission, you set out other losses which you said you had suffered arising out of the sale by yourself of your business and goods?

A Yes.

Q And you attached several sheets to your claim setting out those losses?

A Yes, I did.

Q But the only sheets now in question are sheets Nos. 5 and 6? A: Yes, sir.

Q I am showing you copies of those (indicating).

A Yes, those are the sheets.

MR. TURCOTTE: Will you mark those as Exhibit2, please?

(SHEETS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. TURCOTTE: I understand that the Custodian made an inventory of these articles and forwarded a copy of it to you.

A A Yes.

Q Is that one of the copies sent to you (indicating)?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: Exhibit 3, your Honour.

(INVENTORY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. TURCOTTE: Your Honour, with reference to Exhibit 3 which has just been handed to you, you will note that there are three paragraphs.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. THRCOTTE: The last paragraph referring to goods left in the garage, no claim is being made for those articles inasmuch as from an examination of the file of this claimant's mother, and her name was Tomo Uyeda, --

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: --Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: It would appear that most of these goods in the garage were put in her name and sold by the Custodian in her name.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: Or they are claimed under her file number, so that no claim is being made for the goods in the garage. Our claim is restricted to the store fixtures, shop fixtures, and also a truck.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Now, Mr. Uyeda, you are making a claim for loss suffered from the sale of the truck?

A Yes.

Q Is that correct? A: Yes.

Q When did you buy the truck?

A 1940 or '41.

Q 1941? A: Yes.

Q That is the year before you were evacuated?

A Yes.

Q What price did you pay for it?

A $225.00.

Q After buying it, I note that you have in your claim that you put two new tires, one used tire, and a battery and repairs.

A Yes.

Q Bringing your claim up to $348.00?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now in what condition was the truck when the Custodian took possession of it in relation to the condition it was in when you bought it?

A In better condition than when I bought it.

Q In better condition than when you had bought it?

A Yes.

Q What did you use the truck for?

A Used the truck for hauling machinery and anything like that.

Q I understand that you were engaged in a hardware store and machine shop business?

A Yes.

Q And what did you do in this machine shop?

A Just closed it down and some of the stuff --

Q --No, but what did you do in the machine shop when you were operating it?

A We had contract work for making gurdies and winches and things like that.

Q Gurdies and winches? A: Yes.

Q What are gurdies? A: Gurdies are a machine to pull up the nets on a fishing boat. You take the nets and instead of pulling them up by hand, it is just pulled up by these gurdies onto the boats.

Q And you made those? A: Yes.

Q And you also made winches?

A Yes.

Q And did you do anything with marine engines?

A Yes.

Q Did you repair those?

A Yes, repairing.

Q And you used this truck for hauling ?

A Yes, most of the stuff we hauled with this truck. We were also contracting for welding pipe and other things and we had a contract to do the repairing of what we call the retort .

MR. TURCOTTE: A retort?

A Yes, on a retort and you put a can on it and it is one of the things used on these boats and sometimes that is broken, lots of times those things were broken, and we had a contract to fix that up, a contract from three canneries.

Q Now you claim apart from the truck with regard to store fixtures and shop fixtures, including an office desk, show cases, counters, work benches, pipe and bar racks, wood vices, and you have put certain prices on those articles?

A Yes.

Q How did you arrive at those prices?

A Well, we figured out at the time that we hired the carpenter and had them made and the time that we went in there in 1938, it was '37, no, '38, and figured from there to '41, and we just deducted what we figured the fair usage of it was and put the prices on it.

Q And put the prices on it?

A Yes.

Q That is, you are saying in reality that they cost you more than you are claiming, isthat it?

A Yes.

Q For these articles? A: Yes.

Q So that you have deducted or taken something off, have you?

A What we figured a fair price was on it.

Q When did you figure these prices?

A Before we left there we figured out most of the prices out there but everything was just mixed up and we didn't get those quite right then, and some of the stuff was missing, and then we came to Alberta and after we heard that it was this Custodians cases coming up and we figured it out then.

Q I see. This office desk which you are claiming $75.00 for, what sort of a desk was it and what size in relation to drawers?

A The drawers, there were six drawers, size about 7 x 3, I think. It is an oak desk.

Q An oak desk? A: Yes.

Q Six drawers? A: Yes.

Q That would mean three drawers on either side?

A Yes, three drawers on either side.

Q So that it would be a fairly large desk?

A Yes.

Q In good shape? A: Yes, it was in good shape.

Q Now these three showcases that you are claiming $95.00, what sort of cases were they?

