Dear Kunio:

My plans have changed somewhat since I last wrote you and I am now leaving here tonight, going straight to Toronto. Consequently, I shall be in Toronto Friday, July 2nd. I will call you at one or other of your offices, as I will have no place of reference in the city.

I have the material for Mr. Maikawa and will be glad to discuss his problem with you both on Friday, if that is agreeable to you. I hope to leave for Montreal on Friday night, so would not like to have a late appointment for that evening.

I hope we shall have time to go over some of your work on the Maritime Survey together, and I shall bring you up to date on developments on the west coast.

Yours very truly,

EGA/

Kenjo Hibaka,
61 Avenue Road,
Toronto 2, Ont.

Dear Kenjo:

My plans have changed somewhat since I last wrote you and I am now leaving here tonight, going straight to Toronto. Consequently, I shall be in Toronto Friday, July 2nd. I will call you at one or other of your offices, as I will have no place of reference in the city.

I have the material for Mr. Johnson and will be glad to discuss his problem with you both on Friday. It had its origin to you. I hope to leave for Montreal on Friday night, so would not like to have a late appointment for that evening.

I hope we shall have time to go over some of your work on the Maritime Survey together, and I shall bring you up to date on developments on the west coast.

Yours very truly,
