Dear Sir:

Re: Japanese School Maintenance Association

I acknowledge your letter of June 25th, and note that you desire to keep the school buildings and do not desire to sell at any price and that you desire to take such legal steps as may be necessary to maintain your property. I understand by this that you mean to maintain the Society in good standing on the Register of Companies, which I think is the simplest procedure, if that is possible.

I am writing to the Registrar of Companies today to see whether the Association is still in good standing and what is required to make sure that it will be maintained in good standing and I shall be in touch with you shortly in this connection.

Yours sincerely,

J.A. MacLENNAN
