Dear Mr. MacMillan:-

With reference to the attached.

The record is indeed gratifying to us, as, I hope, it is to you. We shall continue, unabated, our efforts to provide a service that will deserve the continued patronage of your Company.

I miss the occasional meetings with your good self in Montreal, and am looking forward to seeing you the next time I visit the Coast, if good fortune does not provide an opportunity elsewhere in the meanwhile.

Sincerely yours,

The H. R. MacMillan Export Co., Ltd.,

Dear Sir:-

I desire to acknowledge, with thanks, your letter of the 21st instant, in which you were good enough to state figures indicating the volume of traffic with which your Company favoured the Canadian Pacific during the year ended the 31st ultimo.

Please be assured that the benefits of this relationship are highly appreciated, and it will be our constant endeavour to have them continue to be mutual.

The courtesy of your concluding remark is observed, but you will understand, I am sure, that I could not easily forego the pleasure of an acknowledgment.

Yours very truly,

Vice-President.
