(HIS HONOUR JUDGE L. H. STACK, SUB-COMMISSIONER).

Lethbridge, Alberta,

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF SOSHICHI TANAKA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

G.E.A. RICE, Esq., K.C.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
W.S. RUSSELL, ~~A.G. VIRTUE~~, Esq., ~~K.C.~~,	appearing for the Claimant.

MISS LILLIE THOMAS,	Secretary.
MRS. LUCIE HANDFORD,	Official Interpreter.
S.R. HOWARD, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 763, Soshichi Tanaka.

SOSHICHI TANAKA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q Mr. Tanaka, I am showing you a summary of evi dence in support of your claim. You supplied the information for this summary?

A Yes.

Q It was prepared under your own directions and instructions? A: Yes.

Q You believe it is true to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

MR. RUSSELL: I will put that in as an exhibit.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. RUSSELL: Q: I am showing you a picture of a house?

A This is the front.

Q Whereabouts is that house? A: Haney.

Q That is at Haney? A: Yes.

Q Is this the house that you are claiming for?

A Yes.

Q That is the one and a half storey stucco house on page 3, is that right? A: Yes.

Q Which cost $4015.00 to build? A: Yes.

MR. RUSSELL: I will put that in as an exhibit.

(PHOTOGRAPH MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. RUSSELL: Q: You say you cleared five acres of this 8.676 acres near Maple Ridge? A: Yes.

Q And you say it cost you $950.00 to clear it?

A Oh, yes.

Q How did you arrive at that figure? How do you know it cost you $950.00 to clear those five acres? A: It was mostly for clearing the property.

Q And did you pay somebody to do that or was it done by yourself? A: Yes, I did get some help.

Q But a part of it at least is an estimate of your own labour, is that right? A: Yes.

Q What would it have cost you if you had paid somebody else to clear those five acres, have you any idea?

A It would have cost more than that.

Q It would have cost more than that?

A Yes.

Q Who built this house of which I have shown you a picture? A: It was done mostly by carpenters, but we all helped.

Q And the material cost you $3315.00, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And the labour was $700.00. Is that what you paid the carpenter? A: Yes.

Q What about these other buildings, were they built by a carpenter or by yourself?

A I did most of it myself.

Q You did most of it yourself?

A Yes.

Q And you paid this money out for material, did you, this $620.00 for the chicken house, and another chicken house , $351.90, you paid that money out yourself, did you? A: Yes.

Q Did you keep a record of the money that you paid out? A: No, I haven't got anything like that now.

Q But how did you arrive at the figure ? You say the chicken house 18 x 30, which was built in 1936, the material cost you $351.90?

A Yes.

Q How did you come to that peculiar figure, $351.90?

A I remembered the market price of the various items and figured it up that way.

Q I see. And the figures for labour on page 3, are those mostly estimates of your own labour?

A Yes.

Q And this Parcel 2, Lot 3, near Haney, B. C., the ten acre piece? A: Yes.

Q You say you paid $1000.00 for it, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Who did you pay it to? A; To a Mr. Tada.

Q And you say it cost you $1340.00 to clear 6 acres?

A Yes.

Q Now, what does the figure of $1340.00 include? Does it include labour, the work you did?

A Yes.

Q Does it include powder? A: Yes, powder, fuses.

Q Powder, fuses? A: Yes.

Q Well, did you pay somebody $1340.00 to clear that 6 acres? A: No, that was an estimate of my own labour.

Q And the other costs? A; Yes, fuses and caps.

Q Who built the barn? A: I did.

Q Did you pay $550.00 for material for that barn?

A Yes.

Q And what about the labour? A: My labour is not included in that amount.

MR. RUSSELL: Your Honour, I don't think I will make any representations in connection with the personal property.

There is one thing that I should draw to your Honour's attention. There were some items which were struck out at the last minute on the instructions of this claimant, and I would like an opportunity going over the amounts so that it would simply it for the Commissioner. I haven't the actual calculations here, but I will do it, or if I could file it, or amend it in some way, so that he will have actual figures, when this claimant is finished.

MHE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Very well. If you will look, Mr. Russell, on page 3, I think there is an error in the third line from the bottom. It says, "material, $180.00, labour cost, $340.00, total $210.00." The $340.00 probably should be $40.00.

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, I think it should, sir. I will just show this to the claimant here.

Q You see this storehouse here that you built in 1940?

A Yes.

Q The storehouse. The material cost $180.00?

A Yes.

Q And the labour $340.00, and the total comes to $220.00. Your show your labour at $340.00; it should be $40.00, shouldn't it, instead of $340.00?

