Thin Year KING PLEDGES RAIL OUTLET

GOV'T WILL ACT IF RAILWAYS DON'T PICK ROUTE IN 6 MONTHS

Ottawa, May 29.—"I will say that if they (the two railways) do not make a beginning within a year and the present administration should be in office at the end of that period, then we will undertake to find a way or make it for the beginning of a railway route from the Fraser River district to connect with some other railway line."

This was the announcement of Premier Mackenzie King Wednesday night in the house in a further statement on the question of a Peace River outlet, when D. M. Kennedy's amendment to the motion to go into committee of supply still blocked the way for voting affirmative in the house.

Following the prime minister's statement, which occupied twenty minutes, Mr. Kennedy withdrew his amendment.

Mr. King spoke as follows:

SURVEYORS SEEK BEST ROUTE

"I have had this question before me and I am glad to say that the president of the Canadian Railway Association and the president of the Canadian National Railway Association have agreed to meet me to discuss the question of the best route for a railway line from the Fraser River to the Peace River district. I am sure that they will be able to reach an agreement on this question within a reasonable time."

JOINT UNDERTAKING FAVORED

"I am glad to say that the president of the Canadian Railway Association and the president of the Canadian National Railway Association have agreed to meet me to discuss the question of the best route for a railway line from the Fraser River to the Peace River district. I am sure that they will be able to reach an agreement on this question within a reasonable time."

UNNECESSARY TOPRESS AMENDMENT

"I am glad to say that the president of the Canadian Railway Association and the president of the Canadian National Railway Association have agreed to meet me to discuss the question of the best route for a railway line from the Fraser River to the Peace River district. I am sure that they will be able to reach an agreement on this question within a reasonable time."

Housecleaning is Much Easier This Way

All the tiring work has been taken out of housecleaning by the Premier Complete Cleaning Unit. Not just a few details, but every bit of hard work.

These Cleaning Units keep homes so clean and free from dirt that spring-cleaning is no longer necessary. All those nerve-racking tasks—beating rugs—scrubbing and scrubbing floors—removing the grime that has gathered over the water in corners that ordinary cleaning methods can't reach—are eliminated because these Cleaning Units never let dirt gather anywhere.

Think of all the difficult corners and crevices and ledges where dust and dirt settle each day! From every where these Units get every speck of dirt. Into places where ordinary vacuum cleaners and attachments could not reach, these Units take their powerful cleaning action.

They also polish waxed floors—bracket cooking odds—and protect materials against moth ravages.

Yet their cost is about the same as an ordinary vacuum cleaner with its attachments. Phone a dealer now for a home demonstration.
