Letter to Mr. Tashiro Feb 12/45

Admitted to time of Japanese registration told them that he did want a naturalized card & a national's reg. card.

Dear Sir:

KAWASHIMA, Masaki M. Reg. No. 00617

I wish to appeal for cancellation of my declaration for repatriation which I had signed at Granbrook, B. C.

When the Mounted Police detachment was in the Atholmer area, I had stated that I wished to remain in Canada. But as I had not signed, I could not obtain employment at Rogers, B. C. to which I had made application. With the assumption that I could obtain employment if I did so, I had signed for repatriation.

As it was only with the intention of obtaining employment at Rogers, B. C. and not with any real desire to go to Japan, I am making the above appeal that I be allowed to remain in Canada.

I trust that you will give this appeal your most considerate attention.

Yours very truly,

Masaki Kawashima