Is that correct? On your chicken house here your labour cost you $40.00, and the storehouse, which is smaller, you show the cost as $340.00, which doesn't fit in at all, and it obviously should be $40.00, is that correct? You show $180.00 here for material?8 A: Yes.

Q Now, the total amount is $220.00?

A Yes.

Q So the difference would be, labour $40.00, is that right? A: Yes, no 3.

MR. RUSSELL: Thanks very much, sir.

MR. RICE: The 3 should be struck out?

MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

MR. RICE: If it pleases your Honour, I think I should have a copy of any amended personal property claim before I start cross-examining the witness.

MR. RUSSELL: Just some items were struck out on the summaries.

MR. RICE: I haven't got that at all.

MR. RUSSELL: Would you care to use this one? Or the one I am using.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Perhaps, Mr. Russell, you should refer to them now and have them struck out.

MR. RICE: If you will call them I will strike them out. I have had no chance to check the additions or anything else, your Honour. Just what does the claim amount to?

MR. RUSSELL: Unfortunately, I haven't had the opportunity, as this was struck out since I looked at the file myself, and at the end of the personal property claim there is a notification that the claim is so much less than the items struck out, and that is what I was referring to. I would like an opportunity of checking the total over. I will read you the items that are struck out, and apply to amend.

MR. RICE: All right.

MR. RUSSELL: On top of page 1 of the personal property list, 2 beds, $15.00, and the 7th item from the bottom on page 2, 10 Jap. books, $10.00; the 16th item, I think it is, from the top of page 3, small shrine, $150.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Did you say $150.00?

MR. RUSSELL: Pardon me, $1.50.

MR. RICE: Where is that?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The 11th line from the top on page 3.

MR. RUSSELL: The first item under the words "Main Floor" on page 3, and the second item.

MR. RICE: The three piece bedroom suite?

MR. RUSSELL: That is right, and wardrobe, vase, bedlamps, $6.00. And then down about eight lines to Singer sewing machines, $200.00; and then about four items below that, stand, books, $60.00, volume Golden encyclopedia, $25.00, two volumes hygiene books, $15.00, four pictures and frames, $4.00. At the top of page 4, the third, fourth and fifth items, being $12.00, $20.00 and $2.00 respectively. And then about the 12th, encyclopedia and two concise dictionary, $75.00. And then about one-third of the way down, volume of 8 Dominion Educators, $20.00. And then there is a "mauthe" chime clock, just below that.

MR. RICE: What does that mean?

MR. RUSSELL: I don't know. It is struck anyhow. And then five items below that, shrine and accessories, $60.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Just a minute. That is not marked out on my exhibit, "shrine and accessories, $60.00".

MR. RUSSELL: That is struck out.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right.

MR. RUSSELL: That is all the items being deleted. I believe while my learned friend is cross-examining perhaps I can total those up.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: VERY well.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the real estate was sold for its fair market value.

I am submitting that the chattels were sold for their fair market value. I am submitting that any of the chattels that the Custodian may be held responsible in any way for, claimed by this claimant, the claim made to the same is exorbitant.

I wish to tender as an exhibit, two farm appraisal reports, one respecting each parcel of land.

(APPRAISAL REPORTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. RICE: I submit two assessment notices as one exhibit of the Corporation of the District of Maple Ridge, showing the assessment for the year 1942 of Lot 3, land $900.00, improvements $350.00; and then the other parcel, part of the Northwest of 22, the land $500.00, improvements $1600100.

(ASSESSMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. RICE: An analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: A summary of the claim on real and personal property.

(Summary MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: A chattel summary.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

MR. RICE: And two real property summaries, one dealing with Lot 9, and the other with the other parcel.

(SUMMARIES MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8).

MR. RICE: An appraisal dated January 21st, 1944, by C. Spencer Pallot, appraising the value of the lumber.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9).

MR. RICE: A statement of J. Moryson regarding two small incubators, an old kitchen range, and eighteen hothouse frames which were abandoned as being worthless. That is dated January 12th, 1944.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 10).

MR. RICE: And a memorandum or valuation of certain machinery made by National Machinery Company, April 9th, 1945.

(MEMORANDUM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 11).

MR. RUSSELL: The items struck out total to $424.50.

THE SUB-COMMISSONER: How much? $400.00?

MR. RUSSELL: $424.50, so that it would leave the net claim at $1724.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I make it $624.50. The sewing machines alone come to $200.00.

MR. RUSSELL: I am sorry, you are right, sir, $624.50. That makes the net claim $1524.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Your claim will then be reduced by that amount.

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, will be reduced by $624.50.