A It is for displaying things and things like that, just like you have at a hardware store, hardware goods.

Q Were they glass? A: Yes, glass.

Q Glass front? A: Yes, glass front and glass top.

Q And glass top? A: Yes.

Q All three of them? A: No, one has only a wood top.

Q One with a wood top?

A Yes, and two has glass tops.

Q And you are saying that these values are a fair value of these articles?

A Yes.

Q All right.

MR. RICE: For the purposes of the record, your Honour, I am asking my learned friend if the claim is now reduced to $695.00, is that the total claim?

MR. TURCOTTE: That is what was being claimed.

MR. RICE: .$695.00.

MR. TURCOTTE: There is no reduction in the chattel claim for property lost, with regard to the claim as filed. I think perhaps my learned friend was confused with all the other documents that were put in to show additional losses which the claimant is not claiming from the Custodian in view of the terms of reference.

MR. RICE: Another item that I notice that you have a work bench and a wall work bench at $45.00 in here.

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes.

MR. RICE: I think that was set out in the J.P. Form as $30;00.

MR. TURCOTTE: I have never seen the J.P. Form. Is that the only change between the J.P. Form and this?

MR. RICE: No, there is another item.

MR. TURCOTTE: If it is the only change it is remarkable.

MR. RICE: The truck power take-off was not declared at all, $24.00. No, it was added to, I see, there.

MR. TURCOTTE: With regard to the work bench, may I see Exhibit 2, please?

(Exhibit 2 to Mr. Turcotte).

I made a mistake there, yes. No, there are two wall work benches. "Work bench, wall work bench, wall work bench", (indicating), and there are three over here, Mr. Rice, "work bench, wall work bench, wall work bench."

MR. RICE: Yes, that is three there.

MR. TURCOTTE: $45.00. And the truck power take-off $24.00.

MR. RICE: I guess I was wrong. Apparently there were three work benches at $15.00 each.

MR. TURCOTTE: In the J.P. form and in ours.

MR. RICE: So that does the claim remain at $695.00?

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes. Apparently the item that is not in the J.P. form, your Honour, is the truck power take-off, $24.00.

MR. RICE: Yes.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes, I see.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the truck was sold for its fair market value.

I am submitting the claim for the power take-off was not declared and the Custodian is not responsible for the same. I am submitting that the articles sold by the Custodian were sold at their fair market value. I am submitting that any items that the Custodian may be held responsible for, that the claim by the claimant is exorbitant.

I wish to submit as an exhibit, your Honour, the police report to which is attached a notice of transfer of the motor vehicle, respecting the motor vehicle, and I also wish to attach to that a summary showing that the truck was valued by McDermott Motors Limited in June, 1948, at $165.00.

I may say also that there were four tenders received by the Custodian for this truck, $175.00, $200.00, $160.00, all of which were rejected, and a final tender of $270.00 was accepted by the Custodian on a truck that was valued at $165.00.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q The office desk was a second hand desk, wasn't it?

A What do you mean by a second hand desk?

Q You didn't buy it new, did you?

A Yes, we did.

Q You bought it new? A: Yes.

Q Who from? A: A firm by the name of Ikeda on Powell Street in Vancouver, and that is in about the 500 block Powell Street, and they had a second hand store and it was bought from them.

Q They ran a second hand store?

A Yes.

Q And you bought a desk from a second hand store and you say that it was not second hand?

A That is right, yes.

Q How much did you pay for it?

A I couldn't say exactly how much I paid for it. I think around $125.00.

Q When did you buy it?

A It was around '34, I think, '34 or '35.

Q '34 or '35? A: Yes.

Q They would have a record of the sale, would they not?

A I think so.

Q What was the name of the concern?

A Ikeda.

Q Pardon? A: I-k-e-d-a.

Q And they run a second hand store on Powell Street?

A Yes.

Q The glass show cases, did you buy those new or second hand?

A Bought them second hand.

Q Second hand? A: Yes.

Q How much did you pay for them?

A That was bought by my father first and then I bought them from him second hand.

Q Did your father buy them second hand?

A Yes. He had a grocery store before that, before 1938.

Q They had been used in a grocery store?

A Yes.

Q By your father? A: Yes.

Q And he bought them second hand previously to that?

A Yes, and I bought them off him.

Q You don't know what you paid for them, do you? or what he paid for them?

A No, I don't know exactly what he paid for them. I think I took 40% off that, if I am not mistaken, when I figured it out.

Q How can you take 40% off, if you don't know what you paid for them?

A That was at the time that we were evacuated and we figured it out then. I think we gave the Custodian a sheet of that at the time of evacuation.

