PORT DARWIN, North Australia, April 10.—Charle

PORT DARWIN, North Australia, April 10.—Charles W. Al. Scott, sweeping down upon the air field here from a flight over the turbulent Timor Sea, set a new record today for a flight between England and Australia.

Landing at 5:50 pm. 6:20 am. G.M.T. and 3:20 am.

E.S.T.) he concluded in 9 days, 3 hours, 20 minutes a trip of about 11,000 miles over the plains, mountains and forests of Eurasia and the Malay Archipelago.

His mark is better by 19 hours and 20 minutes than the record established by Wing Commander Chartes Kingsford-Smith, hero of both Pacific and Atlantic Highty, and clobber 20. Kingsford-Smith's time was 8 days and 20-hours, a mark which was five and one-half days better than the previous record.