MR. RICE: So the amended claim now stands at $1524.00 that the claimant is asking for?

MR. RUSSELL: That is right.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you a J.P. form, dated the 20th of April, 1942? A: Yes.

Q That is yours? A: Yes.

Q This list apparently is attached to that, and it says "basement"; was there any other list attached to your form otherx than the one that I now show you? A; I think it was just the one.

Q Just the one page? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender the J.P. form.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 12).

MR. RICE: Q: Before you were evacuated you leased your property to Thomas Mahoney?

A Yes.

Q You leased it for eighteen months for $180.00?

A Yes.

Q In other words, $10.00 a month?

A That is quite a low price, but he was to watch the place for me in return.

Q After your evacuation you sold Lot 9 that you owned? A: Yes.

Q How much did you pay for Lot 9?

A $1500.00.

Q How much did you sell it for? A: I think it was $910.00, or perhaps $950.00.

Q Do you know how much it was assessed for? Have you got the assessment notice for Lot 9?

A It had an assessed value of about $5000.00, but I needed the money, so that I had to sell it cheaply.

Q So that you sold it for $900.00?

A I think it was $950.00.

Q $950.00? A: Yes.

Q What is a Darsnoval machine?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Show it to him on Exhibit 1.

MR. RICE: Q: Here on the 1st page of the list of chattels of Exhibit 1, "Electric Darsnoval machine, $15.00"? A: It is a massaging machine.

Q A massaging machine? A: Yes.

Q How old is it? A: Four or five years old.

Q Four or five years? A: Yes.

Q How much did you pay for it? A: I bought it for $25.00.

Q Did you buy it new? A: Yes.

MR.RICE: I should, perhaps, explain, or take an objection to the list, your Honour, with regard to such things as "carton of personal effects, carton of religious matter, large chest and contents, 13 cartons, tied." It is almost impossible, I should think, for the Commissioner or anyone else to place a proper or fair valuation on such descriptions. I don't want to waste time here in these proceedings to go into these items, but it is my duty to do it, or up to my learned friend to furnish a list that will be at least comprehensive.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: At the time of the evacuation, would the Custodian have a list of those things given to him?

MR. RICE: The Custodian went in and took a list, but he hasn't followed such descriptions as given here. I am referring to the first page of the chattels listed in the summary of evidence, Exhibit 1. And going down that page you will see such items as "carton of personal effects" valued at $5.00, "carton of religious matter" valued at $2.00, "large chest and contents, $8.00; 13 cartons (tied), $16.00; 2 small cartons of wrapping paper, $5.00; 9 bundles of flooring, lumber, $10.00; 2 small tins of oil, $4.00." If I am obliged to go into all these items to find out the quantity of each, or a full description, it is going to take a long time to do it. But every page has similar descriptions.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I do not think it would serve any good purpose if you did with this list.

MR. RUSSELL: I might say, your Honour, this list was handed to Mr. Aoki quite recently entirely in Japanese, and I know that he spent several nights preparing this, and it is a tremendous list now, and I think if we had known that the list was going to be entered like that, I think we would have said, "You can't get down to such fine detail as this". There are several small items, items of 50¢ and less. And I submit if my learned friend wants any more complete breakdown, it is going to make the list extremely large.

MR. RICE: Well, you take something like a set of car chains, $12.00, but a new set only costs about $10.00, but they might be worth it. I don't know how old these are, or the size of the chains or anything else, and certainly there is a lot left out for the Commissioner to consider. On page 2, for instance, there is a dresser with mirror containing personal effects, $25.00; Page 3, "small carton religious matter, $5.00", and below that, "basket of personal effects, $1.00; carton containing electrical supplies, $3.00;" "carton personal effects," etc. Down at the bottom you will observe 4 white bow ties, $4.00. Actually a whole lot will depend on the condition at the time or the vintage of the ties.

MR. RUSSELL: That is so true, sir. It puts the whole thing in its proper perspective to be able to figure it all out. You would have to say whether I bought it in 1925 and wore it to a wedding, and then stored it in paper and wore it to my friend's wedding.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I think it would be very difficult to give an itemized description of these articles.

MR. RUSSELL: Yes, yuur Honour, it would, because there are the intangibles like the use it had, whether antiquated or still usable or what. I think this is more detailed than the Commissioner will want himself.

MR. RICE: Probably it is.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I wouldn't be surprised.

MR. RICE: On page 4, "2 parcels tied, $2.00." I don't know whether the Commissioner wants any more information regarding those two parcels; if he does, it isn't there. "2 standard ash-trays, $10.00", I don't know what the ash-trays are like.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Did the claimant make up the list himself?

