THE SECRETARY: Case No. 765, Hikoichi Tashima.

HIKOICHI TASHIMA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, examined
or testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

Q Mr. Tashima, I am showing you a summary of evidence in support of claim. This was prepared under your direction and instructions?

A Yes.

10 Q You supplied the material to go into this document?

A Yes.

Q You believe it to be true to the best of your knowledge, information and belief?

A Yes.

Q That is your signature at the end?

A Yes.

MR. RUSSELL: I will put it in as the first exhibit.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. RUSSELL: Q: Mr. Tashima, I believe you paid $330.00
20 for parcel 1 of the land that you are claiming?

A Yes.

Q How did you get that land? Who did you pay this $330.00 to?

A: I bought from the municipality through a tax sale for $205.00.

Q Well, how do you make up the balance?

A And then there is another, Lot 31.

Q Yes? A: Known as 31; that cost $125.00.

Q I see. So the total is $330.00 for all the land?

30 A Yes.

H. Tashima,
In Chief.

Q Did you clear 8 acres of this land?

A Yes.

Q How do you figure that it cost you $170.00 per acre to clear the land?

A: That was the cost of the powder and the labour that I had to hire.

Q Did you pay someone to clear the land?

A Yes.

Q And did your cost per acre actually amount to $170.00 and you paid it?

10

A: Yes.

Q And the figure $170.00 does not include the cost of your own labour?

A: No.

Q So that did you do any work clearing this land yourself?

A: Yes.

Q Have you put in any estimate of your own work on clearing the land?

A: No, it is not included.

Q You planted four acres of strawberries, one acre of currants, one acre of rhubarb, and you say that it cost you $72.00 for the strawberries, $15.00 for the currants, and $30.00 for the rhubarb. Now, what do those figures represent? Is that what you paid for the plants, or what you paid for labour, or what?

A That just includes the cost of the plants and fertilizer, but not the labour.

Q Then you show an item, "labour @ $15.00 an acre, $90.00"; is that the labour that was necessary to put in the strawberry plants and the currants and the rhubarb?

A: That is just 30

H. Tashima,
In Chief.

the cost without my own labour.

Q Thanks. Who built the house, Mr. Tashima?

A That was a carpenter that I hired.

Q Did you pay the carpenter $125.00 for his work?

A That is what I estimate would have been the carpenter's cost, the cost for the carpenter.

Q Have you an accurate record of the amounts that you paid the carpenters?

10 A The carpenter was a friend and ~~a~~ neighbour, and he estimated that would be the cost if I had to hire somebody on a professional basis, but I didn't actually pay him anything; he did it on a friendly basis.

Q Is that true of all these buildings?

A Yes.

Q So that these labour costs are not actually what you paid, but what you would have paid out had you employed a real carpenter? A: Yes.

20 Q The cost of the material, is that accurate, or is that an estimate? A: That is an estimate.

Q You estimate the rental value at $600.00 a year.
How do you arrive at that figure?

A I used to get six tons of strawberries per acre, and each year I used to let two of the eight acres lie fallow and used six, and the profit on one acre is about $100.00, which would bring in a revenue of $600.00.

Q Thanks very much.

30 MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the real estate was sold at its fair market value.

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

I am submitting that the chattels were sold for their fair market value. I am submitting that if there is any part of the claimant's claim that the Custodian is in any way held responsible for the claim made to the same is exorbitant.

Apparently everything in this claim has been accounted for with the exception of 20 cords of wood, of which there appears to be no record of, and a two-gallon gas tin that apparently there was no record of at any time.

I wish to submit as an exhibit the following documents: Farm Appraisal Report.

(APPRAISAL REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. RICE: Two real property summaries, submitted as one exhibit.

(SUMMARIES MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. RICE: An analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. RICE: An assessment notice for the year 1943 of the Municipality of Surrey, B.C., showing improvements on this property of $8.50, and of all the land, $750.00.

