RADIO LEAGUES FORMED

Support Report of Dominion Commission

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—Dismissing the immediate interest being taken among radio lovers all over Canada in the reconstituted of the royal commission on radio, which will be taken up by the forthcoming session of parliament, the Ottawa citizens in its own column said today. "Resolutions from the west state that leagues formation unions are being formed throughout the province with the avowed object of hastening the date of the commencement over what the program shall consist of shall be expedient. "Citizens are not inclined to be lulled by the report, and steps are being taken towards the formation of a similar organization. "A society will be formed which will have for its object the supporting of the report of the royal commission, and making the desire of the radio public known to parliament."

A little praise helps drive a lot of criticism.

TRUNK HIGHWAY CONTROL FOR B. C. GOV'T

Maintenance and Traffic Revenue Scheme Presented to Legislature

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—Power to designate as an arterial highway any road running out of a municipality into provincial territory and to exercise responsibility for its maintenance, is conferred on the government of British Columbia in amendments to the Highway Act brought down to the legislature on Wednesday by the Hon. H. S. Longford, minister of public works. The bill gives the government sweeping powers over bus and motor freight transportation.

It will be empowered to allow any municipality to have exclusive control over the roads to operate on schedule works, with roads to be posted to cover any possible damage to passengers. To secure revenue to maintain such roads, the government proposes under the bill to collect one per cent of the entire gross revenue of the transportation commission in addition to the special tax and license.

No powers are sought under the bill to control the operations of buses within a city, the bill being aimed to help establish motor freight and motor passenger transportation services on a reliable basis throughout the province.