Q Oh yes, you gave him a sheet and you had a big value on everything. You even had $2000.00 for the goodwill.

MR. TURCOTTE: With regard to the values, your Honour, the values shown on the J.P. form are the same as he is claiming today and that was in 1942 when he was evacuated.

MR. RICE: I think his valuations at that time were a bit high. They were really high on some items. There is $2000.00 for goodwill.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I thought that the claim was only $695.00 now. Now you say goodwill of $2000.00.

Q Your suggestion is that there was $2000.00 of goodwill, and you are only claiming $695.00 now?

A The $2000.00 was for goodwill because I had pretty near $6000.00 there.

MR. RICE: The original claim was for about $5000.00.

MR. TURCOTTE: The original claim was not for $5000.00, the claim as filed is for $695.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: This man also pointed out that in addition to that he suffered tremendous losses due to the fact that because of evacuation he was obliged to sacrifice his business and he wanted to bring that to the attention of the Commission and I think that although that is outside of the terms of reference there is nothing wrong in this man showing it.

MR. RICE: The analysis which I will file of personal property will show your Honour that he claimed a gross of $5349.98.

MR. TURCOTTE: The analysis is then wrong because the claim speaks for itself.

MR. RICE: I wish to submit as an exhibit, your Honour, the analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: Q: So that you don't know what you paid for the showcases. Well the wooden counter and drawers, did you build them yourself?

A No, I had a carpenter done it.

Q Pardon? A: I had a carpenter done it.

Q You had a carpenter build them?

A Yes.

Q When did he do it?

A It must be in 1938 or '9.

Q How much did that cost you, do you know?

A Pardon?

Q How much did that cost you, do you know? What did the carpenter charge?

A That was being charged, carpenters were getting a dollar an hour then.

Q Well that doesn't give us much information. I am asking how much it cost, or do you know, the wooden counter with drawers?

A Can I have a sheet to look at it so that I can figure it out?

Q Your memory isn't any good?

A I can't remember everything away down back there.

Q You don't remember. All right.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: In Exhibit 5 there is one wooden counter and drawers and then you have there merchandise drawers and shelves and which are you referring to, Mr. Rice?

MR. RICE: The wooden counter and drawers. He said that he had a counter and that he built it, or had it built.

THE WITNESS: It is the wooden counter and the showcases, isn't it?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Did you have a thousand merchandise drawers?

A No, it couldn't be a thousand.

Q Oh, it is 100, pardon me.

A Yes, 100.

MR. RICE: Q: Is that drawers in a counter or shelving?

A Shelving.

Q Was that bought new or secondhand?

A It was built.

Q It was built in your place?

A Yes.

Q You don't know what it cost you today?

A No, I am sorry I couldn't tell you.

Q The bicycle stand, was that new or something you built yourself?

A Pardon?

Q The bicycle stand, did you build that or buy it?

A We built that.

Q You built it? A: Yes.

Q Just welded a few pipes together?

A We were in that business and we made those things ourselves and we made machines, too.

Q But that was the way that you made it?

A Yes, that is the only way we could make it with pipes or angle iron or things like that.

Q Now you have an item here of office equipment. What do you mean by that?

A Naturally that is desks or equipment like that, anything like that, chairs.

Q You have already got an item here for a desk, have you not, or have you got more than one desk?

MR. TURCOTTE: I think the office equipment is listed on the form, your Honour.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That is on --

MR. TURCOTTE: Exhibit 2.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Shop fixtures and office equipment.

MR. TURCOTTE: On Exhibit 2 it sets out the office equipment, the small things, I think he is under a misunderstanding what my learned friend is referring to as office equipment.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: What is the office equipment? desks or what?

A Like wastepaper basket and files and things like that.

MR. RICE: Q: The work bench and wall work bench, were they made by you?

A Pardon?

Q The work bench and wall work bench, were they made by you or did you buy them?

A That is the $15.00, isn't it?

Q Never mind the price. I am asking you whether they were made by you?

A I can't remember everything offhand.

Q I asked you if you made it and the form you are looking at can't help you a bit.

A I want to know exactly which one you were talking about.

Q What difference does it make? Tell me about all of them. Did you make all of them?

A Yes, some of the items I did.

Q Well, the wall work bench, did you make that?

A Well, the work bench, there are two there and one I did.

Q One you did? A: Yes.

Q And there is another work bench. Did you make that?

A There is one made by the carpenter, a small work bench.

Q Thatshows on the list that you are looking at there, does it? A: Yes, this one must have been made by the carpenter.