MR. RUSSELL: He did, sir; the list is in Japanese.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I mean, did he make the list before he was evacuated?

MR. RUSSELL: I don't know when the list was prepared, sir. Perhaps my friend could ask him. Here is the list (indicating).

MR. RICE: But if I am going to go into it I want to go into it right. For instance, here are "fibre and hair brooms, $4.00." I don't know how many nor how old. But, I mean, there is a large claim here to chattels.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: He had, apparently, a very large establishment there and, apparently, well equipped.

MR. RICE: Q: You have seventeen pieces of half-inch pipe. What were they, sawed-off pieces of other pipe? Was it secondhand pipe that had been used?

A Yes, second hand.

Q Secondhand pipe? A: Yes.

Q And the threads cut off it, I suppose, were they?

A Yes.

Q The threads were cut off? A: Yes.

Q And one item, "wire, $10.00"; how much wire and what kind? A: Raspberry wire, about 200 pounds.

Q What did you do with the two Singer sewing machines you had that you have struck off the list?

A They were sent to me.

Q They were sent to you? A: Yes.

Q You only claimed for two Singer sewing machines in your J.P, form? You only declared two, I should say? A: There should be three.

Q Your form says two sewing machines?

A I bought another machine after making this declaration.

Q Well, you were evacuated just as soon as you made that declaration? That declaration was made on the 20th of April, 1942? A: I bought it just prior to evacuation.

Q What day were you evacuated? A: On the 29th.

Q And between the 20th and the 29th of April, 1942, you bought another sewing machine?

A I bought it between those two dates.

Q Why didn't you take that with you?

A They wouldn't permit me to take it.

Q They let you take two but they wouldn't let you take the other one, the one that you bought?

A They allowed us to bring the two machines, but they wouldn't allow me to take the third one.

MR. RICE: You see the awkward position here, your Monour, as in all of these claims, they have been more or less digested in the Custodian's office, and any such list that has been furnished me as Exhibit 1 has never been in the Custodian's office, and the Custodian's staff have had no chance whatever of checking such a list.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The analysis of personal property claim follows it, I presume.

MR. RICE: Not the list in Exhibit 1, not at all; that was the list that was made by an official of the Custodian's office.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well, they have, apparently, in that list as many items, at least, as there are disclosed in Exhibit 1.

MR. RICE: They have accounted for practically everything, but in this list I don't know whether there is anything missing or not. It is impossible for me to check it.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I notice on page 6, "new saw / crosscut , $2.00"; is that an error?

MR. RUSSELL: I really couldn't say. All I have is the Japanese list and that translation, and we will have to assume that it had been translated correctly by Mr. Aoki, and this list is correct and that this is the claim that he is making.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I never heard of a new crosscut saw being purchased for $2.00, or anything near that.

MR. RUSSELL: No, I certainly haven't myself, sir. I have no way of checking whatsoever, unless we had Mr. Aoki here.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I don't think it will help.

MR. RICE: There is an old kitchen range valued at $25.00 on the same page and that was abandoned as worthless. I have put in evidence to that effect, your Honour.

Q The alarm clock, how old was the alarm clock you had? A: It was about four or five years old.

Q And you have valued it at $3.00; you didn't pay that much for it when you bought it new?

A The alarm clock was quite new. I thought you were talking about the other clock.

Q How old was the alarm clock then?

A About six months to a year before I evacuated it was bought.

Q How much did you pay for it, or doyou know?

A I don't remember correctly, but it might have been about $3.25.

Q $3.25. It might have been $2.50 I suppose too?

A I paid over $3.00 for it.

Q You paid over $3.00 for it? A: Yes.

Q How many crosscut saws did you have, two?

A I had several, at least five or six; some were old.

Q I notice where you have two on page 6 valued at $2.00? And then you have two more on page 7 valued $12.00? A: The $12.00 ones are quite new.

Q What is a "hay set of haimes and tugs"?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: A harness, I imagine.

A It must be a horse and harness.

MR. RICE: Q: A horse and harness. A harness for one horse? A: Yes, one horse.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It is only a part of a harness, the haimes and tugs.

MR. RICE: It says, "hay set of haimes and tugs." I wasn't sure what it was meant to be or what it should be. I suppose that what it should be is a set of harness with a set of haimes and tugs?

A Yes, it was a set.

Q How old? How long had you been using it?

A It was fairly old, about four or five years.

Q Did you buy it new? A: No, secondhand.

Q You bought it secondhand? A: Yes.

Q You could buy a new set for about $20.00, couldn't you? A: I don't think you could buy it at that.

