Consulting Certificate

This Certifies that

Jisa Wakabayashi

is entitled to the privileges of the Consulting Department of the American Technical Society for one year.

The Consulting Department is composed of a large corps of consulting engineers and experts. Each inquiry is referred to the expert most familiar with the subject; and the solution, explanation, or reference to best authorities is forwarded to the inquirer.

The above named is entitled to refer to the Consulting Department all difficult questions or problems connected with his daily work, of a practical nature and within the scope of the Society's publications.

The holder is further entitled to the benefit of the Society's discounts on books, periodicals, drawing and scientific instruments, and supplies.

This Certificate is not transferable, and the holder agrees to use the privileges hereby conferred solely for his own benefit.

The Number of this certificate must be mentioned in all communications.

Given under the seal of the American Technical Society this thirty-first day of March A. D. 19*21*.

Annual Fee $12.00
