Dear Mr. McMaster:

Re: Hyosaku Iwasaki, Reg. No. 07446
Case No. 415

I am again writing in behalf of Mr. Iwasaki regarding the details of the award recommended in his case by the royal commission.

Mr. Brewin has given me a break down of his award of $1,499.50 by stating that, according to the Schedule attached to the Commissioner's Report he is to receive $499.50 for Vancouver real estate and $1000.00 for chattels.

Mr. Iwasaki now asks the question whether the $1000.00 for chattels includes or excludes the $250.00 deducted from his account for payment as commission to Business Investments Limited. He takes the position that he is entitled to the return of the amount deducted on the basis of the recommendation of the Commissioner on commissions and deductions.

From the evidence available, it would appear that there is justification for an award of $1000.00 on chattels without the $250.00 being included, and it is for this reason that Mr. Iwasaki is asking that the point be clarified. Should the $250.00 be excluded, would it be possible for you to make additional representations in an effort to have the amount re-imbursed?

Yours very truly,

Kunio Hidaka.