Q The Beatty electric pump and tank; how old is that? A: That was new. It was bought at the time I built the house.

Q When did you build the house?

A I built it between 1940 and 1941.

Q It would be two years old then. How much did you pay for it? A: I think it was $155.00.

Q You paid $155.00 for it and you valued it today at $161.00? A: Well...

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: ...I think he said the pump alone, was it not?

THE INTERPRETER: Just the pump.

MR. RICE: Q: Well, the pump and tank I am talking about. How much did you pay for the pump and tank? A: $155.00.

Q $155.00? A: Yes.

Q And after using it for two years, or a year and a half, it is worth $161.00? A: The pump alone cost me $155.00, and the $161.00 includes pipes.

Q There is nothing for depreciation whatever?

A When I first bought it there were no pipes.

Q You are claiming for four incubators, or is it two? How many incubators did you have?

A We had four but two of them were fairly old and have not much value.

Q What were they, oil burning incubators?

A Yes.

Q All of them were oil burners? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: On page 8, your Honour, you will observe there is 2000 feet of lumber, used lumber and one ladder, and that is valued at $31.00, or claimed at $31.00, and five items below that there is 1500 feet of lumber, and two wheelbarrows. I don't know whether it took so much lumber to make up the wheelbarrows or the ladder. I don't think it is up to me to straighten that out. It is impossible to crossexamine on the claim in the condition it is in.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I don't think so. Is that all, Mr. Russell?

MR. RUSSELL: That is all.

CHATTEL SUMMARY

File No. 4840

Reg. No. 13736

Re: TANAKA, Soshichi

The above Japanese when registering declared his chattels to be only a chesterfield, bedroom furniture and two sewing machines.

TANAKA was evacuated on April 28th, 1942 and on May 16th, 1942 our fieldman doing his primary protection survey to make sure anything left on the property was secure, found that the Japanese had leased his property to a Mr. T. Mahoney, who was found to be very reliable. An inventory of the main items of chattels was taken by our fieldmen at that time and a very complete inventory was later taken on December 7th, 1942 which Mr. Mahoney signed stating that he would be responsible for the safekeeping of the chattels. TANAKA was sent a copy of our inventory on January 9th, 1943 at which time he was asked to identify the owner of certain chattels marked "HISANAGA". His letter of February 11th, 1943 states that this party is Menezo Hisanaka, our file #4833. HISANAGA was written regarding items left at TANAKA's place and an itemized list was received here March 6th, 1943 which enabled this office to separate the chattels owned individually by the two Japanese involved.

On September 30th, 1943 S. TANAKA sent a request to this office through the B.C. Security Commission requesting shipment of a very large amount of his chattels. This was referred to our fieldmen who made shipment which is confirmed by B.C. Security Commission letter of December 1st, 1943 requesting payment of the shipping expenses. $81.29 was paid from TANAKA's account to cover the amount chargeable to TANAKA as instructed in his letter of October 7th, 1943, and the B. C. Security Commission absorbed $12.45 of the cost. On January 16, 1943 the Japanese wrote complaining about a few small items missing from the shipment but as all items not shipped had been sold by auction this office was unable to make a further shipment to him.

In accordance with TANAKA's letter of June 19th, 1942, a Mrs. W. Hayton of Haney, B.C. sold a heater of TANAKA's for $15.00 which sum was sent by her to this office where it was subsequently forwarded to the Japanese.

The remaining saleable chattels were liquidated in accordance with Government policy as follows:

	Net Proceeds
Haney Auction Sale - January 20, 1943	$ 552.23
Lumber sold by appraisal - January 21, 1943	18.00
Sale of Mail box - October 28, 1943	2.00
Box making equipment and supplies sold by appraisal - April 6, 1945	294.00
	$ 866.23

According to our fieldman's report of January 12th, 1943 these liquidations account for all saleable articles with the exception of a large number of miscellaneous boxes and cartons and a glass case containing "Birds of Paradise" considered personal effects, which were placed in our Haney Storage where they still remain. "The Birds of Paradise" were deteriorating in storage because of dampness and moths, and the advisability of placing them in the Vancouver museum was considered. The matter was referred to TANAKA who approved of a loan to the museum in his letter of September 24th, 1944. The trucking companies however refused to assume any responsibility regarding the shipment and in view of the frail case it was decided to leave them where they were.

Two old incubators, 6 bee boxes, 18 cold frames, and an old kitchen range were abandoned on the property as they were considered obsolete and worn out and not worth the expense of handling.

The chattels on this file appear to be well accounted for and TANAKA was advised of the liquidation of them in our letter of October 6th, 1943 to which no objections were taken.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.
