Dear Mr. Kimura:

Rather had expected to hear from you before this date, but presume you have nothing in particular to tell me. However, hope you are having a very happy visit in the upper country.

By this time you will have received the publicity given to the Sales by the "Sun", on page one of last Saturday's issue, giving the correct interpretation of the intents of the Custodian in counter distinction of a contemporary who "jumped the gun" two days in advance on the 17th. In this latter publicity there are several errors and omissions, as you will easily note. Had expected a retrieval in the newspaper referred to, by Friday or Saturday, but I do not discover any such thing.

Identical sales ads appeared in Saturday's issues of the three local papers. In all probability you will have seen them ere this.

Hurry back, I am getting lonesome for you. Meantime the regards of the staff are yours, and I would like to be remembered particularly to the "Chief". Have not any funny stories for him, except perhaps one: They are posting lifeguards on Broadway in New York to save the sailors from the "Waves".

Regards,

Sincerely,

H. S. Durkee/MS

Dear Mr. Kimura,

Re: Salt Salmon Exporters Ltd.

We will shortly have to make a return to the income tax people for this company. My understanding is that it did no business in the year 1942. Please advise me in regard to this so that I may make the necessary returns for the company.

We understand that the Custodian has taken over the Canadian Salt Herring Exporters Limited and is winding it up but we have heard nothing in regard to Salt Salmon Exporters of B.C. Ltd. If you have any further information about this please let me know.

I hope you are enjoying your enforced holiday and that you are in good health.

Yours truly,

WILLIAMS & RAE

Sirs: -

Attention Mr. A. McAlister.

Re: Your File No. 13409.

With reference to your favor of 17th inst., regarding my claim against the Canadian Salt Herring Exporters Limited, I am enclosing you herewith "Proof of Debts" duly executed, to the extent of $1,724.59 attaching my statement.

As per registered with you, I have had the understanding of the Directors' Meeting (by its resolution) of the aforesaid company to take possession of the War Loans vested by the company with the Royal Bank of Canada, East End Branch, Vancouver, B.C., a copy of the said resolution is filed with the bank. The War Loans, then, was assessed $99.00 on $100.00 denomination, and the amount of such loans owned by the company was $1,600.00 face value.

The circumstance stated in the second paragraph was explained to Messrs. P. S. Ross and Sons who audited the affairs of the company. However, because I did not have their official authority to take possession of the War Loans, they are still left with the Bank.

And, in view of the above, when executing my "Proof of Debts", I did not enter the above mentioned War Loans as Securities held.

Thanking you for your services, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Kishizo Kimura
