ADVANTAGES OF PORT STRESSED*C.M.A. Delegation Invited

Industries at Toronto Study growth of Vancouver's export trade and the opportunities for establishment of branch factories here by established firms of the C.M.A., representing the Canadian Manufacturers Association.

Major L. A. Ashton of Vancouver, representing the Canadian Manufacturers Association, found strong support to the proposal of the delegation by Mr. G. C. Mc-Cormick, who has just been appointed to the post of Chairman of the C.M.A. This annual meeting in British Columbia is the second time in the history of the meeting committee that the C.M.A. has gathered. Decision is in the hands of the executive committee.

The executive committee met yesterday evening at the Hotel Vancouver.

Chairman of the C.M.A. was not present.

One Indian was arrested on June 10 at the port of entry at Victoria, but police refused to disclose his name.

He was held over until the morning of Wednesday, June 11, following his arrival from the interior of the province.

INDIANS SOUGHT
IN MURDER CASE

By Canadian Press

VICTORIA, June 11.—Police arrested several Indians yesterday after they had been sought for murder.

Montana and Idaho police turned out yesterday to search for Indians who had killed two men in a shooting which ended the hour before the arrest.

Members of the Imperial Council of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and A. Fletcher was to speak to the Indians about the shooting.

A dead body was a rule in one of the Indian camps, but the police had to get up a trail to find it.

A letter from W. E. McLean, president of the Board of Trade, said that the Indians were to be given a day off work.

W. Mitchell, chairman of the Indian affairs committee, said he was awaiting the arrival of the government representatives immediately to investigate.

Vancouverites to be held cooperative.