20

(ASSESSMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: A statement of R. M. Anderson showing a list of chattels, four home-made tables, three bunks, three benches, two mattresses and two kitchen cupboards, which articles were abandoned as being worthless.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you your J.P. form, dated the 18th of April, 1942 (indicating); does that bear your signature? A: Yes.

Q That is the document that you completed as a J.P. form? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender that as an exhibit, your Honour.
(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

MR. RICE: Q: You are claiming for a brooder stove, are you? A: No, I received that.

Q You received that? A: Yes.

Q Before you were evacuated you leased your property to a Mr. Kirkbride, did you not?

A Yes.

Q And what was the rent he was to pay?

A He wasn't to pay rent; he was just to watch it for me.

Q To watch it for you? A: Yes.

Q Was he to get the crop? A: Yes, he was to watch out for it until after the war and he was to have the crop, Q He received the crop in the year 1942 when you were evacuated? A: Yes.

Q And he wasn't to pay you anything for that?

A That is correct.

Q Why wouldn't he pay you for the crop? Wasn't it worth anything, the 1942 crop?

A I had to come away in a hurry, and it was a little late for me to sell the crop to the cannery in any case, so I couldn't help it; I just left the crop

10

20

30

H. Tashima,

for him.

Q You told us today that this place had a rental value of $600.00 a year, and yet you say that you of your own free will leased it to N. M. Kirkbride, and he was to have all the crops for just looking after the property? In other words, he had the place for the duration of the war rent free?

A Yes, that is correct. He was to have the crop and the products in return for looking after the place for me.

Q You buried a number of your chattels under a large stack of hay, a quantity of hay, did you not?

A I don't remember anything about that.

Q Do you recall hiding any of your chattels under a quantity of hay?

A: No, I asked this man to watch this place for me, and there would be no reason for me to hide anything.

Q I have a statement signed by a Mr. R. M. Anderson of the Custodian's office saying that the bulk of your chattels were sold at the first Surrey auction, and giving a list of things that were buried under a large quantity of hay. It is "Lge qu." and I presume that means large quantity. And that list includes an old range, a box of clothes, thirteen sacks of lime, a bundle of shingles, small quantity of tar paper, a quantity of cable and chokers, two axes, steel block, a quantity of tomato baskets, a roll of building paper.

20

Have you any recollection of leaving all or any part of those chattels under a haystack, or 30

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

under a quantity of hay, as it is expressed there?

MR. RUSSELL: I don't think any of this material is subject to any claim. I don't know whether it is relevant or not.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: He is not claiming for that.

MR. RUSSELL: He isn't claiming for it; I don't know why it is being gone into.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: The Custodian apparently received it and sold it.

10 MR. RICE: Q: What is the answer?

A All these things were left in the chicken house and in this chicken house there was some hay, but they weren't hidden under the hay.

Q Well, were they on top of the hay, or was the hay on top of these chattels?

A No. There was several other items which I am not claiming for that disappeared.

Q Oh. I show you a letter apparently written by you to the Custodian under date of December 20th, 1942. Will you look at that document and tell me if that is your signature and if it is a letter that you wrote or had written for you. Is that his signature? He can tell you that? Well, can't he say whether it is his signature?

A Yes, that is my signature.

Q Did you write that letter or did you have it written for you?

A: A young next door neighbour wrote the letter for me.

Q Wrote the letter for you? A: Yes.

A: Yes.

30 Q And under your instructions? A: Yes, under my

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

instructions.

Q And that is your signature to it?

A Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender this letter, your Honour. It is a letter written from Barons, Alberta, December 20th, 1942, to the Custodian,

"I greatly appreciate for your letter advising me to selling tractor.

"Would you mind selling them for three hundred dollars. It is been using only about seventy hrs."

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8).

MR. RICE: Q: That was in answer to a letter that you received from the Custodian on December 11th, wherein he wrote you,

"We would appreciate your informing us if you would be willing to sell your Graveley tractor cultivator and accessories which you stored on Saichi Ito's property.

