I was a farmer in Richmond for over 30 years. Since evacuation I have been bothered with stomach ulcers and was admitted to the hospital five times. I am now in Tashme Hospital. I have five small children. For the above reasons I did not wish to go east as I understood we would have to if we did not sign. I had no alternative but to sign and avoid going east. I had no intentions of going to Japan and felt that if I left Tashme I would die.

We wish to appeal for cancellation of our declaration for repatriation. The reason we had signed was because we felt uneasy as to the certainty of making a livelihood and also because of the shortage of housing in the East.

Now that the war is over, we wish to remain in Canada and as such we are making the above appeal for cancellation.

As my security to livelihood in the east was very uncertain, therefore, to remain in Tashme I had signed the declaration.

I had no intention whatsoever to repatriate to Japan as Canada is my country.

Also I have a crippled (leg) daughter I find relocating very difficult, and that daughter may find difficulty in going to school. That is why, for daughter's sake I was forced to sign.

We wish to appeal for cancellation of our declaration for repatriation.

The reason for our signing was the fact that we had hesitated to relocate east of the Rockies because of the uncertainty of making a livelihood. At the time of signing, we were told that we could remain in New Denver and that employment would be assured to us.

We have changed our minds and do not wish to go to Japan. As we wish to remain in Canada, we earnestly request that our appeal will receive your sincerest consideration.

Yours truly,

I came to Canada in 1907 and returned to Japan in 1923 to be married. On no other occasion has either my wife or myself been in Japan since coming to Canada.

Our home was Hiroshima where my old mother lived and it was solely to care for her that we made application to go back. The destruction of Hiroshima has removed all hope from our minds that our mother still lives and moreover removes all means of livelihood for us, so that we ask you to have our application cancelled and be allowed to live our lives in this land.

Re: Sawaichi IRIZAWA -- #06992
Shizuka IRIZAWA -- #06994

Hon. Sir:

This note is to ask for the cancellation of our signatures to be repatriated to Japan, made in April last.

I came to Canada in 1917 and Mrs. Irizawa in 1928. Neither of us have ever gone to Japan since. We signed the repatriation forms because we feared to go east with a large family composed of five small children ranging from fourteen to six years. Our people lived in Hiroshima and we felt we could go there and get on somehow. Now we do not because Hiroshimas has been destroyed. We sincerely wish to change our earlier decision and be allowed to live and work in Canada, wherever the Government believes it wise for us to go .

We urge upon yourself and your government the cancellation of our earlier application.

Yours truly,

Sawaichi IRIZAWA #06992

Shizuka IRIZAWA #06994
