Permit For Sunday Play Is Refused

After granting several requests for permission to hold Sunday night concerts for Christmas benefits funds the civic finance committee Tuesday declined to allow the Chinese High School and University Association to stage a play in the Royal Theatre on Sunday evening, December 28.

WOMAN M.P. RAPS TORY BUTTER STAND SEES FIGHT OVER CONSIGNMENT SALE

any heard a coast-to-coast howl against New Zealand imports. Canada, Miss MacPhail maintained, was expressing the worst possible kind of spirit in raising her tariffs, she alleged to Great Britain as the only nation in the world that had retained economic sanity.

Officials of the company were restricted from expressing political principles at variance with those of the United Farmers of Canada by a motion put by Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., for Southeast Grey, which was carried.

COAST TO COAST HOWL. Miss Macphail, backing her motion, said: "As long as a ring of four or five big creameries were doing all the butter importing, it was all right, but as soon as butter began coming into the country on consignment to other dealers who resold it at lower prices than the ring, then the con-

MINING ACTIVITY AID TO BUSINESS

Should Use More Canadian Money, Says Expert

Canadian business generally would be benefited if there was a larger proportion of Canadian capital financing Canadian mining and consequent greater Canadian control of purchasing of supplies, hiring of engineers and keeping the profits of Canadian mining at home.

Smelting and refining of British Columbia ores outside Canada has not been checked by any provision of a smelter at the coast, thus keeping in Canada approximately 20 per cent of all the money realized from mining operations tributary to B. C. lead mines. A smelter would be a great help to the coal industry.

Returning to London, Bart was enthusiastically taken up by Harnsworth. His staccato style of writing had an attractiveness, and he was author of many books. Eventually Kennedy and Harnsworth had a disagreement. Kennedy, apparently with the tacit aid of Harnsworth's former patron, started his own weekly paper.

EDMONTON, Dec. 10. — In the legislative election yesterday three Civic Government Association candidates and one Labor candidate were elected to a total of eight to fill four vacancies in the City Council. Mayor Barronman, Dr. G. A. candidates elected, and Kennedy, M.L.A., also received endorsement.

LETHBRIDGE ELECTIONS. Dr. Victor Holmes, president of B. C. Chamber of Mines, presided at the joint meeting which was under the joint auspices of that body, the Mining Bureau of Vancouver Board of Trade and the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy. The speaker was introduced by Hon. George Black, M.P. for the Yukon and Speaker of the House of Commons.

When prices are stabilized, he predicted, the whole Yukon Territory would be combed for the wealthy deposits it undoubtedly contains.
