Ladies - please escort Gentlemen sitting at your dinner table. Gentlemen must be seated gently and with great respect - Napkins tucked in collars and removed after the meal.

Ladies are requested to think carefully about the menu and order a balanced calorie diet for the gentlemen who are requested to eat the dinner so thoughtfully chosen for them.

The Lady must first see that the gentleman she is escorting to the Restaurant or Ballroom is spick and span - clothes brushed - hair in place - correct choice of tie for this occasion - shoes shining etc.

All dances are "Ladies' Choice" - Ladies must seek out their partners for each dance and escort them to the floor, - but please do not stampede in your excitement to get your man.

After each dance ladies must see that gentlemen are taken back to their respective tables, seated, and thanked courteously.

Throughout the evening, ladies must light the gentlemen's cigars and cigarettes and make sure they have ash trays.

Ladies must ensure that no gentleman is left "unhonoured and unsung" - no sitting alone and no wallflowers! No Favouritism.

Ladies must be sure that gentlemen have no pangs of hunger or thirst during the evening.

Under all circumstances gentlemen must be treated with respect and care. Ladies should be amusing, gentle, understanding, considerate, thoughtful, observant, patient, etc. etc. etc.

Ladies intending to take their gentlemen out to the Boat Deck to "view the moon" are requested to choose the lee side of the deck, having due regard for the Health and Hair-do's of the men.

Ladies are advised that this is the only "Ladies' Night" of the voyage - so make the most of it!
