BRITISH SECURITY CO-ORDINATION

630, FIFTH AVENUE
(ROOM 3606)
NEW YORK 20, N. Y.

CIRCLE 6-6300

May 8th, 1945.

My Dear Mac

As the successful conclusion of the European war brings much of the work of British Security Coordination to an end, I feel I should like to let you know how much I appreciate your very substantial contribution to our joint effort.

Our indebtedness to you dates back to the early days of the war when, as Counsel to the Canadian Custodian, you frequently went considerably out of your way to do us favours. Friendly co-operation such as we received from you did much to smooth the path of this organization when the going was more difficult than it is now. In September 1941, when we needed a man with considerable organizing and administrative abilities, we were very pleased to get you to undertake a full-time job for us, and I need hardly tell you how much we appreciated the fine work you did in the succeeding months.

It was a substantial loss to British Security Coordination when, early in 1942, the Under Secretary of State requested your return to Canada on the undeniable grounds that you were indispensable to the Custodian's office. However, we were lucky that even after we lost your full time services we were able to call on you from time to time for special favours that no one else could perform.

Please accept my sincere thanks for all you have done. With best regards and all good wishes for continued success in the future, I remain,

Yours sincerely
Wm Stephenson

Dear Mac

Many thanks for your letter. I was glad to hear that everything is going well for you. I expect that we shall be here until a few weeks after Christmas and would be very glad to see you if you should come to New York. Please let me know when you have made up your mind as to that so that we shall be certain to be in town when you arrive and we can have a good pow-wow.

Looking forward to seeing you and with all best wishes.

*Yours ever
Bill*

My dear Mac:

It was very kind of you to write me your most pleasant letter of December 9th. I thought that the article was fairly competently written and I was more than pleased to find that there was no word said of any of our really major and more important operations. The title was not only inaccurate, but, I think, silly.

This brings you and your family all best wishes for Christmas and the New Year from Mary and myself.

Yours ever,

Bill
