INCORPORATED 1869

HEAD OFFICE
MONTREAL, CANADA

The Royal Bank of Canada

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

1. For the protection of customers it is required that deposits shall be handed to the Teller, who is the only officer authorized to receive them. Customers should see that deposits are entered in their Pass Books when made.
2. Funds deposited will be paid only to the depositor in person or upon presentation of his written order.
3. Interest will be credited at the current rate, which may be learned from the Teller at any time.
4. Accrued interest will be credited on May 31st and November 30th. Please present your Pass Book at or soon after these dates to have the interest added.

5. If you are moving to another district, the Manager will be glad to arrange transfer of your account to a branch near your new home. In any event, please tell us of any change of address so that it may be recorded on your page in our ledger.
6. If you find it necessary to close your account, please turn in this Pass Book to the Teller.
7. The bank reserves the right to require fifteen days' notice when all or any portion of a deposit is withdrawn.
8. For your protection please write the number of your account on all cheques.
