IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF YASUICHI NARIWA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

IN THE MATTER OF THE "INQUIRIES ACT"
PART 1, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER 99.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E
 (THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER)

10

Fort William, Ontario,
 April 27th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF YASUICHI NARIWA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

20 APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
S.M. CHERNIACK, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,	Secretary.
D.J. HANDFORD, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
T.P. HORROBIN, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

30

Y. Nariwa,
In Chief.
Discussion.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are there any amendments?

MR. CHERNIACK: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: You better make the amendments first.

MR. CHERNIACK: If your Lordship will look at the itemized page attached to the back of the claim form, your Lordship will note the bottom two lines, the items 1 bed and spring, and 1 rowboat. These have been withdrawn, my lord. We found that they had been left loosely lying about and the Custodian was not advised as to their location.

THE COMMISSIONER: That includes the rowboat as well?

MR. CHERNIACK: Yes, my lord. The one bed/spring with filled mattress, $30.00, one rowboat $20.00. That we are deleting, showing a claim of $918.00. The credit, my lord, is correct, $244.98, and the loss is therefore $673.02. May I ask that this form be sworn now? Mr. Hunter is willing to assist us.

MR. HUNTER: Has he signed it?

MR. CHERNIACK: Yes, it is signed.

20

YASUICHI NARIWA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified
through the Interpreter as follows:

MR. HUNTER: Q: Is this your signature?

A Yes.

Q And do you swear the contents of this declaration as amended to be true, so help you God?

A Yes.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. CHERNIACK:

30 Q Mr. Nariwa, I show you a typewritten statement.

Y. Nariwa,
In Chief.

Was that prepared in accordance with your instructions?

A Yes.

Q Is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q Do you swear the contents to be true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A Yes.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q Mr. Nariwa, this statement sets out a number of nets and then some loose corks and net twine. Where were those nets left? A: In the cannery net house.

10

MR. CHERNIACK: I see, my lord, there is a comment at the foot of Exhibit 1 setting out that the claimant placed individual tags on each net with his name, size of twine, size of mesh, meshes, fathoms, and estimated value, and that they were all left in the cannery nethouse at the Phoenix Cannery. "I had one room to myself". He states, "I locked the door and gave the key to the cannery manager and I reported same to the Custodian on September 29th, 1942".

20

Q Were all these items left in that room in the cannery? A: Yes.

Q Was there anything else in the room other than these items? A: There were a few other things, but I am not bothering about claiming for them.

Q Did they belong to you? A: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Where is the Phoenix Cannery? Is that at Steveston?

30

Y. Nariwa,
In Chief.

MR. CHERNIACK: Q: Is it at Steveston, the Phoenix Cannery? A: Yes.

MR. CHERNIACK: On behalf of my learned friend, my lord, I would file the analysis as Exhibit 2. In the analysis, my lord, there is one net referred to as declared and not found and two nets shown in the "no account, theft", etc. Could my learned friend advise me as to the date on which they received the report of those nets?

10 MR. HUNTER: I don't quite understand what my learned friend means by received a report. In this man's J.P. form he declared no personal property of any kind at all, my lord, but later by a letter of December 29th, 1942, he advised us he had these things whereupon an inventory was taken and the result is as shown on the analysis. In other words, there were two nets that were found ~~that~~ were subsequently stolen.

MR. CHERNIACK: It is that date I am referring to.

20 MR. HUNTER: There was one that was never found.

MR. CHERNIACK: I understand that. The date I am referring to is the date when the inventory was taken.

MR. HUNTER: Well, I haven't the exact date but it was subsequent to this letter and I think fairly shortly afterward. I can't give you the date because I haven't got it. I looked for it last night.

MR. CHERNIACK: There is no written report, other than the inventory.

30 MR. HUNTER: No. The only thing I could find was a

Y. Nariwa,
In Chief.
Discussion.

complete list showing that somebody had gone there and inventoried them and these two which they inventoried were now missing, and this one was never inventoried. It is the only thing I can find on it. Of course, that is away on. That is a memo, prepared when they go to sell them.

MR. CHERNIACK: It would appear, therefore, my lord, that as yet the Custodian hasn't located the inventory of these nets.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: You might bring out from the witness when he was evacuated, will you, Mr. Cherniack?

MR. CHERNIACK: Q: When were you evacuated? When did you leave Steveston? A: July 17th, 1942.

Q Is that when you left your home?

A No, that was when I left the immigration sheds in Vancouver.

Q And when did you leave your home?

A On the 12th of June I left Steveston.

20 MR. HUNTER: It is submitted, my lord, that the personal property was sold for its fair market value.

It is submitted that the personal property not sold but which is claimed for, the claim is excessive.

It is submitted that these nets and fishing gear and equipment were left in the custody, control or management of some person other than the Custodian, appointed by the owner of the property, and accordingly only that property which came under the custody, control or management of the Custodian is within the terms of reference.

Y. Nariwa,
Cross-Exam.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Is this your signature, Mr. Nariwa?

A Yes.

Q And the information in that form is information which you gave to the person who completed it?

A A Yes.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

Q Is this your signature on this letter, Mr. Nariwa?

A Yes.

10 Q And that is your letter, written from the Internment camp, isn't it? A: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: I file that as Exhibit 4.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

Q Why did you not declare this property that you subsequently wrote the Custodian about in your J.P. form? A: I didn't feel that I wanted to leave my property with the Custodian at that time.

20 Q I see. It wasn't just an oversight, it was a deliberate omission? A: Yes, that is so.

MR. HUNTER: Your Lordship will notice in the claimant's subsequent letter of September 29th, 1942, filed as Exhibit 4, it says, "On evacuation I gave the key to the storeroom on assurance from the cannery manager, and he also gave me his guarantee that he will look after my belongings". In any event, my submission of agency would only be applicable to the ones not declared and not found, because the others were subsequently found. Aside from that 30 I think it is entirely a question of value, my lord.

Y. Nariwa,
Discussion.

No further questions.

MR. CHERNIACK: My lord, in regard to this matter of agency, it is our submission that the Custodian became seized of the nets as of the date of receipt of that letter and we will expect strong proof as to the inventory taken.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: As much as I can say in regard to it now, Mr. Cherniack, is that it is unfortunate that the claimant did not make his declaration of his leaving it, then there would be no question whatever about the Custodian's responsibility.

MR. CHERNIACK: That is, of course, true.

THE COMMISSIONER: He elected at that time to select his own agent.

MR. CHERNIACK: Yes, my lord, that is not denied.

It is a question of the date when the Custodian was given the information.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I follow you. That is all, thank you, Nariwa.