Q Why was it made by the carpenter? There are three work benches, and does it say so on there?

A Well, it was made by the carpenter.

Q It shows on the exhibit that you are looking at, Exhibit 2, that it was made by the carpenter?

MR. TURCOTTE: Oh.

A Yes.

MR. RICE: The wood vice, was that new?

A Yes.

Q Was that made new? A: Yes.

Q The pipe and bar rack, was that a rack made to hold pipes?

A Yes, I guess so, it must be.

Q That was something you made?

A Yes, I think so.

Q And the shelves for pipe fittings, was that something that you made and installed in the store?

A No, that was made by a carpenter.

Q Have you got a statement of what you paid the carpenter? A: I haven't. I left it all in the house there. Every bill and everything is in there, and I am sure that the Custodian took care of that.

Q Why would he take care of your bills?

A That was taken care of with, along with the other things, and there was a list made and they told me to send it in to the Custodian, so I did.

Q Now your oil stove, was that made by you or bought? A: The oil stove?

Q You can answer that without referring to that list in front of you.

A I am sure I can't.

Q I asked you who made it?

A The stove part, I made it, and the installed part, the inside part, I bought.

Q So that you made part of the stove?

A Yes.

Q The inside part, that's the part that you made, is it? A: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: He said that he made the outside and bought the inside, and why does my learned friend put words into his mouth?

MR. RICE: He is under cross-examination, and if he can't stand up to it, I don't know why my learned friend should be coming continuously to his rescue.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Of course, Mr. Rice, one cannot or should not suggest to him something that he did not say.

MR. RICE: Well I asked him if he made the stove.

A It is six or seven years ago and I tried to figure out what it is.

Q Well, just answer the questions. If you don't know, just say so. Now the truck power take-off, did you take that off the truck?

A I bought that.

Q You bought it for the truck?

A Yes.

Q Did you install it? A: No, we did not.

Q It wasn't on the truck at all?

A No.

Q You didn't declare that in your J.P. Form?

A I couldn't remember exactly.

Q I show you a copy of the J.P. form (indicating).

A You mean by the J.P. form, is that the one that I made before I left there?

Q The declaration that you signed as to what property you had in the evacuated area.

A No, it isn't in here. There is a kerosene stove in there, too, that I didn't make a claim on.

Q A kerosene heater?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: Perhaps the J.P; form should be filed, your Honour. I would like to have it filed.

MR. RICE: Is a copy all right?

MR. TURCOTTE: Have you not the original?

MR. RICE: I do not know whether I have or not. Yes, I have, or a duplicate.

Q Is that your signature (indicating)?

A That is mine, yes.

MR. RICE: That is the J.P. form, your H onour. The J.P. of the claimant, and he acknowledges his signature on it. I will file it, your Honour.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: All right.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Anything else?

MR. TURCOTTE: No.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Q: When did you buy the power take-off? A: When, did you say?

Q When did you buy the power take-off?

A In 1941.

Q What did you pay for it?

A $24.00.

Q You paid $24.00? A: Y es, it was not used. I just left it there.

Q So that you are claiming the same amount that you paid for it, are you?

A Yes.

Q Didn't you use it at all during the intervening year? A: No, I was going to put it on the truck because we have to hoist a lot of stuff from the boat, and put a winch on it and I bought it to use it but it was left there.

Q Was it brand new? A: Pardon?

Q Was it brand new? A: Yes.

Q Who did you buy it from?

A It is Welsh Auto Wrecking, a place on Main Street there.

Q Pardon? A: One auto wrecking place. I think it is Welsh's on Main Street.

Q On Main Street? A: Yes.

Q In Vancouver?

A Y es.

Q All right, that is all, thanks.

MR. TURCOTTE: Your Honour, I would just like to point out in this case that in the J.P. form there is a claim for goods in the garage amounting to $183.00, which this man abandoned in view of the possibility that it was in his mother's claim.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I have not seen the J.P. form, but was the power take-off listed?

MR. TURCOTTE: No, your Honour, it was not listed.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above:

Additional Comments, if any: The third part of the inventory made by J. D. Mather, agent for the Custodian, dated July 7th, 1942, covering "goods in garage" is not included in my claim as I believe most of these articles were sold bythe Custodian and the proceeds credited to my mother, Mrs. Tomo Uyeda. I rented the store premises from my mother and operated a hardware store and machine shop. I started a store in February 1936, and moved to this building in 1938.

The machine shop was used for repairing marine engines, building winches and gurdies. I had a contract withthe Cannery which totalled $3000.00 to $4000.00 annually.