"Please give this your immediate attention, informing us of the price you want for it."

Did you receive the original of that letter?

A Yes.

Q You received that letter? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender that as an exhibit.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9).

MR. RICE: Q: And when you wrote your letter, it was in answer to that, that is, your letter, Exhibit 8?

A Yes.

30

Q How much did you pay for your land?

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

A $330.00.

Q Did you buy it all from one person?

A No, $205.00 worth of the land was from the Municipal tax sale, and then the other part was for $125.00.

Q The chattels that you are claiming for, your values are a little high, are they not?

A I don't know whether they are high or not, but they are in proportion to the price I paid.

Q You have sworn that they are fair values. Do you mean that, or are they fair values?

10

A Yes, I think they are.

Q Well, a wardrobe that you purchased for $25.00 in 1935, used for seven years, you say has depreciated only $2.00 in value, and you value the same at $23.00?

A: I wasn't considering the depreciation at so much a year. The wardrobe was in very good condition, almost new condition when I left.

Q Seven years old and it was almost new condition?

A Yes. I had never moved it or done anything to it.

Q And the same with your cooking utensils that you have been using for twenty years previous to your evacuation, and they cost you $25.00 and you say they depreciated only $5.00, and you value the same at $20.00?

A It may appear as being twenty years old, but those were not all bought at one time, purchased year by year, and some of them were fairly new.

Q Your statement says they were purchased from 1922 to 1942; that is a period of twenty years?

30

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

A Yes, that is correct.

Q Well, will you explain why you value a tractor at $320.00 that you authorized the Custodian to sell for you at $300.00?

THE SUB_COMMISSIONER: ~~There~~<sup>are</sup> there <sup>two</sup> items included there in the $320.00, Mr. Rice?

MR. RICE: He authorized the Custodian by Exhibit 8 to sell the tractor and accessories, I mean by Exhibits 8 and 9, if you will refer to the two of them, for $300.00. He has valued the same thing and says that the value is $320.00, and yet he authorized the sale for $300.00.

A There were two wheels, two separate wheels on the tractor, which it wasn't my intention to include in the original $300.00.

Q You told the Custodian to sell your tractor and equipment for $300.00, did you not?

MR. RUSSELL: The letter is quite clear that he did not.

A Yes.

20

MR. RUSSELL: This letter says "selling tractor"; it doesn't say anything about selling accessories.

MR. RICE: You have to read both letters together.

The letter that he got says,

"We would appreciate your informing us if you would be willing to sell your Graveley tractor cultivator and accessories which you stored on Saichi Ito's property," and back comes a reply,

"I greatly appreciate for your letter advising me to selling tractor. Would you mind

30

H. Tashima,
Cross Exam.

saling them for three hundred dollars."

You have got to read the two letters together.

And that is the tractor and accessories, that is what he authorized to sell, and now he is in here trying to claim $320.00.

MR. RUSSELL: Well, your Honour, I submit that letter speaks for itself. I think it is quite clear that he is authorizing the sale of the tractor for $300.00.

10 MR. RICE: The tractor and the accessories, there is no doubt about it. He is selling them, he doesn't say to sell the tractor. He says "sell them".

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It does not say "sell them"; he says "saling them".

MR. RICE: Yes, "saling them," meaning to sell them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well, that is a matter that perhaps will be given some consideration as to what he really meant.

20 MR. RUSSELL: Yes. I would just like to draw your Honour's attention to the fact that, I don't know whether these articles mentioned in Exhibit 6 as being abandoned are being claimed or not, I rather don't think they are; but, in any event, this examination was made on January 13th, 1944. This man was evacuated on June 2nd, 1942, so that whatever value it has, I would say it has very little, the examination two years later. And I would just like to draw your Honour's attention to the fact that this land was sold for $282.00 under the assessed value.
