EGYPT FACES NEW ELECTION

Prime Minister and Cabinet
File Resignations

CAIRO, June 17.—Mustafa Pasha Nefza, Prime Minister, today tendered his own and his Cabinet's resignation to King Fuad. His ministry was formed June 1, 1929, after a violent victory in the general elections a few days previous.

The resignation was understood to be due to conflict between the King and the Cabinet with regard to the proposed bill to safeguard the constitution, providing severe penalties for violations.

The French, previously had stated that the Cabinet were unable to carry out their duties and consequently their dignity could not pertain to remain in office.

A moment later Helen took it from her through a crack in the door.

"Then you are too good to me,"
she said. "Helen, please see me," it said.

Helen opened the door and looked out. "Oh, I can't," she said.

"What's the matter?" she asked.

"I'm too tired," she said.
